Officials decide Viet refugees need help—now

By ED PRATHER
PB Staff Writer

An emergency meeting of local officials was held late Friday afternoon at Pomona City Hall to discuss the immediate needs and problems faced by the more than 125 Vietnamese refugees who arrived in Pomona Thursday.

Medical care seemed to be the most urgent need, as it was learned that several cases of chicken pox have been reported among the Vietnamese and one woman is expecting a child within a few days.

Gerald Martin, sponsor of the group, told officials it was his understanding that the Vietnamese could qualify for Medi-Cal coverage.

Unfortunately, the Vietnamese may have to go to Los Angeles for care under Medi-Cal since local hospitals are all privately owned.

Don Donnelly, president of the Pomona School Board, suggested that the administrator of Pomona Valley Community Hospital be contacted and see if some services could be provided locally if an emergency situation developed.

Donnelly and other school district officials also arranged with Martin to set up a meeting on Tuesday to discuss the enrollment of the Vietnamese children in schools.

He said that tentative plans call for at least two schools to be designated in the city where Vietnamese will take classes in English. Adult education classes are also planned.

The Vietnamese are living at the Sunflower Apartments at Phillips Boulevard and Holly Way in southeast Pomona.

Martin said that bedding, refrigerators, kitchen utensils and other necessities are being provided, although some of the Vietnamese have not yet received these items.

Martin assured officials that the Vietnamese are being fed and that all utilities at the apartment complex are operating.

He added that at least 40 of the refugees worked Friday in Orange County where he has arranged gardening jobs at $2.10 per hour.

A gardening operation is also planned for Pomona and may begin operation next week. He said that each family has been guaranteed from 40 to 82 hours of work per week, depending upon the size of the family.

Most of the Vietnamese in the group, said Martin, are of Chinese ancestry, with Chinese being their primary language although they can also speak Vietnamese. Very few speak English.

The problems of language and transportation will continue to be the main problems for the refugees for some time, officials agreed.

Sgt. Tom McCullough of the Pomona Police Department urged Martin to have at least one English speaking refugee available 24 hours per day at the apartment complex in case police or firemen are needed in an emergency.

Clarence Webb, director of community relations for the city, said that between 300 and 500 Vietnamese may be relocated in Pomona within weeks.

He said that city was surprised at the overnight appearance of this group, and hoped to be more prepared when more refugees arrive.

"We want to welcome these people and make their transition to life here easier. We don't want to see them victimized by anyone," he said.

Martin is also planning to move a number of Vietnamese into the La Fiesta Apartments on N. Garey Avenue — a group which will number over 100 persons.

A third group, under another sponsor, is expected to be resettled soon in an apartment complex on Angela Street in south Pomona within the near future.

That group totals about 10 families.

Officials, however, said they have not been contacted by the sponsor in two weeks.

Webb indicated that approximately 100 other Vietnamese have been living in Pomona for several weeks or longer, although these are in single family groups sponsored by local churches or families.

Chuck McCracken

Dying man sells his radio to buy bikes for children

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP) — Chuck McCracken, weakened and closer to death since he stopped using his kidney dialysis machine, has sold his beloved ham radio to buy bicycles for his four children.

McCracken, 37, entered Loma Linda University Medical Center in a near coma Tuesday when his blood sugar dropped dangerously low. Besides kidney problems, he has diabetes, is blind and is partially paralyzed.

When he came home Thursday, a family friend said McCracken was feeling better.

"He's weak," said friend Jim Connely, "There's no question about that. But he wanted to be home with his family."

McCracken refused any further dialysis treatments after July 22, saying they were "sheer agony." Doctors then predicted he couldn't live this long without them.

On Friday doctors said his improvement was temporary.

McCracken's activities are greatly reduced, even in the last two weeks, Connely said. Until then, he regularly called a wide network of friends on his ham radio.

"The radio has been sold," Connely said. "He couldn't operate it any more."

With the money the radio brought, Connely said McCracken's wife Barbara bought bicycles for the couples' children, ages 7 to 14.

'The worst is coming' in Pennsylvania

Torrential rains force thousands to evacuate

National Guard called, heavy rains continue

By BILL AHEARN
Associated Press Writer

National Guard troops were mobilized in Pennsylvania on Friday and thousands of persons were evacuated from the central part of the state and southern New York as a stalled system of heavy rains caused dozens of rivers and smaller tributaries to overrun their banks.

Gov. Milton Shapp called up 1,000 members of the state's National Guard to help in the relocation of some 20,000 persons from homes in the lower central and northeastern areas of the state where five days of rain ended in the Susquehanna River basin, but officials said more major flooding could occur.

At least four persons were killed in storm-related accidents in Pennsylvania.

Although swollen streams and creeks were forced over their banks by more than a foot of rain, they began to recede throughout the stricken 21-county area. But Walter Nickelsberg, a hydrologist for the National Weather Service, warned that "the worst would come today" as the crest rolled down the Susquehanna.

The Susquehanna is expected to crest 8 to 12 feet above flood stage as it roars past Williamsport, Sunbury, Milton, Wilkes-Barre and Harrisburg.

Hardest hit were Tioga County bordering New York state, where 4,500 fled their homes, and Muncy, near Williamsport, where National Guardsmen evacuated half the town of 2,000.

Spawned by the remnants of Hurricane Eloise, it was the worst storm to pummel Pennsylvania since the destruction wrought by Tropical Storm Agnes in June 1972 when damage reached $3 billion.

Hundreds of persons fled the southern New York State counties of Chemung and Steuben in the face of rain-swollen rivers that threatened a 100-mile swath of the Southern Tier. A state of emergency was declared in Tioga County.

In New York City, a record wind-driven downpour hit the sodden metropolitan area Friday, posing the gravest flood threat in years and leading to mobilization of emergency equipment on a night-long basis. It was the eighth consecutive day of rain for the Big Apple.

Mayor Abraham D. Beame huddled with top aides at City Hall, mapping plans to cope with the crippling effects of the latest storm. The U.S. Weather service said 1.67 inches of rain was dumped on the city during the day, a record for the date. Sections of Queens, Staten Island and the suburbs had more than three inches.

Beginning a week ago, a total of nearly eight inches of rain fell on the city. Normal for the entire month of September is 3.27 inches.

Rail traffic in and out of the city was reported delayed with some service suspended on the Penn Central and the Long Island Railroad.

RFK ASSASSINATION GUN

The gun used by Sirhan B. Sirhan in the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy is fired down into a tank of water by Patrick Garland Friday. Garland, a member of a panel of firearms experts re-examining ballistics fired the gun in Los Angeles as part of a probe into the shooting.

Report says IRS official 'sabotaged' tax probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee was reported Friday to be investigating allegations that Internal Revenue Service Commissioner Donald Alexander sabotaged a massive tax evasion investigation.

A report by Clarence Jones of WPLG-TV in Miami broadcast on Post-Newsweek stations said the case involves more than 100 top executives in scores of major corporations across the country.

According to the Post-Newsweek report, IRS agents have evidence indicating the corporation executives hid hundreds of millions of dollars in the Bahamas to evade U.S. income taxes.

It also said the committee is looking into whether Alexander or his Cincinnati law firm had secret bank or trust accounts in the Bahamas that might have been used to evade taxes or to hide illegal campaign contributions.

Rep. Charles A. Vanik, D-Ohio, chairman of the committee's investigating subcommittee, confirmed the panel received some "unverified allegations" about Alexander and said they had been sent to "appropriate authorities" for checking. Congressional sources said the authorities included the Justice Department.

Meanwhile, the IRS issued a statement saying Alexander "categorically denied" the allegations.

According to the Post-Newsweek report, committee investigators have been told by IRS agents that the intelligence division of the IRS received a tip that a meeting was to take place between Alexander and a major securities swindler with ties to organized crime.

Weapons bill lets women in academies

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $30.9 billion weapons authorization bill, trimmed $250 million in a second House-Senate compromise, was passed by the Senate 63 to 7 Friday and sent to the White House.

The bill opens up the three military academies to women for the first time beginning next year.

The Senate rejected the first compromise by a 48-42 vote on Aug. 1 on protests by Chairman Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, and other members of the Senate Budget Committee that it exceeded congressional budget targets set in May.

Whittled by $250 million, the second compromise authorizes $25.5 billion for weapons research, development and procurement for the 12 months that began July 1 and $5.4 billion for the three-month transitional period to the start of the new federal fiscal year Oct. 1, 1976.

LAPD hears the law, must hire homosexuals

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Civil Service Commission ruled Friday that the police department must hire qualified homosexuals, but the department reiterated there is no place for them on the force.

"It's impossible for a homosexual to be a police officer," said police Cmdr. Pete Hagen.

Asked what the department's next step would be in view of the ruling, Hagen said, "We've come up with a solution — don't hire them." He added it was unlikely a homosexual would be able to complete the department's rigorous training.

The commission voted unanimously to approve the new police hiring standards on advice of the city attorney. They will go into effect immediately, said Personnel Department spokesman Robert Gandy.

The commission staff conceded homosexuals will be trying to function in a "hostile environment" and that the public may object but that, "Such considerations, standing alone, are insufficient to warrant disqualification."

Hagen said Police Chief Edward M. Davis is "unavailable for comment" but added the chief has many times issued four primary objections to hiring homosexuals:

—"The Los Angeles Police Department has an aggressive physical fitness program that could cause problems if a homosexual is attracted to another man. We also have locker room situations and showers which would be intolerable if there were homosexuals present.

—"Partners in black and white cars work together eight hours a day, five days a week, and particularly if you have to plan an attack there is always a question of which officer is going to do what." Asked if it were a matter of trust, Hagen said, "Yes."

—"What if the mother of a missing 6-year-old boy finds out that a homosexual officer has been assigned to look for her son. It would created grave problems.

—"And if a police officer gets a call on a sex offense, such as a homosexual offense in a city park, and if one of the officers is homosexual, he will not in our opinion be a good witness to the crime."

4 killed in air crash

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO (AP) — A Marine C131 cargo plane crashed and burned minutes after takeoff Friday, killing four men and seriously injuring two others, a Marine spokesman said.

The spokesman, Capt. John Shotwell, said the twin-engine plane crashed eight miles from the El Toro Marine Air Corps Air Station where it took off.

Eyewitnesses said the plane unexplainedly began losing altitude, brushed a hill and crashed in a plowed field near Saddleback College and about 70 miles southeast of Los Angeles.

One survivor was listed in critical condition at the burn ward of the Orange County Medical Center. The second man, identified as Staff Sgt. Edgar Strain, 28, was taken in "guarded condition" to Mission Community Hospital where he underwent immediate surgery.

Boy rescued

A two-year-old Chino boy is in stable condition at Pomona Valley Community Hospital after being rescued from his backyard swimming pool at 12251 Olive St., Chino.

Darren Crutchfield was transferred from Chino General Hospital to Pomona Valley Friday shortly after the swimming pool incident reported to Chino Fire Department paramedics at 6:05 p.m.

F. Lee Bailey, 'slayer of goliaths'

Famous lawyer to defend Hearst

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Patricia Hearst's lawyers announced Friday night that criminal lawyer F. Lee Bailey will assist in her defense.

Bailey visited Miss Hearst earlier in the day at the San Mateo County Jail where she is awaiting prosecution on bank robbery, kidnap and other charges.

Sheriff John R. McDonald said Bailey, with lawyers Terence Hallinan and John Knutson, met with the newspaper heiress for "a short time."

Hallinan and Knutson said later that Bailey will ask U.S. District Court Judge Oliver Carter on Tuesday for permission to join the case as cocounsel on Miss Hearst's behalf.

Bailey, a Bostonian whose name is often in the headlines, is a lawyer known for dramatic and aggressive trial tactics.

He has figured in a number of famous trials, including those of Army Capt. Ernest Medina, whom he successfully defended against My Lai atrocity charges, and Dr. Sam Shepherd, who won a new trial with Bailey's help.

Bailey's involvement in a 1970 air traffic controllers' strike prompted a psychiatrist working for the Federal Aviation Administration to say that Bailey's "role in life is to slay Goliaths."

Bailey himself has faced the power of a federal court, charged in Orlando, Fla., with Florida cosmetics multimillionaire Glenn W. Turner and four associates on a 28-count indictment. On Aug. 8, 1974 the judge dismissed the charges against Bailey.

No suspended sentences

Heroin pushers to be jailed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund Brown Jr. signed legislation Friday mandating prison terms for convicted heroin pushers, saying the bill would show Californians "that we're serious about crime."

"I think it's fit punishment," Brown said during a press conference in which he also said he owned a shotgun and was skeptical of gun-control proposals.

"It may not fit into some sociological theory," the governor said of the heroin bill. "It may not fit into some rehabilitative approach. But it provides for simple justice."

The bill will prevent judges from granting probation or suspended sentences to persons convicted of selling or possessing for sale a half ounce or more of a substance containing heroin.

Sen. Alan Robbins, the Van Nuys Democrat who introduced the measure, appeared with Brown and said that 64 per cent of heroin pushers convicted in 1973 received probation.

Current law allows a judge to grant probation to a pusher who does not have a prior felony conviction involving narcotics.

The bill is the second mandatory sentencing measure signed by Brown this week. He has also signed a bill requiring prison terms for persons who use guns to commit certain serious crimes.

Anti-busing bill passed by Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $36.2 million money bill carrying two provisions designed to block school busing ordered by the Health, Education and Welfare Department won Senate approval Friday on a 60-18 vote.

The anti-busing provisions would not affect busing ordered by the federal courts to end racial segregation. Most of the big busing programs now under way are court-ordered.

The final vote, after more than a week of bitter debate, centered largely on busing. The measure now goes to conference with the House.

The fate of the busing riders will be decided in conference, since the House version does not contain comparable provisions.

As it passed the Senate, the bill carrying funds for HEW and the Labor Department exceeds the House total by $300 million and President Ford's budget by $1.1 billion. Some Senators said this made it a likely veto target.

In the long series of votes on the busing issue, anti-busing forces showed greater strength than at any time in the Senate since the 1954 Supreme Court decision outlawing racial segregation in public schools.

Spokesmen for civil rights groups said that they did not consider the adoption of the two riders to be of great practical significance.

Quiet in Hearst search

9 months in jail, Garvey released

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Cynthia Garvey, who spent nine months in jail for refusing to answers questions of a grand jury investigating the Patricia Hearst case, was freed Friday.

She was ordered released because the grand jury was dismissed Thursday.

As she emerged from the San Francisco County jail, Miss Garvey, 24, of Oakland, refused to answer questions about Miss Hearst, who was apprehended last week by the FBI in San Francisco.

"I'm happy I'm out," she told reporters. "I've been in jail nine months. I've done my time. It wasn't easy but I'm glad I did it. I havn't seen fresh air or sun or nothing."

Miss Garvey was reported to have known several members of the Symbionese Liberation Army before they became active in the terrorist group. She had told newsmen that she knew nothing about the kidnaping of Miss Hearst or the SLA.

RFK son fined $50

WOODSTOCK, Va. (AP) — David A. Kennedy, 20-year-old son of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, was fined $50 by a county judge here Friday after pleading guilty to a charge of reckless driving.

Kennedy, who lives in McLean, Va., was arrested July 12 on Interstate 81 near New Market, Va., after State Trooper J. L. Heltzel clocked his Toyota auto at a high rate of speed.

Kennedy also was charged with failure to possess a Virginia driver's license and registration card, but these charges were dismissed by General District Court Judge Kermit Racey.

5 killed in Beirut

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Mortar and machine gun clashes erupted Friday night in the suburbs of Beirut despite a cease-fire, killing five persons and wounding 30, including three policemen, it was reported.

The exchanges occurred in the districts of Karantina, Ashrafieh, Nabaah, Sinel Fil, Furn el-Chebback and Ein Rummaneh, according to police reports. Downtown Beirut was reported quiet.

Earlier, shopkeepers returned to their stores to add up the damage from the sectarian street warfare but sniper fire drove most back to their homes.

The private armies of leftwing Moslem parties and rightwing Christians seemed in general to be abiding by a shaky cease-fire arranged by Premier Rashid Karami with help from Syrian Foreign Minister Abdul Halim Khaddam and Palestinian guerrilla chief Yasir Arafat.

Hunt brothers found innocent

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Two sons of the late billionaire oilman H.L. Hunt, Bunker and Herbert Hunt, were found innocent on Friday of federal wiretapping charges.

"I knew we would be exonerated once all the evidence was in," said Bunker Hunt, 49, after a U.S. District Court jury returned the verdict.

"It's been a long five years," commented his 46-year-old brother.

The pair was acquitted after less than two hours of deliberation by the nine-man, three-woman panel.

Two dozen members of the Hunt family surrounded the brothers in the courtroom and embraced them.

In a six-count indictment issued in 1972, the Dallas oil millionaires were accused of illegally tapping the telephones of several of their father's employes.

A conviction would have have carried a maximum penalty of 30 years in prison and a $60,000 fine.

"The defense was the truth," declared a smiling Hunt attorney after the aquittal was announced. "We never did deny ordering the wiretap."

House passes oil bill; Ford next

WASHINGTON (AP) — A compromise 50-day extension of oil price controls was overwhelmingly approved by Congress on Friday and sent to President Ford, who termed it "the last extension."

The measure restores the controls which ended Sept. 1, applying them retroactively to that time. It will remain in effect through Nov. 15.

Ford's signature on the measure is assured. It passed the Senate 75 to 5 and the House then approved it by a 342-16 vote.

Presidential Press Secretary Ron Nessen said that under the compromise, Ford will feel free to act administratively anytime after Nov. 1 to produce his own decontrol plan, subject to congressional veto, if no agreement has been worked out.

Spotlight on crime

Officer hurt, but nabs youth

An Ontario police officer was slightly injured in a foot pursuit from the scene of a burglary at the Bon View Recreation Center, 1010 S. Bon View Ave., Thursday but caught a suspect — a 15-year-old Ontario youth.

Police Officer Lou Holloman said he was called to the recreation center about 7:15 p.m. Thursday when an employe discovered a shed door had been pried open by burglars. Holloman found that the stolen items, including four sewing machines valued at $400 and three cases of empty pop bottles had been placed on the roof.

Holloman waited for the burglars to return to pick up their loot. He said three youths appeared and started to climb up on the roof and he went in foot pursuit.

Holloman caught up with the 15-year-old youth just as a skylight hatch fell from the ceiling, striking him on head. The officer managed to hang onto the youth, but the other two escaped.

Holloman was later treated at Ontario Community Hospital for a head laceration and released. The youth was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Tom Kahley thinks crime has gone too far when people start stealing American flags.

Kahley, who flies his flag every day from the trailer he lives in at 934 W. Holt Ave. in Pomona, put it up Thursday at 6:15 a.m. and by 9 a.m. someone had stolen it.

"It's not the value of the flag that bothers me," Kahley said, "it's only worth about $4. It's the principle of the thing. When people start stealing American flags, we're in trouble."

Kahley is an orthopedic technician at Pomona Valley Community Hospital.

A self-service station —but not completely

When you pull into a service station soon to be constructed at 110 E. Foothill Blvd, Pomona, it had better be for gasoline.

The self-service fuel center will break from tradition by omitting public restrooms from its structure. In case of an emergency, however, patrons will be offered the use of the employes restroom.

The question of public restrooms came up Wednesday night when the Pomona Planning Commission was asked to approve a conditional use permit and also a variance to reduce the minimum floor area of the main building.

In defense of the omission, John J. Moller representing the USA Petroleum Corp., said most motorists using the self-service stations are in and out so quickly and don't stay long enough to use the facilities.

He also reported that restrooms at many service stations are not always in the best of condition. "We have a good inspection system and yet find it impossible to keep up with the damage the public can inflict."

In other stations where public restrooms have been deleted, there has been no demand for such facilities, he added. "We do not have it and they don't expect it."

But Planner John Nabarrete argued that public restrooms are a convenience to the traveling public. "This is a courtesy and is needed."

In support of the application, Planner Priscilla Hurd said she would be more concerned over the lack of public restrooms if this station was located close to a freeway.

But at this location it will be used by residents who live nearby. "I feel it would not be that difficult," she added.

The planners were unanimous in granting the use permit and variance.

HERE'S PIE IN YOUR EYE

L.V. to greet Bicentennial wagon at community dinner

A community chuckwagon dinner is planned in La Verne to greet the Bicentennial Wagon Train which will go through the valley Oct. 8 on its way to Philadelphia.

The dinner will be held at Kuns Park in La Verne from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. under the auspices of the city's Bicentennial Committee.

Proceeds will go toward defraying the cost of a $20,000 copy of the Liberty Bell, the purchase of which was underwritten by the City Council. The bell was flown here from London three weeks ago and is now on display at the Los Angeles County Fair.

Entertainment for the evening will include performances by a barber shop quartet, a dance ensemble, and the Bonita Concert Band and a 40-minute presentation by the Bicentennial pilgrimage.

Mrs. Mary Buehler will have charge of the dinner which will include home cooked ham, home-baked bread, trimmings, cake and soft drinks. The cost will be $2.50 for adults and $1 for children under 12.

Tickets are available through the Chamber of Commerce, merchants of the city, PTAs, mobile home parks, and the Hillcrest Homes, according to R. G. Harris, chairman of the commiteee.

Birthday fete slated today for Rep. Lloyd

Some 300 friends of Rep. Jim Lloyd, D-35th Dist., are expected to attend a birthday salute today at the Western Hills Country Club in Carbon Canyon.

Co-chairman of the party are Sen. Ayala, Assemblyman Bill McVittie, D-65th Dist., and San Bernardino County Supervisor Robert Townsend.

Television personality Tom Frandsen will serve as the master-of-ceremonies. The program starts at 7 p.m. with a reception, followed at 8 p.m. with dinner.

Lloyd was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1974 and serves as secretary-treasurer of the California Democratic Delegation. He also serves on the Armed Services and Science and Technology committees.

Diabetes drive; it's eat, drink...pedal

The American Diabetes Association anticipates having between 16,000 and 20,000 participants in its second annual All Southern California Bike Ride Against Diabetes, on Oct. 5, according to Mrs. Ethel Corbett, chairman of the Pomona Valley Chapter.

John Woodall of Claremont, rider recruitment chairman for the area, said that 65 bike trails have been designated in Southern California, including the one in the valley.

The local route has been carefully selected with city police and street department advice. Mrs. Corbett said the route is the safest possible connection between participating McDonald's restaurants where sponsored riders will receive free food and soft drinks.

According to Woodall, sign-up sponsor sheets are available at many local schools, at bike shops and at all McDonald's restaurants. Once a rider has a sponsor sheet and signs up sponsors at any amount per mile he wishes, the rider need only show up at any one of the check points on Oct. 5. A minimum sponsorship total of 25 cents per mile is required to qualify for the free refreshments.

After the ride is completed, riders will collect pledges and present certificates to the sponsors. Pledge checks made out to the American Diabetes Association are tax deductible, Mrs. Corbett said.

All funds collected will be used to pay for research, education, service to diabetics and summer camp for diabetic children, the association announced.

Claremont bars two banner bids

The Claremont City Council has stuck to its policy of not allowing banners to hang over Indian Hill Boulevard unless they advertise communitywide events.

Two weeks ago the council said that it would allow a banner advertising the Los Angeles County Fair to hang over the street at Memorial Park, but would deny any other requests.

Tuesday night the council twice denied banner requests, but stressed that it would wholeheartedly support both organizations.

Mrs. Pat Henry informed the council of an areawide Junior Woman's Club-sponsored Senior Citizens Information Fair at Taylor Hall and the Youth Activities Center in October, and asked permission for a banner, but the council denied her request.

A letter from the Claremont Symphony Orchestra requesting a banner be hung advertising concerts received sympathy, but the request was likewise turned down.

In other actions, the council:

—Approved the hiring of a parking enforcement officer part time for 20 hours a week to hand out traffic tickets for parking violations.

— Supported Dudley Cox in his appeal of an Architectural Commission denial of Cox's keeping an air conditioner on the side of his house at 230 W. 11th St.

— Received and filed a recommendation from the Traffic Safety Commission that a letter be sent to the county Road Department asking for funds to install joint Claremont-Pomona traffic signals at Harrison and Towne avenues.

The council at an adjourned meeting Wednesday afternoon set Nov. 4 at 7:30 p.m. for a protest hearing on Annexation 50-146 acres north of La Puerta School and west of Bonnie Brae Avenue.

Annexation 50 is designated as uninhabited territory because it contains less than 12 registered voters.

Protests by half the owners of private and public land would defeat the annexation.

The annexation contains land proposed for development by Armstrong Development Co. and Rosemount Estates.

Free lunches offered in Chino schools

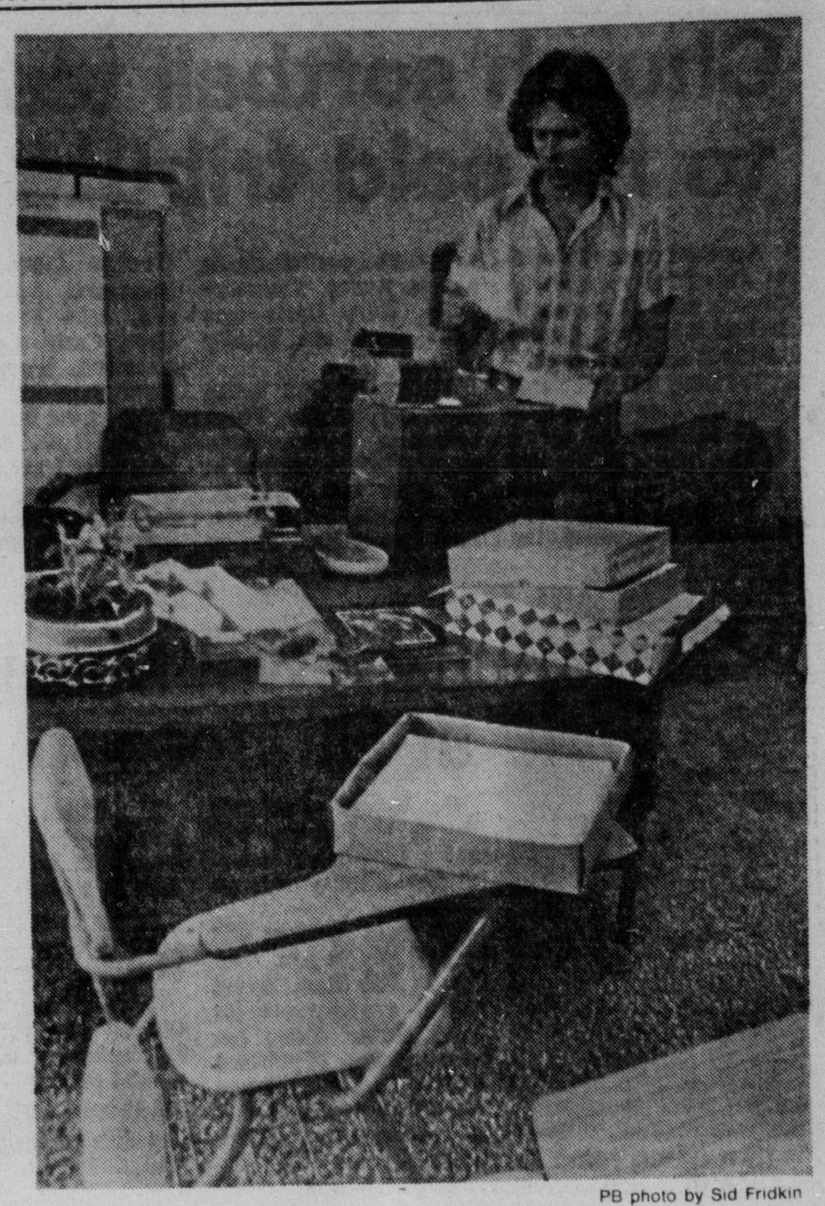

A free lunch program is being offered this year in the Chino Unified School District.

Free meals, free milk and a reduced price policy for children unable to afford meals are offered under national lunch and special milk programs.

School officials have certain criteria for determining families which are eligible.

Applications may be submitted to the district any time during the school year, officials say. The forms are sent home to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school.

In certain cases, foster children are also eligible for these benefits. Further information may be obtained by calling 628-1201.

CHECKING IT OUT

Phil Kaufman, director of the New San Dimas-La Verne Open Door sifts through his referral file. Open Door, located at 575 Covina Blvd., San Dimas, will have an open house.

Open Door ready to open in S.D.

By MAE TATE
PB Staff Writer

The San Dimas-La Verne Open Door will do just that in special opening activities Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m.

The new facility in a commercial office complex at 575 Covina Blvd. in San Dimas is an extension of the service from the Open Door in La Verne. Both centers are geared toward helping young people solve problems through counseling, rap sessions and recreational activities.

Phil Kaufman, director of the San Dimas branch, reported that the new service is being offered through Senate Bill 714, state drug abuse legislation which provided $17,000; the Pomona Valley Juvenile Diversion Project which gave another $14,000; and the cities of both La Verne and San Dimas which contributed $5,000 each.

Kaufman pointed out that San Dimas youngsters previously had to travel to La Verne. The new office, located just east of San Dimas High School, is closer to them and will emphasize the "drop in" feature.

The facility will be open from 1 to 8 p.m. Mondays, 1 to 9 p.m. Tuesdays through Thursdays and 2 to 10 p.m. Fridays. Weekend hours will be scheduled later.

The drop-in will be mainly for recreational and social activities, Kaufman noted. A number of electronic games and amusement machines will be provided at minimal cost by William H. Prast, president of Digital Games Inc.

A table tennis tournament is already in the planning stage with champions from Our House in Claremont, Boys Republic Project Upstream, Kundalini Research Institute, North Side Teen Post in Pomona, South Hills Neighborhood Service Center, Open Choice, Pomona's South Side Teen Post, Pomona Boys Club, Upward Bound of the Claremont Colleges, Community Oriented Probation of La Verne, Pomona Y Outreach, Pomona Open Door, Kennedy Park Community Center, Reach Out West End — Residential, McKinely Home for Boys and Lark Ellen Home for Boys.

The center will serve as a meeting locale for a senior citizen program led by seniors. Kaufman also hopes that communication between young people and the elderly will improve because both generations will be in the same facility.

"Through new communications here, perhaps we can lessen fears and anxieties felt by older people toward the teenage generation," said Kaufman.

Alateen, counseling for teen-age alcoholics and children from families with alcoholism as a problem, and Alanon, a similar service for the entire family, are now offered at the La Verne office, and will also be implemented in San Dimas.

The San Dimas Open Door staff will work closely with school officials at Lone Hill Intermediate and Chaparral High schools with in-school counseling and counseling at the facility. San Dimas High School will also be covered.

Drug abuse counseling and alcoholism prevention will be part of the services offered.

Sgt. Mary-Ellen Kintzel of the San Dimas sheriff's substation will interact with both the young adults and Open Door staff.

Kaufman emphasized the importance of interaction between the young people and law enforcement agency. The juvenile officer must be looked upon as someone to turn to for information and help before the kid gets in trouble, he said.

The county Probation Department, parents and other interested community adults will also participate in the programs.

A 24-hour hot line — 593-8611 — will be manned seven days a week as a crises line for immediate service. The regular phone line is 599-7676.

More than 40 persons in the community have donated materials for the new center while about 12 have actually volunteered their time as carpenters, electricians and assorted handymen in getting the center in shape for its opening Sunday. Donations of additional furniture and equipment for the office, three counseling room and rap room are still being accepted.

Kaufman will be assisted by Sheila Smallberg, high school coordinator at the La Verne-San Dimas Open Door. He will also work closely with director Jim Talcott and Miss Sydney Puttnam of the La Verne center.

Applications will be taken later for three positions in San Dimas.

Kaufman, 22, has resided in the Pomona Valley for 16 years and is a psychology major at La Verne College. He hopes to graduate sometime this year.

Interested persons wishing additional information should contact Kaufman, 599-7676, or attend the opening ceremony Sunday.

Crash survivor inspiration for 'Six Million Dollar Man'

FALLON, Nev. (AP) — The "Six Million Dollar Man" is more than just another television series for Bruce Peterson.

He is the survivor of a spectacular crash of a space vehicle shown at the start of each segment of the show. Peterson narrowly escaped death in the 1967 accident, and he had to be partially reconstructed by teams of surgeons.

He inspired the show. But Peterson, 42, a former test pilot undergoing Marine Air Reserve training here, said his surgery didn't include atomic-powered limbs that makes actor Lee Majors the superhuman Steve Austin of "Six Million Dollar Man."

"I just got conventional surgery," Peterson said, laughing, in an interview.

His skull was fractured, his forehead literally scraped off, right eye partially blinded, teeth and one hand broken.

Plastic surgery to rebuild his face took more than a year and a half.

"I don't think it cost any $6 million to put me back together," he said. In fact, he doesn't know what the actual cost was. His employer now and at the time of the crash, National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), footed the bill.

Peterson was a test pilot for NASA's flight research center at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., at the time of the crash of the M2F2, a wingless, experimental space shuttle.

Now he is director of safety and quality assurance for the research center, and a reserve lieutenant colonel in the Marine Air Reserve.

He remembers little of the accident in which the shuttle went out of control, then slammed into the desert.

"About what is seen on the TV screens every week is what I remember," he said. "That partial footage was taken by the cockpit cameras. I blacked out about the same time the cameras stopped working.

"I was landing, fighting a cross wind which had sprung up when I saw a helicopter in my way. I tried to avoid it, and the landing gear caught in the dry lake bed — and right there I thought that was it.

"The next thing I vaguely remember is being trapped in the vehicle upside down."

After Peterson recovered, he continued to fly on a restricted basis for NASA until 1971, doing test work on fighter planes. He is considered in top physical shape by the Federal Aviation Agency and the Marine Corps, despite his damaged eye. He wears a patch over it.

His training here included piloting a Cobra attack helicopter.

Peterson has met the star of the television series just once when they had dinner together. While Peterson was the inspiration for "Six Million Dollar Man," he and Majors have little in common.

THE GOSPEL MELODIES

Family of singers to perform

The family singing group, "The Gospel Melodies," from Bell Gardens will sing Sunday at the 10:45 a.m. worship service of the Towne Avenue Church of the Nazarene in Pomona.

The group includes Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cullen and their daughter, Crystal, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Cullen, accompanied by Robert Childers and Ron Grable on guitar and drums.

The Rev. Clyde W. Rather, pastor, will deliver a sermon entitled "Do You Know What Time It Is."

An evangelistic service will be held Sunday at 7 p.m. when Wayne Eaton will give a vocal solo and Mr. Rather's sermon topic will be "What Would You Say If You Only Had Five Minutes To Say It?"

15 million file as jobless

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Labor said today that 15 million persons filed job applications with public employment agencies in the year ending last June 30, but only 3.1 million found work that way.

The department reported a 13 per cent increase over the previous year in the number of persons seeking jobs through the agencies, but said 20 per cent less openings were filed during the period. Altogether, 7.9 million positions were offered.

Some 2,400 local employment services were operating in the 50 states and three territories during the period. More than 15 million persons filed new or renewed applications for jobs.

Navajo Indian women seek alimony laws

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. (AP) — Delegates to the Southwest Indian Women's Conference say it's about time the Navajo Tribal Council enacted laws requiring alimony payments to divorced wives.

"If we are going to be traded for a better model, we should at least make it worth our trouble," Gallup lawyer Alice Hull told the group.

Ms. Hull also said Navajo laws requiring child support for children of divorced parents should be enforced.

The suggestions were adopted Thursday, along with others, at the conclusion of the two-day conference, aimed at improving the quality of life for Indian women.

Officials said 500 persons attended the conference.

Navajo Tribal Councilwoman Dr. Annie Wauneka, a member of the President's Commission for International Women's Year and organizer of the conference, said, "This is the first time we Indian women have had a chance to get together and discuss our problems.

"We could have done it years ago. Now we have to get down and correct some of these problems."

Another speaker, Indian Health Service social worker Sophie Thompson, told the group that health care for elderly native Americans in New Mexico and Arizona is "grossly inadequate."

"Elderly get what's left over if anything is left over" after other projects are paid for, said Ms. Thompson.

Only one nursing home, she said, serves the 25,000-square-mile Navajo reservation, which touches New Mexico, Arizona and Utah.

When that home, in Chinle, Ariz., is filled, the "others must be sent off the reservation to we don't know where," she said.

The elderly population must be placed in a higher priority for action, she said. There are more than 10,000 Navajos who are over 65 years old, she said.

The women also adopted resolutions calling for "better and more realistic long term employment opportunities" and better facilities and programs for rehabilitation of juvenile offenders.

Pope 78, in good health

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI turned 78 on Friday and friends say he is in good health and that the sight of millions of Holy Year pilgrims has been like an "injection of new energy."

As usual, no formal birthday celebration is planned.

The pontiff proclaimed this the "year of reconciliation" for a Church troubled by internal dissent and controversy over papal authority and such issues as abortion and birth control.

The response to Paul's Holy Year call has surpassed his own expectations. Vatican officials estimated that more than 4 million persons have already made the pilgrimage with another 3 million expected by the end of the year.

Paul has always loved the sight of religious crowds. And he has done everything possible not to miss the chance to mingle with the throngs of pilgrims descending on Rome.

"The Holy Year has been a powerful injection of new energy for him," said Sergio Cardinal Pignedoli, a close friend of the Pope.

Another Vatican prelate held up a recent issue of an Italian magazine whose cover story said "the Holy year is killing the Pope" from fatigue. "All rubbish," the prelate said.

The pontiff's personal physician, Dr. Mario Fontana, always stands close to the Pope during the lengthy celebrations in St. Peter's Basilica and at other public appearances.

This Sunday, Pope Paul will declare Juan Macias, a Spanish friar who died 340 years ago, a saint. The ceremony will take place in St. Peter's Square, where two weeks ago the pontiff proclaimed Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton the first native-born saint of the United States. The canonizations are among the ceremonies Pope Paul performs most enthusiastically.

Except for recurrent pain from spinal arthrosis, Paul has stood up remarkably well during the seemingly endless Holy Year observances.

BIRTHDAY — Pope Paul VI celebrated his 78th birthday at the Vatican Friday.

Last year he suffered three attacks of flu and had to pare his Easter week schedule on the advice of doctors. But since he opened the Holy Year last Christmas Eve, he has not missed a single ceremony.

"Apart from his arthrosis he is in better than good health," one cardinal said. "His eyes are bright, especially in conversation. His conversation is lively. Strangely enough, contrary to a general impression, he is humorous. His speeches are not, but his conversation is light. He jokes easily."

Despite his apparent good health, there is still much talk about who will succeed Paul, whose reign began in 1963. The general trend seems in favor of another Italian. There has not been a non-Italian pontiff since the one-year reign of Holland's Adrian VI in 1522. The Pope is elected by cardinals meeting in a closed-door conclave.

"We talked bout it among bishops recently," said Joseph Cardinal Malula, of Kinshasa, the capital of Zaire, the former Congo. "We felt we still prefer another Italian rather than, say, a Frenchman or a German or an American. One more Italian would pose none of the political or national problems that someone from another nation might raise, especially with Africa's colonial past."

Pie-toss assassin faces a new trial

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — A 22-year-old University of Kansas senior faces a retrial on a charge of throwing a cream pie at a psychology professor.

After nearly four hours of deliberations, the jury foreman advised Judge James Paddock of the Douglas County District Court that the 12 members were "irreparably deadlocked" over the battery charge against James P. Dillard, self-confessed cofounder of the Brotherhood of Pie-Faced Assassins.

All but one of the jurors felt the 22-year-old senior from Springfield, Mo., was innocent.

A new trial date was set for Oct. 3 and Dillard remained free on a $500 bond.

On the opening day of the trial Wednesday, students carried signs protesting, "If pies were outlawed, only outlaws would have pies."

A small group of students wearing pie-tin "helmets" marched on Fraser Hall, where the attack took place. Signs read, "Walk Softly and Carry a Big Pie," "American as Apple Pie" and "You Can't Have Your Pie and Eat It, Too."

Dillard and another student advertised last spring they would cream anyone for $20 to promote fun and relieve end-of-semester tension.

One early attack was against Barkley Clark, mayor of Lawrence and associate dean of the KU law school. Clark caught a cream pie in the face while lecturing; he later expressed dismay it was not banana cream.

David Holmes, the psychology professor, saw the "hit man" before he could launch his pie during Holmes' psychology lecture.

The professor chased the pie assassin, nabbed him in a parking lot and pressed battery charges.

RENTZ GROUNDED

A swarm of Santa Ana Valley defenders close in on Ganesha fullback Ron Rentz during first quarter of Valley's 39-20 win over the Giants Friday night at Cal Poly.

Hooton wins 12th on Garvey's HR

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Steve Garvey's two-run homer in the ninth—only the second hit of the game off J.R. Richard—pulled the Los Angeles Dodgers to a dramatic 3-2 victory over the Houston Astros.

Just minutes before, the Astros had taken a 2-1 lead in the top of the ninth on Cliff Johnson's two-run homer off Burt Hooton, 18-9. It was one of only five hits off Hooton as he won his 12th straight game, a Dodger record.

Garvey's single leading off the second inning was the only hit given up by Richard, 12-10, until the ninth. Willie Crawford walked before Garvey slammed his 18th homer of the season into the center field pavillion.

Hooton, working on a three-hitter going into the ninth, gave up a double to Cesar Cedeno before Johnson hit a 1-2 pitch into the left field pavilion at Dodger Stadium.

Until then, the only run in the game had been scored in the Los Angeles eighth on a sacrifice fly by Leron Lee. Ron Cey and Hector Cruz walked and were moved up on a sacrifice before Lee delivered his long fly ball.

Neither team mounted a serious scoring threat through the first seven innings.

Greg Gross led off for Houston in the first inning with a single to left and the other Astro hit came from Cliff Johnson with two out in the fourth. Milt May grounded out to end the inning.

Garvey led off the Dodger half of the second with a single but was forced at second and the threat died.

Ganesha has it rough

By JIM McCONNELL
PB Staff Writer

Opportunistic Santa Ana Valley High built up a 39-0 advantage and went on to defeat Ganesha 39-20 Friday night at Cal Poly's Kellogg Field.

A brief synopsis of the third quarter of the game will suffice to explain what happened to the Giants on a night they could do nothing right until the waning moments of the contest. Ganesha had the football for exactly four offensive plays in that third stanza, as follows:

—On the Giants first play of the second half from scrimmage, fullback Ron Rentz fumbled the pigskin on the Ganesha 30 and Valley's Mike Easley recovered. The Falcons promptly marched 30 yards for the score and a 26-0 lead at that point.

—Following the Valley kickoff, the Giants tried to get off the floor again, this time starting from their own 29. However, on the first play quarterback Joe Madrigal promptly coughed up the football and the Falcons recovered again. A brief 28-yard march to a TD gave the visitors a big 33-0 advantage.

—Again Santa Ana kicked off, and the demoralized Giants attempted to get going from the 38. Lavell Hunter ran for three yards off left tackle, but on the next play a Madrigal pass was picked off by Falcon Jim Hopper and returned back to the Ganesha 29. Valley, once again given great field position, ran it in for six points as time ran out in the third quarter, winding up that period with an overwhelming 39-0 lead.

The Giants finally came to life in the final quarter against the Valley second stringers. Madrigal, who wound up the night with 177 yards passing, began to move the Giants as they put up three TDs to make the final score respectable.

Rentz, atoning for his earlier fumble, scored the initial Giant TD on a five-yard run with eight minutes left in the game. His score had been set up by a fumble recovery by Ganesha's Gary Jordan.

The Giants clicked on an ensuing on-sides kick, taking possession again on the Valley 44. Madrigal passed to George Terry for 17 yards, Juan Moreno for 16 yards and Lewis Peters carried it in the final 11 for a six-pointer.

The final TD of the night came as Madrigal hit Moreno with a 38-yard scoring strike with a little over two mintues left in the game. That play was set up by a fumble recovery by Giant Mike Johnson.

Santa Ana took over and was finally able to run the clock out, although Falcon coach Dick Hill did not exactly win any fans on the Ganesha side of the field as he brought in his first-string offense to wind up the game.

The Giants would just as soon forget the first three quarters. Besides the third quarter nightmare, Valley had also dominated the first half in assuming a 20-0 lead.

Shawn Cole scored twice on short bursts and Tony Lynch ran one in from 21 yards to account for the three earlier Santa Ana Valley TDs.

On the game a fleet of no less than eight Valley rushers accounted for 263 yards on the ground in contrast to only 50 for the hosts. Lynch led those eight with 78 yards, followed closely by Cole with 71.

Madrigal did a fine job with his strong passing arm for the locals, but their vaunted rushing attack never seemed to get rolling. Rentz led the Giant ground gainers with 38 yards, but that was on only four carries. Peters gained 27 yards in 11 tries.

Moreno and Lloyd Jones both hauled in four passes for the Giants.

Ganesha, now 0-2 on the season, will be opening San Antonio League play next Friday vs. Garey at MSAC.

Damien romps in 42-12 victory

By CRAIG TRAVIS
PB Correspondent

A charged up Damien High ball club scored three third period touchdowns sparked by the running of halfback Ruben Lopez and a revamped but emotionally-high defense, in a 42-14 romp of Duarte Friday night.

The Spartans were somewhat stunned just before the half when the visiting Falcons tallied a pair of quick scores to pull to within a TD of the No. 17 ranked 3-A La Verne school.

Both starting linebackers, Gregg Elias (hip) and Mike Fraschetti (leg), and cornerback Bobby Alexander (ankle) were out because of injuries by intermission. Elias, who was last week's prep defensive player of the week, had five tackles before his departure.

With Coach Dick Larson shouting things like, "If you'll hold them off (to the defense), the offense will put it to them," at the outset of the second half, Damien regained the momentum.

In just 11 minutes, the Spartans had scored three touchdowns and had the starters give way to the second team for the remainder of the game.

Lopez sparked the 12 minute stanza with 73 of his 113 yards on just five carries. Damien tallied on its first possession of the second half as fullback Leo Burke bulled his way into the end zone from a yard out. His second TD of the night. The other was a three yarder in the second period. Rick Davis followed with fourth of five extra points.

Lopez was the major stock holder of the 71 yard drive with 55 yards in four totes, including bursts of 26 and 16 yards.

"If the line opens the holes for us we'll do it," said the big 5-8, 160-pound running back who netted 104 yards last week. "Our line really deserves the credit. Tom Callison (center), Bob Goodrich and Dave Rodricks (guards) and Dave Flores and John Martin (tackles) did a great job."

Linebacker Mike O'Neill, who replaced Elias, picked off an errant Keith Gibson aerial and returned it 24 yards for a score just 50 seconds after Burke's tally.

The Spartans hit paydirt the next time they had the ball, marching 58 yards on five plays with running back Dennis Gainey blasting his way into the end zone from eight yards out. Brian Sullivan added the PAT to give the hosts their final 28 point margin, 42-14.

The defense played stalwart ball in holding Duarte to just 7 yards rushing in the second half and eight yards passing. The defensive line of Brian Faust, Felix Delgadillo, Hugo Cargnelutti and Chris Barela brought down Falcon runners four times behind the line of scrimmage in the third period while defensive backs Mike Hunter, Davis, Jason Wight, Terry Allen, Lorenzo Hearns, and Mark Schlesinger checked Gibson to one completion in eight attempts, including thefts by O'Neill and Schlesinger.

O'Neill and Faust paced the line with eight tackles while Cargnelutti and Hunter had six stops each.

Damien broke on top 7-0 the first time it had the ball as Steve Gaston hauled in a seven-yard aerial from quarterback Joe Carroll for the score.

The Spartans scored again at the outset of the second period on Burke's three-yard romp. The key play in the drive was Davis' diving catch of a 20 yard completion.

Faust recovered a fumble midway through the stanza and the result a 24-yard scoring hookup from Carroll to Gaston on the next play.

Duarte went to the Wishbone and opened things up the final five minutes. Their wish came true as the Falcons scored on Beno Lee's 17-yard TD catch and Keith Jackson's 20-yard scoring catch.

Damien begins San Antonio League action by visiting Upland in a 7:30 p.m. game next Friday.

Fontana rally tops Pomona

By MARK GRIP
PB Correspondent

FONTANA — Fontana High running back Mike Fox connected with wide receiver Andy Snead for an eight-yard scoring pass in the third quarter for a 9-6 come-from-behind victory over visiting Pomona High Friday night.

The touchdown came with the Steelers down 6-3 at 4:53 of the third period.

Fontana took possession on the Devil 34 following a punt.

On the first play from scrimage, quarterback Les Waleszonia rushed for 25 yards to the Devil nine.

The score came, following a loss of two, two plays later. The run for two points, on a fake kick, was no good giving Fohi the victory, 9-6.

A tough Steeler defense held off two last-minute Devil drives. Fontana forced Hank Zibell to miss on a 22 yard field goal attempt with 4:27 left in the contest.

After Fontana had the ball four plays, it was forced to punt, with Pomona getting possession on the Steeler 42 with 2:14 remaining.

The Devils moved to the 33, but on first and 10 QB Mark Soto's pass was intercepted by defensive back Mark Dattillo, who returned the ball 39 yards to the Devil 36 with 21 seconds left.

The Steelers did not get off another play, letting the clock run out.

Fontana opened scoring in the first quarter on Mike Dragoon's 22 yard field goal at 6:55.

Pomona took a temporary lead with 10:34 left in the first half on fullback Zibell's one yard plunge. Zibell's conversion kick was wide right.

The Devils took a slight advantage in total offense, 253-230. Pomona also out-rushed Fontana, 208-162.

Zibell was the big Devil rusher with 130 yards on 30 carries. Charles Cole added 50 yards on eight carries and Harold Walker pitched in 29 first-half yards.

Waleszonia lead the Steeler rushers with 67 yards on seven totes.

Kevin Johnson passed for 45 yards, hitting on four-of-five passes.

Last year when the two teams met it was Fontana prevailing 14-6.

Pomona will open San Antonio League action with an 0-2 record and will visit Chino (2-0) next week.

Glendora holds 'Pack

By BRENT SHYER
PB Correspondent

An interception by Jim Jones late in the fourth quarter enabled the Glendora Tartans to hold on and beat the Claremont Wolfpack, 13-10, Friday night at Citrus College.

The Wolfpack had a second down and one yard to go from the 27-yard line when it elected to pass. Mike Davis' toss was picked off by Jones with 6:10 left on the clock.

The Tartans then used up valuable time before they had to punt the ball back to the 'Pack. Glendora's defensive unit then arose to the occasion and stopped the Claremonters once again.

A highly spirited Claremont squad gained a 3-0 lead, when Jim Van Zee booted a 48-yard field goal. Van Zee also averaged better than 43 yards per punt to help get the 'Pack out of trouble.

Glendora racked up 316 total yards, with their big ground-gainer being Steve Hunt who amassed 158 yards on 22 carries. The Tartans backfield was also led by Bob Corwin who pounded out 110 yards on 18 totes.

Glendora started their scoring drive from their own 34-yard line. A 29-yard scamper by Hunt got the drive going. The five-play drive culminated with a 26-yard touchdown hook-up between senior signal-caller Tom Reck and split end Frank O'Connell.

Jones added the extra-point to give Glendora a 7-3 margin. However, Claremont refused to fold to the heavily favored 4-A school, last week ranked seventh in the CIF 4-A poll.

Late in the second quarter, Claremont's defense forced a Tartan miscue, as Hunt coughed up the ball and the 'Pack recovered. Immediately, Claremont capitalized on the error, as Mike Davis lobbed a rainbow into the awaiting hands of receiver Brad Kirkendall. Although Kirkendall caught the TD pass he was shaken up on the play, due to a face-masking penalty.

The halftime score stood at 10-7, in favor of the hopeful 'Pack. Claremont, a 3-A team, had outplayed the 20-point favorites in the first half, yet to pull the upset they would need to continue their domination for the remainder of the game.

Glendora's stingy defense repeatedly denied Esper Kaiser's crew, as they shutout the squad for the half, allowing but 54 yards. Meanwhile, the Tartans offensive unit rallied for the winning tally.

Starting with excellent field position (from the Claremont 27) the Tartan used six rushes, the final one coming on Hunt's one-yard plunge for the score. The PAT failed due to a poor snap, giving Claremont hopes for a tie pending field goal position for Jim Van Zee.

However, with Claremont within field goal range on the Tartans' 27-yard line, the errant pass that went into Jones' arms spelled victory for Glendora, and a tough loss for the 'Pack.

Next week, Claremont will travel to Montclair to play the Cavaliers, in a contest starting at 7:30 p.m.

Cowboys record second victory

By SANDRA WICKSTED
PB Correspondent

The Chino Cowboys won their second pre-season football game of the year, defeating Sierra Vista 27-7 Friday night at Chino High.

The Cowboys proved they had a good offense after sustaining a drive from the opening kickoff from their own 27-yard line to the Dons' 20 yard line. With a touchdown in sight the Cowboys failed to move against the tough defense of the Dons and lost the ball on downs to Sierra Vista.

Sierra Vista, having the ball on their 20, lost possession on the first pass attempt when Cowboy John Labrucherie intercepted it on their 20 yard line. The Cowboys pushed the ball down to the Dons' 1 and Hobbs carried it in for a touchdown. Edwin Marquez kicked the PAT with 3:38 remaining in the first quarter.

Sierra Vista scored their only touchdown in the second quarter after working the ball 80 yards down the field. Keith Smith ran the ball for an eight yard touchdown. Art Hernandez kicked the extra point to tie the score 7-7.

The Cowboys then took possession of the ball and proceeded to rack up another score as Rick Riedel carried the ball for 26 yards. The PAT was good by Marquez, making the score 14-7.

The Dons managed to hold the Cowboys in the third quarter only to watch them break away in the fourth.

With 11 minutes left in the game, Larry Trujillo put Chino on the score board for six more points with a 1 yard run. The kick by Marquez failed.

The Cowboys, apparently not satisfied with their 20-7 lead, carried the ball to Sierra Vista's 30 yd. line where Riedel took it in for the touchdown of the night.

The extra point was good for Marquez, leaving the final score Chino 27, Sierra Vista 7.

Four Cal Poly players injured in altercation

Four Cal Poly football players — three of them starters — were injured Thursday night in an altercation at their Pomona residence.

However, Coach Andy Vinci believes they will be able to play in tonight's home game against Northern Arizona but it won't be determined until the 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

Injured in the fracas were linebackers Rich Kluck and Terry Young plus offensive guards Randy Taylor and Mike Walsh. Walsh is the only non-starter.

According to Pomona police, the players were attacked by 10 to 12 men with tire irons, metal bars and wooden clubs at their 1365 Ballerina Ave. apartment.

Police said the incident was apparently an outgrowth of previous trouble with one of the suspects, an employee of a nearby market.

Three suspects were taken into custody.

Kluck and Walsh were treated at Pomona Valley Community Hospital and released while Taylor and Young were treated at the Cal Poly medical center.

Bosox near East crown

BOSTON (AP) — Reggie Cleveland followed Luis Tiant's four-hit shutout with a five-hitter of his own Friday night as the Boston Red Sox swept a doubleheader from the Cleveland Indians by two 4-0 scores and moved within two games of the American League East Division championship.

The 35-year-old Tiant fired his second shutout of the season and the 37th of his major league career in the opener. With Baltimore rained out of a doubleheader with the New York Yankees, the Red Sox pulled 4½ games ahead of the Orioles while lowering to two their magic number.

Boston can nail down the division title and a berth in the AL playoffs against Oakland with a victory over Cleveland today coupled with a single Baltimore loss in a scheduled doubleheader with the Yankees.

Tiant, who has been plagued by back trouble, posted his 18th victory against 14 defeats in baffling the Indians in the first game. He struck out four and walked just one.

Cleveland, a right-hander acquired from the St. Louis Cardinals, hiked his record to 13-9, including a 10-3 mark since July 6.

Boston's Carlton Fisk, who had two doubles and a triple in the first game, extended his hitting streak to 15 games and scored the only run Cleveland needed in the windup.

In the first game, Fred Lynn's sacrifice fly and Fisk's line double sent Boston to a 2-0 first-inning lead. Cecil Cooper made it 3-0 with his 14th homer in the fourth before Boston added an insurance run in the eighth.

Oklahoma holds on

MIAMI (AP) — Mighty Oklahoma turned to its defense to set up touchdown runs by Joe Washington and Elvis Peacock and had to hold off the University of Miami in the fourth quarter Friday night to salvage a 20-17 football victory.

The top-ranked Sooners, unbeaten in their last 32 games, fell behind 7-0 in the first quarter, but struck for all 20 of their points in the second period. Then Oklahoma barely survived Miami's inspired fourth-quarter rally, which included a 72-yard pass play.

The Hurricanes, rated underdogs by as much as 33 points, saw their last hope die with three minutes to play when quarterback Kary Baker fumbled on his own 45, surrendering the ball to the Sooners.

Oklahoma was stunned 7-0 in the first period when Miami marched seemingly without effort 74 yards for a touchdown on its first possession.

Baker ran 22 yards and passed 19 yards to tight end Charlie Claud to set up Larry Cain's 19-yard scoring scamper around right end.

Rowland stymied by Walnut defense

By REED SIMON
PB Correspondent

Rowland High was hard pressed for points in Friday night's game against Walnut at Nogales High.

Coach Ken Gunn of Walnut has been talking a lot about his defensive team lately, and he will have more to talk about now that his team has held Rowland to seven points in a hard-fought 13.7 defensive struggle.

In the opening kickoff, Walnut kicked to Rowland's Ken Wilson who ran for a 80-yard touchdown. Penalty was called against Rowland (clipping) and the ball was brought back.

Before Rowland could get anywhere, it fumbled the ball and Walnut recovered. At times it seemed like the only way the ball changed hands was through fumbles. There were a lot of them. Walnut fumbled three times to the Raiders, whereas Rowland fumbled once to Walnut.

In the first quarter, quarterback Kevin Loggins of Walnut completed one pass for five yards while Keith McDermott and Kevin Morgan were eating up yards.

Rowland, led by senior John Cain, was being relatively held back. Rowland was playing near their optimum, making few if any mistakes but the Walnut defense was too much for them.

Dan Reed the 5-foot-10 198-pound Walnut senior was carried off the field on a stretcher. Things were looking bad for the Mustangs until Loggins hit Steve Walsh for a 13-yard touchdown with eight minutes and two seconds left in the half.

Rowland went to the air. Ray Baiza completed three out of four passes to Ron Goldman for 43 yards. Goldman then caught a six yard touchdown pass. Rowland kicked off to the Mustangs but retained possession of the ball. Baiza Goldman pass combination was good for another 13 yards. With the score tied at 7-7 the Raiders attempted a 28 yard field goal. It was short.

In third down play, the Mustangs sharpened their passing skills. Loggins passing with Creg Fenwicks running was enough to get the Mustangs to the one-yard line. Morgan had the distinction of running the ball in.

The kick failed. It looked as if this would hurt Walnut. Rowland was a long way from being out of the game. Rich Fisher proved it by gobbling up yards. Rowland looked good on the field; but again it was the Walnut defense that stopped the Raiders from doing any real harm.

Alex Solorzano was the key defensive player for Walnut. Solorzano, 6-1 212 pounds, made sure that anyone intending to get by him would have to resort to some kind of fancy footwork. Baiza especially took some losses at the hands of the junior linebacker.

Terry Waska was instrumental for the Raider defense. He had help from Rich Fisher. Fisher ran over Walnut's Steve Headley, and sent him out of the game limping in the fourth quarter. In general, the overall size of the Raider squad was bigger than the average size of the Mustang team.

Cutbirth leads Jags over Cavs

Ontario High's quarterback Larry Cutbirth passed for two touchdowns in pacing his squad to an upset 19-0 win over Montclair Friday night in a game played at Chaffey High.

Cutbirth threw only four passes on the night, but two of them went the distance in the first quarter as the Jaguars struck quickly.

The Ontario QB hit tight end Carl Hemby with a 28-yard scoring aerial to complete a 43-yard scoring drive by the Jags the first time they had the ball.

The second score came later in the initial quarter as Cutbirth came back to click with Freddy Vigil on a 32-yard pass for a TD.

The Ontario defense, staked to that quick 13-0 lead, held off Montclair the rest of the way to register the shutout. The win evened the Jag record on the young season at 1-1, while that is also Montclair's mark after Friday's loss.

The final Ontario score came in the third quarter, as halfback Gus Lopez raced 19 yards to paydirt. That drive was set up by defensive back Bill Haselrig's interception.

For the Cavaliers, the closest they came to a score was inside the Ontario 10-yard line, which happened on two occasions. Both times the Ontario defense rose to the challenge to stop the Cavs and preserve the shutout.

For the game, Cutbirth wound up as the leading rusher for both sides with 83 yards to go with his 60 yards passing.

Montclair's Jim Donaldson was held to 65 yards rushing.

The Knights rolled up 275 total yards while holding the Gauls to 142.

Ken te Velde, Mike Siegersma and Pete Verhoeven scored the Ontario Christian touchdowns.

In a key play, quarterback John Vander Schaas recovered his own fumble and ran 43 yards.

Angels fall in Oakland

OAKLAND (AP) — Billy Williams singled home a first-inning run and doubled to open a two-run fourth, helping the Oakland A's to a 4-2 victory over the California Angels Friday night.

Dick Bosman, 11-6, pitched the first five innings before Oakland Manager Alvin Dark went to his bullpen.

Three teams favor contract

By The Associated Press

The Dallas Cowboys and Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers became the second and third teams Friday to vote in favor of the National Football League owners' latest contract offer—but six more clubs joined in the already overwhelming rejection of the proposal.

The Cowboys voted 20-14 in favor of the four-year offer produced by the owners last Monday in Chicago. And the Steelers voted 27-4 for it. They joined the Cincinnati Bengals, who voted 27-16 Thursday in favor of the pact.

"Our primary concern is to get this thing settled and get back to playing football," said Pittsburgh player representative Rocky Bleier. "We realize the economic situation in our country and in professional football and we feel the offer presented by management is one we can both live with."

The six teams joining the 16 which had voted Wednesday or Thursday to reject were: the Baltimore Colts, 42-1; the Denver Broncos, 45-0; the Los Angeles Rams, 45-0; the Minnesota Vikings, 43-0; the New York Jets, 22-5, and the San Diego Chargers.

Minutemen enjoy win

American Christian Academy enjoyed its first football victory of its existence Friday night by defeating Calvary Baptist, 46-12, at John Galvin Park.

Quarterback Dave Williams and fullback Bill Mayberry scored two touchdowns apiece to lead the Minutemen to their victory. Other American Christian TDs were scored by Jimmy Keith, Rick Sherman and Greg Hammond. Williams threw two touchdowns.

Lineman Blaine Hammond had 11 tackles to lead the Minutemen on defense.

Webster leads Garey

By DOUG SPOON
PB Correspondent

RIVERSIDE — The Garey High Vikings jumped out to a 22-0 halftime lead on three long touchdown runs by halfback Stanley Webster en route to a 22-8 victory over La Sierra here Friday night.

Webster, a senior and captain of the Garey squad, scored on scrambling runs of 63, 73, and 83 yards to put the Vikings out in front for good. By the end of the contest Webster had gained 281 yards on 17 carries.

The Vikings had possession of the football for only 12 plays during the first period but they managed to score twice, once on their third play of the game and again with 55 seconds remaining in the quarter.

Webster scored his third touchdown of the game with 2:10 left in the half, going all the way from his own 17-yard line into the endzone.

La Sierra's offense was continually forced to turn the ball over to the opposition, as a result of many incomplete passes and unsuccessful runs. Eagle quarterback John Swierczek connected on only two of 12 passes, for 33 yards. Punter Manuel Parra had a busy evening for the Eagles, booting the ball a total of ten times after his team failed to convert on third-down situations.

Quarterback Milton Banks of the Vikings attempted only five passes in the game, completing one for seven yards. Banks threw two interceptions but was not hurt by them and he was content to give the ball to Webster whenever crucial yardage was needed.

Swierczek played three-quarters of the game for La Sierra before he was relieved by Mark Flowers. However, Flowers tried the same number of passes in one quarter that Swierczek attempted in three — but with no more success. Flowers hit on two passes in 12 tries for one yard.

Four La Sierra runners contributed to a well-balanced but subdues rushing attack. Junior fullback Paul Gonzales gained 29 yards on seven carries, senior Dan Mason earned 36 yards on nine carries, and Robert Schwandt and Skip Garton chipped in with 26 and 25 yards, respectively.

Garey earned four first downs, all via the run, on the way to its first victory of the young season. Eagles are still in search of their first win, having lost to Notre Dame High last week, 13-7.
week, 13-7.

Except for the outstanding performance of Webster, neither team showed much of a sustained offense at any time in the game. La Sierra did manage to move the ball down to the Garey 7-yard line in the final minute of the game, but Flowers failed to connect on four pass attempts and time ran out on the Eagles.

Scots roll past Braves

By GRAHAM CROW
PB Correspondent

The third time was indeed a charm — at least for Upland High School football coach Bob Holycross.

Holycross was able to watch his Highlanders roll to a convincing 27-6 victory over visiting Alta Loma Friday night, making it the first time he has defeated rival Tom Cook in three years of trying.

Upland, which must be rated a solid contender in the always close San Antonio League, dominated the game in every way, scoring the first three times it touched the ball.

After stifling the punchless Brave offense, Upland received the ball on the Alta Loma 20-yard line when Brave center Wayne Box snapped the ball way over the head of punter Mike Coryell on a fourth down punt.

Attempting to scramble away, Coryell threw the ball up for grabs with Mike Rees claiming it for the Scots. On first down, speedster Mark Chapman, breaking two tackles at the line of scrimmage, danced into the end zone with Dave Stephenson adding the extra point.

The next two series for Upland were more of the same with the strong Highlander ground game continually chewing up the Alta Loma defense.

Rees got the next two scores on plunges of one and two yards, culminating drives which covered 47 and 73 yards. Stephenson was one for two on these extra points.

A Highlander mistake led to the only Alta Loma points as Paul Lindsey's fumble was gathered up on the Upland 13 with Steve Robinson getting the score after three successive carries.

Probably the most pleasing aspect of the victory for Holycross, following losses the past two years of 8-7 and 40-7, was the play of quarterback Bob Dalquest.

The senior signal caller, not expected to be a starter at the beginning of the season, did an excellent job of directing the team and completed five of eight passes in the first half for 93 yards.

Scott Haugann was the main target throughout as he collected three passes for 77 yards. For the game, Dalquest ended up seven for 12 with Rees also catching three.

Chapman, the leading ball carrier in the game with 130 yards on 15 carries, scored the final touchdown of the game with a 28 yard dash around left end in the third quarter.

Alta Loma, which netted only 80 yards total offense last week in scoring but one touchdown against Montclair, did slightly better with 122 total yards but only 11 through the air as the Brave aerial attack completed one of nine with three interceptions, two by Rees.

Upland netted 327 yards in all with 198 on the ground and 129 through the air. Almost outgaining both sides were the officials who walked off 137 yards on 20 different infractions.

Both schools enter league play next Friday with Alta Loma meeting Ontario at Chaffey High School in Hacienda action while Upland faces rugged Damien on the Highlander home field. The Scots edged the Spartans last year in a wild one, 34-28.

Bonita mistakes lead to 46-2 loss

By MIKE BROSSART
PB Correspondent

Mistake-plagued Bonita High was walloped, 46-2, by the Azusa Aztecs in the Bearcats' home opener Friday night.

Azusa, which fell victim to Harold Drake, Brad Frick and company, 23-9, in last year's game between the same two clubs, was unstoppable on both offense and defense Friday, as the Aztecs rolled up 496 total yards to the Bearcats' 132.

Bonita began the game on a high note when Dave Pearson pounced on an Aztec fumble to end Azusa's first possession.

But after tailback Bob Vidaure and fullback Scott Johnson churned out a first down to put the ball at midfield, Bonita quarterback Sanford Coggins turned to make a hand off and found no one there. He fumbled the ball back to the Bearcats' 38-yard line, where Aztec linebacker Bill Wile scooped it up and ran to the end zone unmolested. Jeff Calhoun's extra point attempt was blocked, leaving the score at 6-0.

On Bonita's second play from scrimmage after the ensuing kickoff, Coggins threw a pass into the arms of Aztec cornerback Anthony Ochoa. Azusa then drove 34 yards in seven plays, culminated by quarterback Rich Nyden's 13-yard end run for six points. Calhoun's kick was blocked again.

The visitors scored three TDs through the air in the second quarter for a 32-0 halftime lead. Nyden hit Wile with a 73-yard score and, on his very next toss, combined with split end David Murrillo for a 91-yard touchdown.

With four seconds left in the half, reserve Aztec quarterback Leonard Pedroza tossed a 20-yard score to George Gomez.

A third-quarter safety was the only thing that kept the Bearcats from being shut out for the second straight week.

Two plays after Bonita punter David Drury booted the ball out of bounds at the Azusa eight-yard line, Pedroza pitched back to Wile at the tailback position. Wile couldn't handle the throw and had to chase it into the end zone, where Keith Knight pounced on him for two points.

Azusa scored twice after that, on a short pass from Nyden and a run short run by Pedroza.

The Aztecs earned 20 first downs to just five by Bonita, and ran 70 offensive plays to the Bearcats' 47. Coggins completed two of 14 passes for 37 yards, while Johnson led Bonita's runners with 66 yards on 11 carries.

Nyden passed for 215 yards for the winners.

Bonita will still be looking for its first touchdown of the season in next Saturday's afternoon game against San Dimas at Mt. San Antonio College. It will be the opening Hacienda League game for both teams.

Just before the end of the game police reported a fight broke out in the school parking lot involving a number of youths.

Police from Glendora and Claremont had to be called in to assist La Verne police in quelling the melee.

It was not immediately known if anyone was seriously injured or what caused the disturbance. No arrests were made.

N.A.U. will provide Poly stiffest test

By BILL LANGLEY
PB Sports Editor

Cal Poly football fans will get a better idea just how good the Broncos really are here tonight when Northern Arizona visits Kellogg Field in a 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

There is no question Northern Arizona should provide the Broncos their stiffest test of the young season. NAU should also provide a clue about Poly's title hopes in the California Collegiate Athletic Association.

The visitors from the Big Sky Conference opened their season by defeating UC Riverside, the defending CCAA champions, 34-30.

Poly Coach Andy Vinci knows his team should have a much tougher time tonight than in the first two games which turned out to be easy victories.

"This will be our most difficult test so far this season," Vinci says. "Northern Arizona is the biggest team up front and the tastest we have met."

The Lumberjacks are bringing an 1-1 season record after losing to Idaho, 22-12, last week.

Poly (2-0) is trying to overcome a pair of jinxes dating back to 1962.

The Broncs haven't won their first three games in a season since 1962 and their last victory over Northern Arizona was recorded that year.

Tonight's contest renews an 11-game series which was discontinued in 1969 after NAU recorded a 38-7 win to take a 7-3-1 edge in the rivalry. Poly will return the favor by travelling to Flagstaff next year.

Vinci's team will get its first look at a Wishbone offense in his two seasons at Poly.

"Northern Arizona has a good conception of offensive football and has two excellent runners in its Wishbone formation," Vinci said. "Contrary to most Wishbone teams, NAU likes to run outside."

Coach Joe Salem, who built a top-notch program in nine years at the University of South Dakota, is rebuilding the Lumberjacks' football program in his first season in Flagstaff. He had a good recruiting year and has done a masterful job in public relations with last week's game against Idaho attracting a record crowd of 10,000.

Salem has almost a new team to work with. Only three offensive starters and five on defense return from last year's 3-6 club.

Robbie Schmitz, a transfer from El Camino College, will open at quarterback. The top runners are Chris Mangold from Rice University and Al DeGrate from Phoenix College. Fullback Jerry Wallace is the only returnee in the backfield.

In its first two games, NAU is averaging 281 yards on offense while allowing 355. Mangold is the top threat with 181 yards on 33 carries with DeGrate close behind with 156 on 30.

The Lumberjacks haven't shown much in the passing department. Schmitz has completed only 13 of 33 attempts for 163 yards.

Thanks to back-to-back 38-3 and 41-17 victories, Poly's statistics are overwhelming.

The Broncs are averaging 494.5 offensive yards per game while allowing only 208. NAU will provide a strong threat to the rushing defense average of only 63 yards a game.

Vinci said he will start the same lineup tonight with the exception of safety Ron Stewart, who has been handicapped by an injury, moving back into his normal spot.

Poly's backfield will consist of quarterback Leo Costa, tailbacks Mark Sanders and Aundre Holmes, fullback Brent Partridge and wide receiver Teddy Myles.

Costa has completed 64.3 per cent of his passes in connecting on 18 of 28 for 313 yards three touchdowns. Myles has been the chief target with 12 receptions for 199 yards.

Mark Sanders tops the rushers with 180 yards and four TDs in 31 carries. He is averaging 5.9 yards a try.

MSAC makes home debut with Rustlers

By MIKE RAWLINSON
P-B Staff Writer

Mt. San Antonio College may have a few surprises tonight when it hosts Golden West in its 1975 home football debut at Memorial Stadium in Walnut at 7:30 p.m.

Coach Mal Eaton's Mounties are gunning for their first victory of the year after two losses to top ranked teams — Citrus and Pasadena. Golden West, highly touted in pre season polls, has lost twice also.

"Don't be fooled by that," said Eaton. "Golden West is a good, solid, hard nosed football team. Don't forget, they've lost to last year's state champion (East (L.A., 17-13) and to the team favored to win the South Coast Conference title (Orange Coast, 31-14)."

The Mounties have been in against two tough opponents also and Eaton is confident they have learned by their mistakes.

With that in mind Eaton plans to add a few wrinkles to his offense which he isn't divulging until game time.

Chaffey College is in much the same situation as MSAC tonight when it opens it its home schedule at 7:30 against Imperial Valley. Coach Willie Richardson's Panthers were thumped hard by Santa Barbara last weekend, 51-8.

Unbeaten Citrus College (2-0) has a bye this week in preparation for next Saturday's battle with highly regarded Rio Hondo.

In MSAC's favor tonight is its proven ability to throw the ball in two games and Golden West's vulnerability through the air.

Freshman quarterback Flavio Garcia, who has been the most effective passer in two games by completing 18 of 25 for 204 yards, has earned the starting role.

Garcia's receivers will be flanker John Ochoa and split end Tom Peterssen who have each caught seven passes this season. At tight end will be Don Warren, who has started in both games. His backup is converted quarterback Kurt Porter who caught three passes last week for 53 yards.

Steve Benton, younger brother of running back Binky, will also see plenty of action at wide receiver. He has caught five passes in two games.

Behind Garcia, Eaton may run Binky Benton with his high school running mate Mike Hill in a prototype offense which allows the Mounties more versatility than the I-formation they have used frequently.

Undeterred, Coach Willie Richardson still thinks his Panthers will develop into a sound football team.

Golden West's main weapon will be the running of Mark Davis, who has gained 100 yards in each of the Rustlers' losses.

The Mounties may have difficulty with Golden West's defensive line which is anchored by a pair of 225-pound tackles, Mark Nichols and Mike Madden.

Stimac eyes golf crown

CARMEL, Calif. (AP) — Steve Stimac, whose last chance to win a big golf tournament was ruined by current professional star Forrest Fezler, faced fellow northern Californian Bill Colm today in the finals of the U.S. Seniors Championship.

"I lost to Fezler in the finals of the 1969 California Amateur," the 60-year-old Stimac from Walnut Creek recalled Friday, "and I also lost to Gene Littler and Johnny Miller in that tournament some years earlier."

Stimac edged another John Miller, from Edina, Minn., 2-up in Friday's semifinals over the par-71 Carmel Valley course.

Colm, also 60, won the 1973 World Seniors title. He pulled out Friday's victory by winning the last three holes, while Stimac had to win the last two holes of play to beat Miller.

Purdue, USC in rematch

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Purdue's Boilermakers return to the Los Angeles area today amid an aura of a gamble that won for them and lost for the University of Southern California.

They also invade the province of an alumnus who can't be at all happy with the Purdue image.

In the Rose Bowl game of 1967, the only time the two clubs have previously met, the Trojans of USC gambled on a two-point conversion and missed to lose 14-13.

And when he came out of the service after World War II, John McKay went to Purdue to play basketball and football. He quit after a year and switched to Oregon where he became an assistant before joining the USC staff.

McKay gambles on those conversion tries and last Jan. 1 he was successful as Pat Haden passed to Shelton Diggs for the two points that beat Ohio State 18-17.

Now, as the teams prepare for the 1:30 p.m. PDT kickoff in Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Trojans are favored by 21 points. USC has beaten Duke and Oregon State. Purdue has lost to Northwestern and Notre Dame.

Still McKay worries.

"Two of the very best teams we'll play defensively are Purdue and Notre Dame," the former Purdue athlete explains. "Their Ken Novak could be the first pick in the professional draft.

"Purdue has excellent talent physically. The secondary has extreme speed, the running backs are fast. It's a strong Big Ten team."

McKay has one problem in his offensive backfield. A broken leg last week put senior fullback Dave Farmer out for the season.

Sophomore Mosi Tatupu from Hawaii, a 225-pounder, takes over in the I formation. But his replacement could be Ricky Bell.

Which cause some concern in the running. Bell, operating at tailback this season, has gained 471 yards in his first two games—the fastest start ever for a Pac-8 running back.

Ricky was a fullback last season and McKay figures he might have to do double duty against Purdue should Tatupu not be able to go all the way. Kurt Hollmer, the current No. 2 fullback, weighs just 182 which would be very light for the blocking required in the USC "I" formation.

Purdue coach Alex Agase plans to start senior Craig Nagel at quarterback against the Trojans. A 6-foot-3, 191-pounder from Fairfield, Ohio.

He came in as a substitute and hasn't been a starter before, but Agase feels the lanky signal caller can come up with the big plays necessary against the stout USC defense.

Sagehens unveil QB; Leopards, Stags travel

By DON BRADLEY
PB Staff Writter

Lyle Lansdell makes his debut tonight as Larry Cenotto's successor at Pomona-Pitzer.

The Sagehens, along with Claremont-Mudd and Occidental, will be playing their opening game as all SCOAC teams are in action for the first time in the 1975 football season.

Pomona-Pitzer hosts USIU, 0-1, (7:30 p.m., Alumni Field); Claremont-Mudd is up at Morago to play St. Mary's, 0-3, (1:30 p.m.) and Oxy visits Azusa Pacific's Hillside Campus (also 1:30 p.m.).

Meanwhile, La Verne, and Whittier each play their second games of the season. Redlands plays its third.

The Leos (1-0) are at University of San Diego (USD) tonight (7:30 p.m.). Redlands (2-0) visits tough Cal Lutheran (1-0) at Thousand Oaks (1:30 p.m.). Whittier (0-1) takes on UC Riverside tonight (7:30 p.m.).

At Pomona's Alumni Field, Lansdell has a big pair of shoes to fill Cenotto holds all the school passing records and nation in a couple of categories last year. He was a first-team selection on the Kodak Coaches' All-American team.

Lansdell, a 6-1, 185-pound sophomore, is the same size as Cenotto. But there the similarity ends. He's a lefthander.

"Cenotto did a great job for us," said coach Walt Ambord. But Lansdell actually throws a little harder than Larry and he is probably the best fundamentally trained quarterback I've ever had.

"The thing is, he's untested. I think he has comparable ability to Cenotto in calling signals, leading the team and as a passer. But he has to do it under pressure in a game."

The receivers are new too. Biff Sherman graduated and Joe Budenholzer is in an eastern college as part of an exchange program.

Todd Wyatt, a 6-0, 170-pound senior, Elliot Peters, a 5-7, 140-pound sophomore and another sophomore, 5-10, 165-pound Dick Richardson, are the wide receivers.

John Buzzard, 6-1, 190, is at tight end.

Tim Short, 6-0, 180-pounds, is the only returnee starting in the backfield. Levi Henry, a 6-0, 180-pound transfer from USC, is the newcomer.

"We may have our best running backfield in a few years," said Ambord. "Short was one of the best in the conference by the end of last season. In the short time I've seen Henry, he looks like he'll be outstanding."

As usual, it'll be an uphill battle for the 'Hens. USIU, despite only a 33-man roster, gave Redlands all it could handle before losing, 17-13, at Redlands. And that one-game experience is a big edge.

The same is true up at St. Mary's where John Zinda sends his untested Stags against a Gaels' team that will be playing its fourth game.

USD opened two weeks ago and lost to Redlands, 31-12. But the Toros have had two weeks to prepare for La Verne and scouted the Leopards last week.

Bruins better not look ahead to OSU

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) — Air Force Coach Ben Martin isn't particular. If the element of surprise will help, he's willing to count on it when his slumping Falcons host 10th-rated UCLA today.

"Psychologically, this is probably the best time to catch UCLA," says Martin, whose team is mired in a seven-game losing streak. "They're between two big opponents and we may not be on their minds much."

Last week the Bruins were ranked 12th and upset then No. 10 Tennessee 34-28. Next week the UCLA opponent is No. 2 Ohio State.

However, UCLA Coach Dick Vermeil insists that isn't the case. "We're not looking to Ohio State," he says. "I haven't even looked at film on Ohio State yet. We're concerned with Air Force only. They're a good solid team, and they always play with a high degree of intensity, no matter what the score."

Saturday's game is the home opener for the Falcons, who've lost to Arkansas 35-0 and Iowa State 17-12.

Martin blames "missed scoring opportunities" for the Falcons' troubles this season. "We've only taken advantage of about 50 per cent of our chances," he says. "You have to be almost 100 per cent if you want to upset anybody."

AFA has had difficulty defensing the option the past two games, and that's not good news.

UCLA quarterback John Sciarra "is among the best two or three quarterbacks in the nation, especially at running the option," says Martin. "He's their triggerman, the key to their attack. And he's tough to get ahold of as a scrambler."

Sciarra has run and passed for 430 yards and scored four touchdowns in the two games this season, ranking him eighth in the nation in total offense.

Vermeil says his signal-caller has become a marked man. "Defenses play harder against him," Vermeil says. "He took some shots against Tennessee that made me surprised he was able to get up. There's no question he's a marked man."

Junior running back Wendell Tyler came off the bench last week to rush for 129 yards on just 10 carries. Vermeil says he'll be in the starting lineup Saturday, "although I'm not so sure he doesn't play better coming in off the bench."

Mike Worden, although completing only 33 per cent of his passes, remains the Falcon quarterback, with Ken Wood the leading runner. Wood has 128 yards on 28 carries.

Dave Lawson is one of Air Force's main scoring threats. His 62-yard field goal last week set a major college record.

Ali's wife denies rift

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Muhammad Ali's wife, Belinda, said Friday night that a report of a serious rift with her heavyweight champion husband was "just propaganda."

"I don't know what triggered it off," she added as she arrived in San Francisco on a flight from Manila.

She had stayed less than 12 hours in the Philippines where her husband will defend his title next week against Joe Frazier and where reports have circulated that Ali has been keeping almost constant company with another woman, Veronica Porsche of Los Angeles.

Belinda said flatly, "My husband doesn't have any girlfriends. I'm his wife."

She said she was "friendly" with Miss Porsche and explained her quick return to the United States as business-related.

"We are building and decorating our home (in Chicago)," she said. "I had to get some things from him and the only person who could do itwas me."

Saints host Sierra

Two local high schools look for their first football win of 1975 while one other will be opening its season in prep grid action on tap for today.

In two evening games, both San Dimas and Chaffey highs will be looking for victory number one on the young season. In the lone afternoon contest, La Verne Lutheran opens its second football season in the young school's history against Bell-Jeff High of Burbank.

San Dimas will be playing host to Sierra of Whittier tonight at 8 p.m. at Bonita High. The Saints lost to Damien 16-0 last week so are thirsting for a victory.

San Dimas will probably be going more to its running attack for tonight's game, as Sierra looked very weak against the run in its 23-0 loss to La Habra last week.

The Saints have the talent in the rushing department, in fleet Fred Carter and fullback Bob Pleasant. The Spartans were burned for 258 yards on the ground by La Habra and figure to have trouble stopping Carter and Pleasant all evening.

The visitors from Whittier are a member of the Whitmont League, a CIF 3-A entry. Leading their attack tonight will be senior quarterback Dan Moen. Last week the Spartans were limited to only 52 yards offense in the shutout loss.

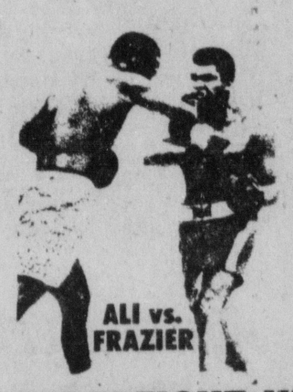

Of course, that's 48 more yards than the Saints made vs. Damien in their opener. S.D. coach Bob Baiz' squad figures to be better than that showing however, and has drawn the favorites' role in tonight's game.

Chaffey, coming off a heartbreaking 13-7 loss to Pasadena, will try to regroup against Magnolia. The Anaheim-based Sentinels beat Orange 20-18 in their opener.

The game, set for an 8 p.m. kick-off at Leonard Handel Stadium in Anaheim, figures to be another tough one for the Tigers. The Ontario school got a fine defensive job in its narrow loss to Pasadena but its clear that the Tiger offense has to perk up tonight for Chaffey to come away with a win.

La Verne Lutheran will kickoff its season at 3 p.m. today at Damien High. Bell-Jeff, the Trojan opponent, already has a game under its belt this fall. The Guards dropped a 12-6 decision to Coast Union a week ago.

Lutheran, under the direction of new coach John Rode, should be exciting to watch this season. The Trojans have some top returnees, including quarterback Steve Yager, running backs Ted Trahms and Don Liles, and wide receiver Dale Pomo. Biggest question-mark for L.V. will be how adversely its lack of depth will affect its effort today, and during the course of the season.

College football roundup

OSU hosts Tarheels

By The Associated Press

The last time North Carolina's football team journeyed to Ohio State, the Tar Heels were in for a surprise. They led 7-0 when Ohio State inserted a young running back named Archie Griffin.

"We did not know that Archie Griffin existed," North Carolina Coach Bill Dooley said after Griffin, then a freshman, rambled for a school record 239 yards, scored once and set up the other three touchdowns in Ohio State's 29-14 triumph, the only blemish on Carolina's 11-1 mark that season.

"Mark my words," Dooley predicted, "he's going to be one great football player."

Three years, one Heisman Trophy and 4,375 yards later, Griffin is ready to do battle with North Carolina again today when the Tar Heels invade Columbus to face second-ranked Ohio State. Carolina counters with a pair of topflight tailbacks in Mike Voight and James "Boom Boom" Betterson, both of whom topped 1,000 yards a year ago.

An unusual scheduling quirk finds most of the Associated Press top 10 teams at home — all except 10th-ranked UCLA, which visits Air Force, and No. 1-ranked Oklahoma, which played Miami of Florida Friday night.

The rest of the Top Ten slate finds Purdue at third-ranked Southern California, Texas Christian at No. 4 Nebraska, Wisconsin at No. 5 Missouri, Texas Tech at No. 6 Texas for a night game, Northwestern at No. 7 Notre Dame, Illinois at No. 8 Texas A&M and Baylor at No. 9 Michigan.

In the Second Ten, it's No. 11 Alabama at Vanderbilt, No. 12 Penn State at Iowa, Brigham Young at No. 13 Arizona State at night, Boston College at No. 14 West Virginia, No. 15 Arizona at Wyoming, Auburn at No. 16 Tennessee, North Texas State at No. 17 Oklahoma State, San Jose State at No. 18 Stanford, No. 19 Florida at Mississippi State under the lights and No. 20 Maryland at Kentucky.

Ohio State came through last week's 17-9 victory over Penn State with a minimum of injuries, the most serious to Coach Woody Hayes' feelings.

"We made too many mistakes and our execution lacked consistency," he griped. "We've got to improve, and we will. This team has great character and they never quit working."

Nebraska, 2-0, is an overwhelming favorite to destroy TCU, 0-2, while Wisconsin visits a Missouri team which is seeking revenge for a 59-20 thumping last season.

"I've played organized football for 12 years and that's the only ballgame I've ever played in that I wanted out at halftime," says Missouri defensive back Kenny Downing, recalling last year's thrashing. "It got to the point where it was sickening. It was a combination of a lot of things. We were on the road and we got psyched out by the fans. Then they broke that first play from scrimmage (Billy Marek's 81-yard touchdown run) and before we got settled down they got another."

Another revenge-bent team is Texas, which lost to Texas Tech 26-3 last year as Tommy Duniven completed all seven passes, three for touchdowns. Although Steve Sloan, Tech's new coach, was born in Austin, Tex., he never has seen Memorial Stadium except on TV.

"Do they play Taps or the Eyes of Texas before the game?" he inquired during the week, noting that the Longhorns have won their last 35 home games.

Dan Devine, Notre Dame's new coach, makes his debut under the Golden Dome at South Bend when the Fighting Irish oppose Northwestern. While Notre Dame was yielding only three points in downing Boston College and Purdue (17-0), Northwestern struggled to defeat Purdue (31-25) and Northern Illinois.

"You don't know how happy I am to be going home so we can have a normal week," Devine said after the Purdue game. "Between the Monday night game in Boston and our trip to Purdue, it seems like we've been on a bus for four days.

"We're still making little errors that have frustrated some good drives and these are the things we'll have to work on. We need more offensive discipline, and that starts with concentration. You just can't sustain long marches unless you become assignment-conscious. I'll be disappointed if we aren't better in these departments this week after getting back to a normal schedule and routine."

Texas A&M displayed its defense in blanking Mississippi 70 and its offense in pulverizing Louisiana State 39-8. Illinois' Bob Blackman says the Aggies "have the best personnel in the school's history. They have one of the best defensive units in the country and also run a very powerful Wishbone offense."

Michigan, held to a 19-19 tie by Stanford, will be trying to work its way back toward the top of the rankings in a game Baylor Coach Grant Teaff calls "possibly the biggest challenge in recent Baylor football history."

Michigan has had problems on offense, particularly in the short-yardage situations the Wolverines have been so adept at converting in the past. "In two games, we have had a first down inside our opponents' 40-yard line on 18 occasions and only scored twice," says Coach Bo Schembechler. "This is not the type of football we expect."

Giants headed for Canada?

NEW YORK (AP) — Canada's largest brewery has offered $15 million for baseball's finacially-troubled San Francisco Giants and the team's owner, Horace Stoneham, is said to be seriously considering the proposal, The Associated Press learned Friday.

Stoneham, whose Giants have lost money the last four years, has been offered the $15 million by Labatts Brewery in Toronto, a knowledgeable baseball source said. Stoneham has received similar financial offers from another group in Toronto and one in Seattle.

Stoneham was not immediately available for comment.

Stoneham's acceptance of any offer, however, must be approved by unanimous vote by the other National League owners.

One obstacle to such a move is that both the Congress and baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn want a team back in Washington D.C.

Six golfers share second round lead

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Longshot Wally Armstrong, who was just trying to make the cut, birdied five of his last six holes for a 65 that lifted him into a six-way tie for the lead Friday after two rounds of the $135,000 Sahara Invitational Golf Tournament.

"Mac McLendon, who was playing with me, kept telling me, 'You're a pro now, forget about making the cut and go for the whole thing,'" Armstrong said. "Maybe it worked.

"I know that when I birdied the 13th, it took the pressure off and then I could relax a little."

His 36-hole total of 134 was eight under par for two trips over the sunsplashed, 6,800-yard Sahara-Nevada Country Club course and was matched by first-round leader Miller Barber, Dave Hill, Bob Wynn, Bobby Mitchell and Rik Massengale in the tightest scramble on the tour this season.

The veteran Hill had a 66, Massengale and Mitchell had 64s, Wynn a 70 despite "6's" on his first and last holes, and the 44-year-old Barber managed to match par 71 in the hot sunny, windless weather that helped contribute to some of the lowest scoring of the year.

There was some absolutely spectacular scoring. Ken Still shot a 66 with a whiff on the first hole. Bruce Lietzke improved from an opening 80 to a 66. And Australian Bruce Crampton played the back nine in 28, just one shot off the alltime tour low for nine holes, on his way to a 65.

"The weather's perfect. The golf course is in great condition. The fairways are hard enough to give you a roll and make it play short. They just combine to make for some very low scoring," explained Massengale, who scored his first tour victory earlier in the season.

One shot off the lead halfway through the chase for a $27,000 first prize were chunky George Cadle and Bob Dickson. Cadle had a 66, Dickson 68.

Still's 66, despite missing the ball entirely when he got under a tree, tied him at 136—two shots back of the leading sixsome—with Don January and Chuck Courtney. January had a 66, Courtney 68.

Mountie runners fall

SANTA ANA — Mt. San Antonio College dropped its first South Coast Conference cross country meet to Santa Ana here Friday at Irvine Park, 23-32.

MSAC's Kevin Kellogg won the four-mile race in 20 minutes, 20 seconds for a new course record, but the Mounties lost the next four places to Santa Ana runners.

MSAC's Frank Diaz, Mike Garcia and Gary Smith finished sixth, seventh and eighth.

The Mounties return to action next Friday, hosting defending state champion Gross mont in a South Coast meet.

Ernst leads sinking Sun

By The Associated Press

Pat Haden has gone to England for his Rhodes Scholarship studies and Daryle Lamonica has gone into retirement, leaving rarely used and lightly regarded Mike Ernst as the starting quarterback for the Southern California Sun when they meet the Charlotte Hornets in a World Football League game tonight.

With Haden, a rookie, leading the league in passing and engineering the WFL's No. 1 offense before departing for Oxford University this week and Lamonica in reserve, Ernst saw little action with the Sun. This week, however, he will get his big chance.

He will have help from rookie Anthony Davis, the WFL's top rusher with 792 yards, including five games of over 100 yards, and nine touchdowns, and Terry Lindsey, first in the league in pass receiving with 484 yards on 30 catches.

Despite those outstanding individual performances and a team effort that has produced a league high average of 29 points per game, the Sun has lost its last three games, dropping Southern Cal's overall record to 4-4. Defense has been the Sun's downfall. The team has allowed an average of 31.3 points per game, the most by any team.

Charlotte is 4-3, including a 30-22 victory over the Sun two weeks ago. The Hornets are playing winning football despite being last in total offense and eighth in scoring.

In other weekend WFL games, Birmingham, 6-2, will be at Jacksonville, 4-3, on Saturday night, and the Hawaiians, 3-4, will play at Shreveport, 3-5, and Memphis, 6-1, will be at San Antonio, 6-3 on Sunday.

Philadelphia and Portland, each 2-6, are idle.

Birmingham, a 22-11 loser to Jacksonville earlier this season, will ty to reverse the score with the league's best running attack, led by Johnny Musso and Art Cantrelle, each of whom has gained over 400 yards.

Jacksonville is hoping for the return of quarterback George Mira, who suffered a sprained knee and an injured index finger two weeks ago.

The Memphis-San Antonio game matches the Eastern Division leader against the Western Division pacesetter. The Southmen feature a balanced offense, with John Huarte and Danny White passing to Paul Warfield and Ed Marshall, plus the power running of Larry Csonka, Jim Kiick and Willie Spencer.

Memphis' top-ranked defense, which has permitted an average of 15.6 points per game, will have to stop the passing of San Antonio's rapidly developing quarterback, Johnnie Walton.

Two other improving signal-callers, Sonny Sixkiller of the Hawaiians and Edd Hargett of Shreveport, will be matched against each other. Sixkiller's favorite target is Tim Delaney, third in the league in receiving. Hargett was named the WFL's Player of the Week last week after completing 20 fo 30 passes for 369 yards and three touchdowns in a 38-29 victory over Southern California.

Andretti turns in fastest time

LONG BEACH (AP)— Former Indianapolis 500 champion Mario Andretti turned in the fastest lap Friday as practice opened for the Long Beach Grand Prix.

Andretti, driving a Lola Chevy, averaged 86.403 miles per hour over the twisting two mile course as an international field of drivers began warming up for the inaugural running of the race over Long Beach streets Sunday.

Qualifying begins today, with Andretti, Al Unser, Brian Redman, Jackie Oliver and Jody Scheckter expected to be top contenders for the pole position.

Tony Brise was just behind Andretti's time as the drivers got their first look at the course.

Brise, of London, covered the 12-turn course at 86.287 m.p.h.

Redman, the 1973-74 Grand Prix Circuit points champion from Yorkshire, England rand the third fastest lap, 86.127.

Al Unser, who blew the engine in his Lola Chevy and switched to a backup car, turned in an 85.937 lap, and Scheckter and Oliver also were among the 10 fastest around the course. Others considered to be top contenders for the $100,000 purse are Gordon Johncock, George Follmer and Warwick Brown.

There will be two 24-mile heat races today to determine the final starting positions Sunday.

Sports briefs

MARTINSVILLE, Va. (AP) — Cale Yarborough of Timmonsville, S. C., broke a 3-year-old record Friday at Martinsville Speedway and won the pole position for Sunday's $75,000 20th annual Old Dominion 500 Grand National stock car race.

Yarborough, driving a Chevrolet, turned the .525-mile track in a speed of 86.199 miles per hour and earned $1,000 and the top starting position for the 500-lap, 262.5-mile event, richest short-track race in National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing history.

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Moses Malone, sophomore standout of the Utah Stars, suffered a broken right foot in a scrimmage Thursday night and will be out of action three to five weeks, a team spokesman said Friday.

The foot was placed in a walking cast, said the team physician, Dr. Ralph McDonald.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers signed Ernie McMillan, once a star offensive tackle with St. Louis, Friday and waived running back Larry Krause and offenive tackle Bill Hayhoe, veterans who had been on the injured reserve list.

McMillan, 37, had been waived by St. Louis Sept. 16. The 6-foot-5, 265 pounder, a 13-year National Football League veteran, is expected to back up Bill Bain and Dick Himes, the only offensive tackles on the Packer roster. Keith Wortman, a starting guard, had been providing relief time for both.

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's Jan Kodes captured his match and Jiri Hrebec led in his before darkness forced a halt to the Davis Cup tennis semifinals against Australia Friday.

Kodes whipped John Alexander 6-4, 2-6, 7-5, 6-4 and Hrebec came from behind to lead Tony Roche, 3-6, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3 and 1-0 before play was suspended.

JOHNNY WONDER

Sometimes a piece of the sun seems to disappear. And then more and more of it disappears until finally the bright sunlight is blotted out, and the day is plunged into darkness. The stars flash out and chickens go to rest.

Long ago, people believed that a huge dragon in the sky had swallowed the sun.

Today, we know that solar eclipses occur when the moon in its journey around the earth passes directly between the earth and the sun and casts its shadow on the earth's surface.

The moon's shadow is small, so only a small part of the earth sees it.

Eclipses of the sun do not last very long. They are over in a few minutes.

There are eclipses of the moon, too! A lunar eclipse is caused by the shadow which the earth casts on the moon when the earth is between the moon and the sun.

Because the earth's shadow is so big, an eclipse of the moon lasts several hours.

Ex-POW says

Patty brainwashed

SANTA BARBARA (AP) — Retired Navy Cmdr. Lloyd Bucher says his "gut feeling" was that brainwashing could have converted Patty Hearst into a revolutionary.

Bucher, who spent 10 months as a North Korean captive following the takeover of his ship the Pueblo, said Thursday that changes in personality are possible under such circumstances.

He pointed out, however, that he was not subjected to brainwashing by North Koreans.

"I got a lot of rough treatment," Bucher said. "But there was no attempt to change basic beliefs."

Bucher said, "I've read where people kidnapped have oftentimes later identified with their kidnappers."

Bucher was in Santa Barbara to speak at a city college.

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL
For Sunday, Sept. 28, 1975

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You're not overly patient with the family today. If everyone's walking around the house with a long face, you may be to blame.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Giving orders comes easy to you today. However, if you want others to follow your edicts, you'd better try to set a good example.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) If you've committed yourself to picking up the tab today, first check the prices or you'll make a king-size dent in your wallet.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Others will make such heavy demands on your time you won't have much to yourself. Put your dreams away for another day.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You will be hypersentitive today. Weigh what others say or you'll mistake a sincere comment for a put-down.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Have fun with friends today, but don't mix in money or things of material nature. If you do, hard feelings will result.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Normally, you're very considerate of others' feelings. Today, you'll be so intent on having your way you'll get someone's hackles up.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Be content to let sleeping dogs lie. You're likely to unwittingly dredge up some old, unpleasnat issue that could be very disturbing to a friend.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) It's a losing proposition to give business advice to a friend today. If the situation doesn't pan out, he'll blame you for his failure.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You're not a good team player today. Avoid getting into a situation where you must rely on a partner. Neither will be happy.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Where usually you're willing to lend a hand, today you will resent it deeply if anyone asks for a favor.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Take no risks today where someone else is calling the shots. If you can't be captain of your own ship, pass the action.

Your Birthday, Sept. 28, 1975

Events and conditions will force you to be extremely ambitious this coming year. Just be sure to repay favors to anyone who's helped on the way up.

Club privacy opened by court

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A federal appeals court agreed Friday that a Florida yacht club cannot exclude Jews or blacks. A dissenting judge called it an unprecedented invasion of private rights.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals decision upheld by a vote of 2 to 1 a ruling by U.S. District Court Judge Norman C. Roettger Jr. ordering Biscayne Bay Yacht Club not to deny membership solely on the basis of race or religion.

It came in a suit filed by Harold S. Golden and David Fincher.

Roettger's order was based on the fact that the yacht club leases bay bottom area from Miami for docks and thus is subject to laws forbidding discrimination.

"So far as I know, or can find out, this is the first time in the history of American jurisprudence that a federal court has assumed jurisdiction over the membership policies of a genuinely private club," protested Judge James P. Coleman.

His dissent said it means that "no private club, private individual or collection of private individuals may lease public property for private use and be able thereafter to remain private."

Coleman said the lease is the only link between club and city.

The club bought its bayside clubhouse in 1932 and then had to lease adjacent bay bottom for its docks after the city asserted ownership of all bay bottoms in 1962. The lease is for $1 a year.

That lease, the court held, put club membership policies under the 14th Amendment which forbids "state action of every kind that operates to deny citizen the equal protection of the laws."

There are many yacht or hunting clubs all over the nation with similar lease arrangements.

"As if we did not already have more to do than we can possibly perform, judges now become ex-officio managers of the membership policies of all such private clubs," said Coleman.

The 5th said the club has no restrictive bylaws as to race or religion but has never had a black or a Jew among its members.

The court said Miami "fostered the club's continued existence and prosperity by providing a lease essential to the club's operation and charging a token fee for the privilege of excluding members of the public from the beneficial use of public property."

Granny's problems get karate chop

SAN BERNARDINO (AP) — Granny wears a black belt.

"I can be feeling down or having a problem, go to a class and let them throw me around a bit and I get rid of it," says Connie Glembot, 60.

"With me, it's not one of those women's lib things. I'm completely satisfied with my marital status. I just go to relax."

Her instructor, Kazuko Swauger, says the grandmother of six and the mother of two is the oldest woman ever to achieve a first-degree black belt, awarded to advanced participants in judo.

It took Mrs. Glembot five years and eight months to earn her black belt, about average, says her teacher.

"Oh, it was nothing," the staunch grandmother chuckles, "...of course there was quite a bit of work involved, but I enjoyed it so much and had so much fun, I hesitate to call it work."

"The discipline of the sport," Mrs. Glembot said in a recent interview, "teaches you to get your body and mind coordinated and work as one. When you are there to practice judo, your mind is on it physically and mentally."

Mrs. Glembot became interest in the old Samurai sport 22 years ago when she and her husband—now a retired Air Force sergeant—were stationed in Puerto Rico.

"I remember there were a number of G.I.s there working out on mats," she said. "At that time there were no instructions for women, but I recall my sons, Raymond and Lee, were very interested in it. I guess they are actually responsible for my interest in the sport, because they would watch the G.I.s practice and then would come home and practice with mother."

Her travels with her husband to other bases and lack of judo classes for women shifted her interest away from the sport for 16 years.

When her husband retired, the Glembots moved here and her interest in judo was revived when she met Mrs. Swauger in a local gymnasium.

Mrs. Swauger, a champion in women's kata judo, and a member of a Samurai family, started a women's class in 1969 and Mrs. Glembot's interest was finally transformed into action.

Not tired of being flung around in the judo ring, she recommended the sport to anyone, because, "if a 60-year-old grandmother can do it, just about anyone can," she says.

Ambassador's cultural venture

Doc Peirsol

It happened in Pomona

A woodworking shop in Pomona once played an important part in the creation and development of a new and modern concept in the art of men's wear merchandising. This interesting fact is documented in an article in the August 10, 1904, Pomona Daily Review, which described at some length that Pomona firm's contribution to the fine art of storing and displaying men's clothing.

"Some of the finest oak store furniture ever turned out in this locality is now in the course of construction at the Fosdick wood working shop on South Main Street," the story stated. "At an expense of some $1,500 two great cases of oak and plate glass are being put together for the Midgley Bros. store. There is nothing like them in any store in Southern California outside of Los Angeles. They are new ideas for keeping stocks of clothing — doing away with the old manner of piling articles of clothing in heaps upon tables. The new oak and glass cases are each five feet deep, seven feet high and forty feet long. Within them clothing on wire frames will be hung."

And then for final proof to substantiate its contention that Fosdick's wood working shop had indeed made a dramatic forward step in the art of merchandise display and storage, the Pomona Daily Review report closed with the statement: "There are huge drawers at the bottom for trousers."

Bicentennial envelopes offered

By Gustav Detjen, Jr.

The U.S. Postal Service is going to produce a series of embossed envelopes for the Bicentennial. The new format envelopes will carry a silhouette in the lower left hand corner which compliments the subject of the indicia. Depicting the occupations of the common man, the subjects will include seafaring, farming, homemaking, craftmanship and medicine.

The first in the series will be a 10-cent envelope which will be issued Oct. 13 in Minneapolis, Minn. It honors the Seafaring Tradition, with a compass rose forming the indica. A silhouetted sailing ship, labeled "Bicentennial Era The Seafaring Tradition" appears in the opposite corner, well below the area reserved for the return address. The sailing ship depicted is the Norwegian sloop RESTAURATIONEN. Collectors desiring the first day cancellations may send orders to "Seafaring Tradition, Postmaster, Minneapolis, MN 55401," with remittance of 12 cents per envelope. The 6¾ size will be supplied unless the large number 10 size is requested. Collectors are requested to send self-addressed envelopes of an appropriate size with their orders so that envelopes may be returned to them under cover. Orders must be postmarked no later than Oct. 13.

SAFETY FIRST FROM RHODESIA

On Oct. 15, Rhodesia will issue a set of four commemoratives to draw attention to Occupational Safety. The stamps pointedly indicated what can happen if safety measures are not taken on the job. Details from Posts and Telecommunications Corp., Philatelic Bureau, Private Bag 199H, Salisbury, Rhodesia.

NOVELIST JANE AUSTEN HONORED

Jane Austen, one of the most respected and admired of British novelists, is to be commemorated by a special issue of stamps to be released on Oct. 22 to mark the bicentenary of her birth. The set of four depicts characters from some of Jane Austen's novels. Check with your dealer for availability or contact the Philatelic Bureau, Lothian House, 124 Lothian Road, Edinburgh EH3 9BB, Great Britain.

The spacious foyer of the Ambassador Auditorium makes extensive use of stone, wood and carpeting.

ON THE COVER

The $10 million Ambassador Auditorium in Pasadena opened Wednesday with a recital by tenor Luciano Pavarotti, launching a series of concerts that will bring some of the world's leading musical artists and groups to the new hall. The building is surrounded by 25 concrete and quartz pillars 72 feet tall. In the half-acre lake around the auditorium stands a 30-foot fountain sculpture by British artist David Wynne.

The 1,260-seat auditorium has an orchestra shell of movable teak panels.

Ambassador opens series of concerts

Story by Joseph H. Firman
PB staff writer

When lyric tenor Luciano Pavarotti walked out on the stage of the glittering $10 million Ambassador Auditorium in Pasadena Wednesday, he launched a unique venture — a series of concerts by the world's most prestigious artists staged solely for the benefit of charitable, humanitarian, educational and cultural organizations.

The series, sponsored by the Ambassador International Cultural Foundation, is actually 16 different concert series featuring such performers and groups as Vladimir Horowitz, Joan Sutherland, Yehudi Menuhin, Valery and Galina Panov, Grace Bumbry, Ruggiero Ricci, the Vienna Chamber Orchestra and the San Francisco Symphony.

The Foundation, initially funded by the Worldwide Church of God, will underwrite costs of the concerts, thereby enabling all proceeds to go to local and worldwide institutions and projects such as the United Way, March of Dimes, the Crippled Children's Society, UNICEF, Archeological Excavations in Jerusalem, the Arthur Rubinstein Piano Master Competition, Eilat-Los Angeles Sisters City Committee, Tel Avivi University, the King Leopold III Foundation, the International Cultural Center for Youth in Jerusalem, Pasadena Symphony and Big Brothers of Los Angeles.

AICF is a non-profit organization established by Herbert W. Armstrong, pastor general of the Worldwide Church of God, which has its headquarters at Ambassador College, with which the foundation is affiliated. The college, founded in 1946, is a private, coeducational liberal arts institution, located at 300 W. Green St.

At first glance, the college's Ambassador Auditorium is reminiscent of the Pavilion of the Los Angeles Music Center. The Ambassador has a flat top, 72-foot high colonnade, facade of reflecting bronze glass, an oversize chandelier and underground parking. The 3,250-seat Pavilion was designed by Welton Becket and Associates; the 1,260-seat Ambassador by Daniel, Mann, Johnson & Mendenhall.

The new Pasadena pleasure dome is surrounded by a half-acre lake in the middle of which stands a 30-foot fountain sculpture of soaring egrets by English sculptor David Wynne.

The Ambassador drew on all countries of the world for its structure and furnishings. There is Italian glass mosaic tile, Norwegian granite, fiber carpeting from Hong Kong, onyx wall facing from Turkey and Persia, African bartiki wood handrails, candelabra from France. The huge, 3-tiered chandelier of bronze and crystal was made in West Germany.

The entrance foyer and downstairs lounge are covered with a flamboyant custom-loomed carpet with a starburst pattern. The carpeting of the main level of the auditorium is royal purple, the seats of gold color. In the balcony the carpeting is gold, the seats of crimson. The interior of the auditorium is done in rosewood with teak trim and adorned with glass crystal lighting fixtures.

The auditorium has an orchestra shell of teak panels which can be removed, and a hydraulically operated stage. The hall boasts 236 microphone inputs and a 48-channel sound console capable of balancing voices and music in quadraphonic sound. For television there are built-in cables for eight color camera locations. The lighting system is controlled by a sophisticated mini - computer with a cassette - programmed memory capable of performing four simultaneous fades at differing speeds.

In the basement of the Ambassador, besides the spacious lounge and foyer, are two completely equipped recording studios which can record all the programs on stage in a central console. There are also dressing rooms, music rehearsal rooms, and extensive storage areas for properties and equipment.

Tickets are on sale for each of the 16 different concert series. A 64-page color brochure on the series, the auditorium and the institutions sharing the proceeds can be obtained by writing to Ambassador International Cultural Foundation, 300 W. Green St., Pasadena 91129 or by calling (213) 577-5360.

Bartiki wood handrails, marble pediments and rich carpeting give the auditorium a luxurious air.

GARDEN SIDELIGHT — A hanging garden is part of The Woodworks home furnishings complex. A wide range of plants is sold at this section of the shop.

Hanging garden showpiece at new Woodworks

Formerly Dynamite Furniture Co., the outlet is located at 743 E. Foothill Blvd.

The Woodworks' factory still is located at 932 Price St., Pomona, but the "showroom" moved to Claremont last Saturday.

Co-owner Jim Bassett, whose firm designs all its own furniture, calls the new shop a home furnishings complex. Customers can find couches and chairs, but also pottery, plants, stained glass windows, rugs, metal work, leather goods and wood works.

Local artists sell their work through the new shop, which emphasizes the fact that all items are designed by the company. "We don't buy anything from anybody except artists who work for us," said Bassett. "We've totally eliminated the middleman, a guy who takes a profit and doesn't do anything."

Bassett emphasizes he now has 4,000 square feet of showroom space, compared to only 800 in the Pomona factory.

There are thousands of fabrics available in the new shop, which formerly was a backpacker store, and at one time was the office for architect Fred McDowell.

Bassett's partner in the business is David Sheets, son of Millard Sheets, local artist.

A highlight of the store is the hanging garden, designed by "ForeverGreen", a business owned by two Cal Poly students, Dave Ellis and Bob Rubel.

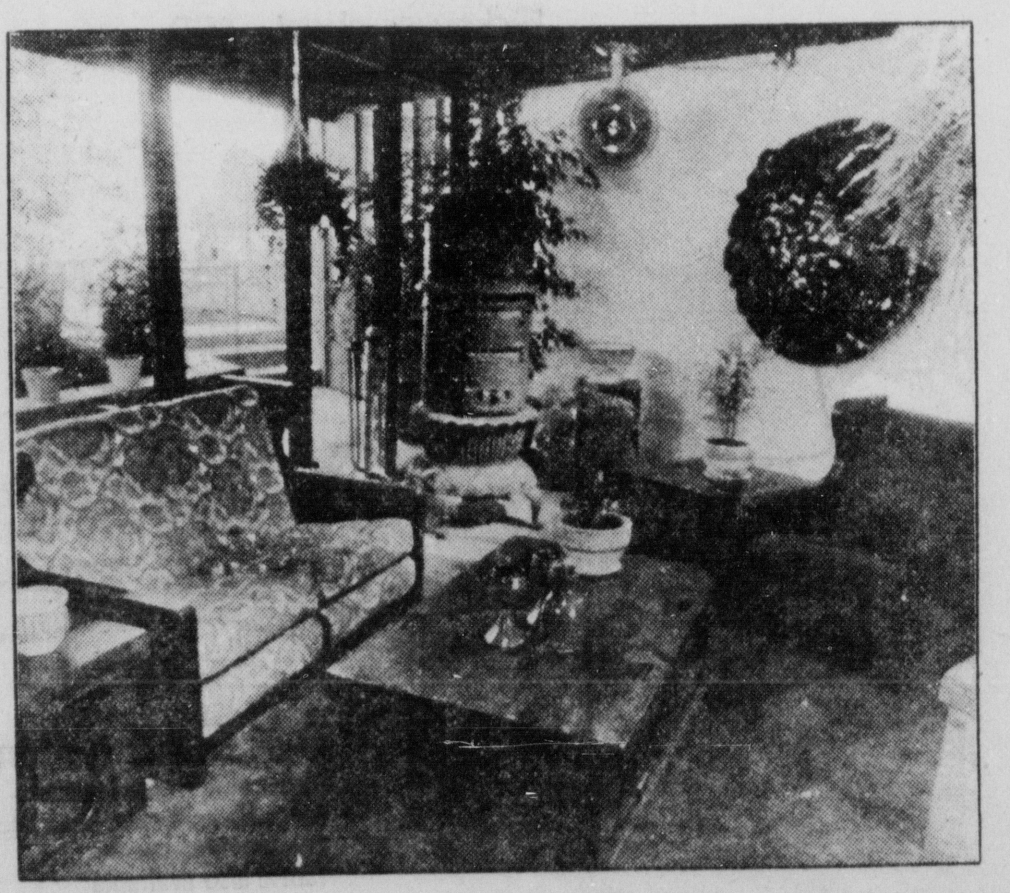

Ellis, 21, and his partner are in charge of making and selling all the plants offered at The Woodwork.

Everything from a plant called "Creeping Charlie" to bonsai and mingaralia are available at the shop. "We can advise people on the right plants for the right location in their homes," Ellis said.

Ellis, a landscape architect major at Cal Poly, eventually hopes to expand his firm to do landscaping in local residences.

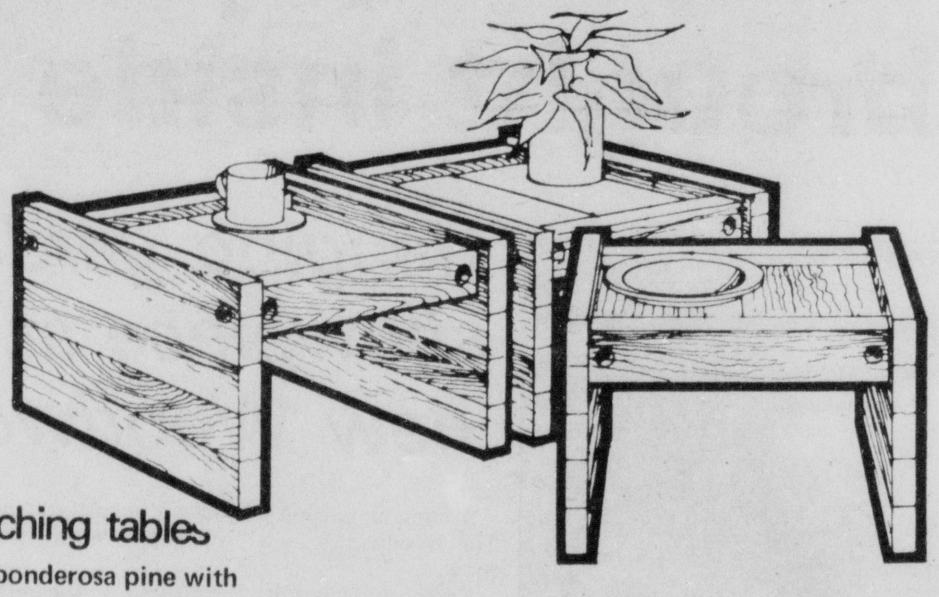

LOCAL DESIGNERS — Owners of the Woodworks say that all items sold there are designed by their own artists.

ASSORTED FURNISHINGS — Various displays greet customers at the Woodworks shop at 743 E. Foothill Blvd., Claremont.

Tune In

TUSH

Z Z Top is another group that's turning the ears of the country toward Texas. The trio plays hard-driving rock and roll rooted in the tradition of Southwestern blues and R & B. Dusty Gill (l) is on bass, Billy Gibbons (m) on lead guitar, and Frank Beard (r) on drums, with Dusty and Billy taking turns on the vocals. Dusty provides rhythm lines on the bass, which allows Frank more improvisation on the drums. "And tell the young drummers of the world I only know three beats," Frank says. "The shuffle, the cut shuffle, and the monkey beat." This week's tune is from Z Z Top's fourth LP, "Fandango," which means a big bash. Back in cattle drive days, the cowboys always had a Fandango at the end of the trail when their pockets were filled with money.

Of San Antonio League Student Council

Claremont High named leader

By DEBBIE ANSELL
Claremont High
Correspondent

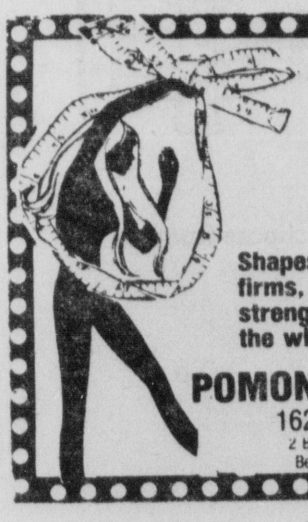

Claremont High School has been elected "chair-school" of the San Antonio League Student Council.

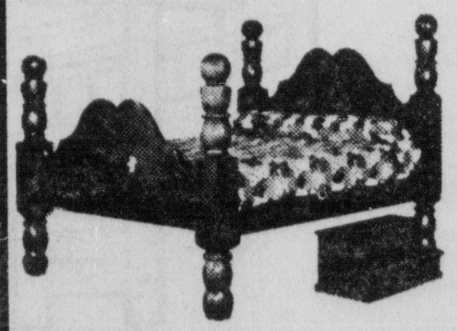

CHS was chosen at a recent meeting of the council, which is made up of representatives from Chino, Damien, Ganesha, Upland, Garey, Montclair, and Claremont high schools.

The council under the supervision of the SAL school principals will coordinate and carry out many projects during the school year.

Currently in the planning stages are a league student leadership workshop, a new council constitution, and different types of intraschool activities. The council will give an award to the school demonstrating the most spirit and sportsmanship throughout the year.

Student government is playing an active role on the Claremont High School campus as well. A Principal's Advisory Board is currently being formed in an effort to strengthen communications between students and the administration.

Biography gives unbiased look at Samuel Johnson

By SAMUEL BELLMAN

SAMUEL JOHNSON. By John Wain. Viking. $12.50.

Take one of the most fascinating of all 18-Century English writers — Samuel Johnson — run him through the mind of a famous novelist, university fellow and Oxford Professor of Poetry . . . born in Johnson's home territory, the Staffordshire 'Potteries' — and you have an eminently readable biography for all seasons.

(Samuel Bellman is exchange Professor of English in the department of historical and literary studies at Portsmouth Polytechnic, Portsmouth, England.)

John Wain (author of books of poetry, criticism, and autobiography as well as of fiction) explains his reasons for presenting the life of an eminence already so familiar.

Johnson is still not regarded in the proper light: he is taken as too conservative or even reactionary, indifferent to the suffering of the disadvantaged. And Wain is in a position to see his life from the inside. He is from Johnson's part of the country and had pretty much the same social background to start off with.

Wain and Johnson shared the same university (Oxford) and "the same life of Grub Street, chance employment, and the unremitting struggle to write enduring books against the background of an unstable existence."

But what manner of biography is this, of that coarse, slovenly pontificator; mentor of the lascivious and sprightly Scot, James Boswell; compiler of a preposterous dictionary of unreadable terms; author of a distinguished series, "Lives of the English Poets" as well as of innumerable periodical essays and other miscellaneous works; editor of Shakespeare's plays; and colorful character par excellence?

Wain explains unhesitatingly that "there is no research in this book": his material is taken from earlier sources, a few of them modern but most of them 18th-Century works. But there is the novelist's touch, the verbal sensitivity of a man of letters, in Wain's details.

And so Wain unrolls his rich enthralling tapestry, embellishing Johnson's antics and nervous, sometimes inspired fits, with lavish and colorful background commentary. Johnson enters Oxford, after an unhappy and sickly childhood with uncongenial parents.

Says Wain: "The day on which a young man enters college is traditionally said to be that on which death seems furthest away." Johnson's childhood, in other words, had now ended. But he had built-in kinks at least as troublesome as the scrofula or "King's evil" which his parents took him to Queen Anne to be cured of, hopefully, by the royal "touch."

Here is Johnson, the moody and somewhat unstable journalist-literateur, married to a widow much older than himself, living (like Shakespeare) apart from his wife: "He was living in a pattern of Bohemianism so extreme that it bordered on vagrancy, treading the streets of night-town with thieves and prostitutes" . . . and beside him, that wild, dissolute outcast and martyr-poseur, that "bastard" poet whom Johnson celebrated in one of his best essays, Richard Savage.

Here is the aging Johnson, a pre-eminent man of letters and center of attraction among the London literati, but shabby and ludicrous in appearance, yet recipient of a royal pension from George III: "he still dreaded the judgment of God, his sexual needs were still unslaked, he still had to use the powers of his mind to win respect as a hopelessly inelegant person in an age that valued elegance."

Here is Johnson in a state of nervous collapse from his literary labors on the edition of Shakespeare that added so greatly to his stresses and strains.

Carefully consulting the best sources, rounding out the picture of a tormented man mismatched with his parents, his wife, even his great and good friends the Thrales (whom he parasitized for so long) . . . but brilliant and forcefully persuasive even when bordering on the ludicrous, John Wain has drawn for us a moving and memorable portrait of a man for one season: the English 18th Century, with its Georgian timelessness, its offstage rumblings and revolutions, and its moral certainty and peremptoriness in the face of accelerating change.

Profile not worth time and effort

THE PRESIDENT. By John Hersey. Knopf. $6.95.

John Hersey's eavesdropping covers the week of March 10, 1975, from a rainy Monday in the White House to a sunny Saturday on the Burning Tree golf course. As you close the book after reading of a presidential clout to the seventh green, you wonder whether the whole exercise was worth the effort.

While Hersey has presented a picture of a solidly conservative President with a Middle American conscience and a deep belief in the rightness of the American system, the amount of trivia he covers tends to transform the work into a monumental bore.

The President has been compared with Calvin Coolidge. Indeed, the image of Silent Cal performing for the cameras such rites as donning an Indian war bonnet or pretending to be a fisherman is evoked by Hersey's pages.

In addition, a lot of space is taken up by faithful reportage of such presidential chores as beaming upon the babes of Congressmen or exchanging platitudes with the winner of one or another beauty pageant.

Hersey had no opportunity to sit in on the President's daily meetings with the secretary of state, since the peripatetic Henry Kissinger was in the Middle East at the time.

Armour makes house into home

By STAN ROBERTS

THE SPOUSE IN THE HOUSE by Richard Armour. McGraw Hill. $6.95.

With a suggestion that the plural for "spouse" be accepted as "Spice" the former dean of faculty at Scripps College launches the 52nd book of his career.

The book is a collection of some 130 examples of Armour's light verse, comments about his family, his home and himself, most of them published earlier in national magazines.

Illustrations are by Henry Syverson, best known for his drawings of "Post Scripts" in the Saturday Evening Post.

The Claremont professor, who still accepts occasional teaching assignments despite his retirement, has an easy way with rhymes and rhythms as he wryly weighs his marital relationship (he has been "blissed" 4½ decades), delves into habits that conflict with those of his wife (squeezing the tooth paste), and notes the little things that annoy him (pictures hanging crooked).

He also pokes fun at the eye shadow, short bath tubs, supermarket aisles, and scores of other daily items that help shape the life of the modern sapien anthropoid.

He winds it all up neatly with a note of satisfaction that upon returning home he finds not a welcome mat but a welcome mate.

It's all fun reading. And if you happen to need a quick verse to illustrate a point, this little book will enhance your chance.

Governor's son gets role

BOSTON (AP) — John Dickson looked like any other teenager trying out for the starring role in a local musical, but when the auditions were over the winner turned out to be John Dukakis, the Massachusetts governor's son.

John, a senior at Brookline High School, said he used a fake name so he would be judged on merit not on his connection with Gov. Michael S. Dukakis.

The young Dukakis, 17, claimed the leading part of Paul Revere in the bicentennial musical "Young Country." According to director Kippy Dewey, John was selected for the part because he was the best candidate.

Officials decide Viet refugees need help—now

By ED PRATHER
PB Staff Writer

An emergency meeting of local officials was held late Friday afternoon at Pomona City Hall to discuss the immediate needs and problems faced by the more than 125 Vietnamese refugees who arrived in Pomona Thursday.

Medical care seemed to be the most urgent need, as it was learned that several cases of chicken pox have been reported among the Vietnamese and one woman is expecting a child within a few days.

Gerald Martin, sponsor of the group, told officials it was his understanding that the Vietnamese could qualify for Medi-Cal coverage.

Unfortunately, the Vietnamese may have to go to Los Angeles for care under Medi-Cal since local hospitals are all privately owned.

Don Donnelly, president of the Pomona School Board, suggested that the administrator of Pomona Valley Community Hospital be contacted and see if some services could be provided locally if an emergency situation developed.

Donnelly and other school district officials also arranged with Martin to set up a meeting on Tuesday to discuss the enrollment of the Vietnamese children in schools.

He said that tentative plans call for at least two schools to be designated in the city where Vietnamese will take classes in English. Adult education classes are also planned.

The Vietnamese are living at the Sunflower Apartments at Phillips Boulevard and Holly Way in southeast Pomona.

Martin said that bedding, refrigerators, kitchen utensils and other necessities are being provided, although some of the Vietnamese have not yet received these items.

Martin assured officials that the Vietnamese are being fed and that all utilities at the apartment complex are operating.

He added that at least 40 of the refugees worked Friday in Orange County where he has arranged gardening jobs at $2.10 per hour.

A gardening operation is also planned for Pomona and may begin operation next week. He said that each family has been guaranteed from 40 to 82 hours of work per week, depending upon the size of the family.

Most of the Vietnamese in the group, said Martin, are of Chinese ancestry, with Chinese being their primary language although they can also speak Vietnamese. Very few speak English.

The problems of language and transportation will continue to be the main problems for the refugees for some time, officials agreed.

Sgt. Tom McCullough of the Pomona Police Department urged Martin to have at least one English speaking refugee available 24 hours per day at the apartment complex in case police or firemen are needed in an emergency.

Clarence Webb, director of community relations for the city, said that between 300 and 500 Vietnamese may be relocated in Pomona within weeks.

He said that city was surprised at the overnight appearance of this group, and hoped to be more prepared when more refugees arrive.

"We want to welcome these people and make their transition to life here easier. We don't want to see them victimized by anyone," he said.

Martin is also planning to move a number of Vietnamese into the La Fiesta Apartments on N. Garey Avenue — a group which will number over 100 persons.

A third group, under another sponsor, is expected to be resettled soon in an apartment complex on Angela Street in south Pomona within the near future.

That group totals about 10 families.

Officials, however, said they have not been contacted by the sponsor in two weeks.

Webb indicated that approximately 100 other Vietnamese have been living in Pomona for several weeks or longer, although these are in single family groups sponsored by local churches or families.

Dying man sells his radio to buy bikes for children

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP) — Chuck McCracken, weakened and closer to death since he stopped using his kidney dialysis machine, has sold his beloved ham radio to buy bicycles for his four children.

McCracken, 37, entered Loma Linda University Medical Center in a near coma Tuesday when his blood sugar dropped dangerously low. Besides kidney problems, he has diabetes, is blind and is partially paralyzed.

When he came home Thursday, a family friend said McCracken was feeling better.

"He's weak," said friend Jim Connely, "There's no question about that. But he wanted to be home with his family."

McCracken refused any further dialysis treatments after July 22, saying they were "sheer agony." Doctors then predicted he couldn't live this long without them.

On Friday doctors said his improvement was temporary.

McCracken's activities are greatly reduced, even in the last two weeks, Connely said. Until then, he regularly called a wide network of friends on his ham radio.

"The radio has been sold," Connely said. "He couldn't operate it any more."

With the money the radio brought, Connely said McCracken's wife Barbara bought bicycles for the couples' children, ages 7 to 14.

'The worst is coming' in Pennsylvania

Torrential rains force thousands to evacuate

National Guard called, heavy rains continue

By BILL AHEARN
Associated Press Writer

National Guard troops were mobilized in Pennsylvania on Friday and thousands of persons were evacuated from the central part of the state and southern New York as a stalled system of heavy rains caused dozens of rivers and smaller tributaries to overrun their banks.

Gov. Milton Shapp called up 1,000 members of the state's National Guard to help in the relocation of some 20,000 persons from homes in the lower central and northeastern areas of the state where five days of rain ended in the Susquehanna River basin, but officials said more major flooding could occur.

At least four persons were killed in storm-related accidents in Pennsylvania.

Although swollen streams and creeks were forced over their banks by more than a foot of rain, they began to recede throughout the stricken 21-county area. But Walter Nickelsberg, a hydrologist for the National Weather Service, warned that "the worst would come today" as the crest rolled down the Susquehanna.

The Susquehanna is expected to crest 8 to 12 feet above flood stage as it roars past Williamsport, Sunbury, Milton, Wilkes-Barre and Harrisburg.

Hardest hit were Tioga County bordering New York state, where 4,500 fled their homes, and Muncy, near Williamsport, where National Guardsmen evacuated half the town of 2,000.

Spawned by the remnants of Hurricane Eloise, it was the worst storm to pummel Pennsylvania since the destruction wrought by Tropical Storm Agnes in June 1972 when damage reached $3 billion.

Hundreds of persons fled the southern New York State counties of Chemung and Steuben in the face of rain-swollen rivers that threatened a 100-mile swath of the Southern Tier. A state of emergency was declared in Tioga County.

In New York City, a record wind-driven downpour hit the sodden metropolitan area Friday, posing the gravest flood threat in years and leading to mobilization of emergency equipment on a night-long basis. It was the eighth consecutive day of rain for the Big Apple.

Mayor Abraham D. Beame huddled with top aides at City Hall, mapping plans to cope with the crippling effects of the latest storm. The U.S. Weather service said 1.67 inches of rain was dumped on the city during the day, a record for the date. Sections of Queens, Staten Island and the suburbs had more than three inches.

Beginning a week ago, a total of nearly eight inches of rain fell on the city. Normal for the entire month of September is 3.27 inches.

Rail traffic in and out of the city was reported delayed with some service suspended on the Penn Central and the Long Island Railroad.

RFK ASSASSINATION GUN

The gun used by Sirhan B. Sirhan in the assassination of Robert F. Kennedy is fired down into a tank of water by Patrick Garland Friday. Garland, a member of a panel of firearms experts re-examining ballistics fired the gun in Los Angeles as part of a probe into the shooting.

Report says IRS official 'sabotaged' tax probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee was reported Friday to be investigating allegations that Internal Revenue Service Commissioner Donald Alexander sabotaged a massive tax evasion investigation.

A report by Clarence Jones of WPLG-TV in Miami broadcast on Post-Newsweek stations said the case involves more than 100 top executives in scores of major corporations across the country.

According to the Post-Newsweek report, IRS agents have evidence indicating the corporation executives hid hundreds of millions of dollars in the Bahamas to evade U.S. income taxes.

It also said the committee is looking into whether Alexander or his Cincinnati law firm had secret bank or trust accounts in the Bahamas that might have been used to evade taxes or to hide illegal campaign contributions.

Rep. Charles A. Vanik, D-Ohio, chairman of the committee's investigating subcommittee, confirmed the panel received some "unverified allegations" about Alexander and said they had been sent to "appropriate authorities" for checking. Congressional sources said the authorities included the Justice Department.

Meanwhile, the IRS issued a statement saying Alexander "categorically denied" the allegations.

According to the Post-Newsweek report, committee investigators have been told by IRS agents that the intelligence division of the IRS received a tip that a meeting was to take place between Alexander and a major securities swindler with ties to organized crime.

Weapons bill lets women in academies

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $30.9 billion weapons authorization bill, trimmed $250 million in a second House-Senate compromise, was passed by the Senate 63 to 7 Friday and sent to the White House.

The bill opens up the three military academies to women for the first time beginning next year.

The Senate rejected the first compromise by a 48-42 vote on Aug. 1 on protests by Chairman Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, and other members of the Senate Budget Committee that it exceeded congressional budget targets set in May.

Whittled by $250 million, the second compromise authorizes $25.5 billion for weapons research, development and procurement for the 12 months that began July 1 and $5.4 billion for the three-month transitional period to the start of the new federal fiscal year Oct. 1, 1976.

LAPD hears the law, must hire homosexuals

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Civil Service Commission ruled Friday that the police department must hire qualified homosexuals, but the department reiterated there is no place for them on the force.

"It's impossible for a homosexual to be a police officer," said police Cmdr. Pete Hagen.

Asked what the department's next step would be in view of the ruling, Hagen said, "We've come up with a solution — don't hire them." He added it was unlikely a homosexual would be able to complete the department's rigorous training.

The commission voted unanimously to approve the new police hiring standards on advice of the city attorney. They will go into effect immediately, said Personnel Department spokesman Robert Gandy.

The commission staff conceded homosexuals will be trying to function in a "hostile environment" and that the public may object but that, "Such considerations, standing alone, are insufficient to warrant disqualification."

Hagen said Police Chief Edward M. Davis is "unavailable for comment" but added the chief has many times issued four primary objections to hiring homosexuals:

—"The Los Angeles Police Department has an aggressive physical fitness program that could cause problems if a homosexual is attracted to another man. We also have locker room situations and showers which would be intolerable if there were homosexuals present.

—"Partners in black and white cars work together eight hours a day, five days a week, and particularly if you have to plan an attack there is always a question of which officer is going to do what." Asked if it were a matter of trust, Hagen said, "Yes."

—"What if the mother of a missing 6-year-old boy finds out that a homosexual officer has been assigned to look for her son. It would created grave problems.

—"And if a police officer gets a call on a sex offense, such as a homosexual offense in a city park, and if one of the officers is homosexual, he will not in our opinion be a 'good witness to the crime."

Boy rescued

A two-year-old Chino boy is in stable condition at Pomona Valley Community Hospital after being rescued from his backyard swimming pool at 12251 Olive St., Chino.

Darren Crutchfield was transferred from Chino General Hospital to Pomona Valley Friday shortly after the swimming pool incident reported to Chino Fire Department paramedics at 6:05 p.m.

4 killed in air crash

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO (AP) — A Marine C131 cargo plane crashed and burned minutes after takeoff Friday, killing four men and seriously injuring two others, a Marine spokesman said.

The spokesman, Capt. John Shotwell, said the twin-engine plane crashed eight miles from the El Toro Marine Air Corps Air Station where it took off.

Eyewitnesses said the plane unexplainedly began losing altitude, brushed a hill and crashed in a plowed field near Saddleback College and about 70 miles southeast of Los Angeles.

One survivor was listed in critical condition at the burn ward of the Orange County Medical Center. The second man, identified as Staff Sgt. Edgar Strain, 28, was taken in "guarded condition" to Mission Community Hospital where he underwent immediate surgery.

F. Lee Bailey, 'slayer of goliaths'

Famous lawyer to defend Hearst

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Patricia Hearst's lawyers announced Friday night that criminal lawyer F. Lee Bailey will assist in her defense.

Bailey visited Miss Hearst earlier in the day at the San Mateo County Jail where she is awaiting prosecution on bank robbery, kidnap and other charges.

Sheriff John R. McDonald said Bailey, with lawyers Terence Hallinan and John Knutson, met with the newspaper heiress for "a short time."

Hallinan and Knutson said later that Bailey will ask U.S. District Court Judge Oliver Carter on Tuesday for permission to join the case as cocounsel on Miss Hearst's behalf.

Bailey, a Bostonian whose name is often in the headlines, is a lawyer known for dramatic and aggressive trial tactics.

He has figured in a number of famous trials, including those of Army Capt. Ernest Medina, whom he successfully defended against My Lai atrocity charges, and Dr. Sam Shepherd, who won a new trial with Bailey's help.

Bailey's involvement in a 1970 air traffic controllers' strike prompted a psychiatrist working for the Federal Aviation Administration to say that Bailey's "role in life is to slay Goliaths."

Bailey himself has faced the power of a federal court, charged in Orlando, Fla., with Florida cosmetics multimillionaire Glenn W. Turner and four associates on a 28-count indictment. On Aug. 8, 1974 the judge dismissed the charges against Bailey.

No suspended sentences

Heroin pushers to be jailed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Edmund Brown Jr. signed legislation Friday mandating prison terms for convicted heroin pushers, saying the bill would show Californians "that we're serious about crime."

"I think it's fit punishment," Brown said during a press conference in which he also said he owned a shotgun and was skeptical of gun-control proposals.

"It may not fit into some sociological theory," the governor said of the heroin bill. "It may not fit into some rehabilitative approach. But it provides for simple justice."

The bill will prevent judges from granting probation or suspended sentences to persons convicted of selling or possessing for sale a half ounce or more of a substance containing heroin.

Sen. Alan Robbins, the Van Nuys Democrat who introduced the measure, appeared with Brown and said that 64 per cent of heroin pushers convicted in 1973 received probation.

Current law allows a judge to grant probation to a pusher who does not have a prior felony conviction involving narcotics.

The bill is the second mandatory sentencing measure signed by Brown this week. He has also signed a bill requiring prison terms for persons who use guns to commit certain serious crimes.

RFK son fined $50

WOODSTOCK, Va. (AP) — David A. Kennedy, 20-year-old son of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, was fined $50 by a county judge here Friday after pleading guilty to a charge of reckless driving.

Kennedy, who lives in McLean, Va., was arrested July 12 on Interstate 81 near New Market, Va., after State Trooper J. L. Heltzel clocked his Toyota auto at a high rate of speed.

Kennedy also was charged with failure to possess a Virginia driver's license and registration card, but these charges were dismissed by General District Court Judge Kermit Racey.

5 killed in Beirut

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Mortar and machine gun clashes erupted Friday night in the suburbs of Beirut despite a cease-fire, killing five persons and wounding 30, including three policemen, it was reported.

The exchanges occurred in the districts of Karantina, Ashrafieh, Nabaah, Sinel Fil, Furn el-Chebback and Ein Rummaneh, according to police reports. Downtown Beirut was reported quiet.

Earlier, shopkeepers returned to their stores to add up the damage from the sectarian street warfare but sniper fire drove most back to their homes.

The private armies of leftwing Moslem parties and rightwing Christians seemed in general to be abiding by a shaky cease-fire arranged by Premier Rashid Karami with help from Syrian Foreign Minister Abdul Halim Khaddam and Palestinian guerrilla chief Yasir Arafat.

Hunt brothers found innocent

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Two sons of the late billionaire oilman H.L. Hunt, Bunker and Herbert Hunt, were found innocent on Friday of federal wiretapping charges.

"I knew we would be exonerated once all the evidence was in," said Bunker Hunt, 49, after a U.S. District Court jury returned the verdict.

"It's been a long five years," commented his 46-year-old brother.

The pair was acquitted after less than two hours of deliberation by the nine-man, three-woman panel.

Two dozen members of the Hunt family surrounded the brothers in the courtroom and embraced them.

In a six-count indictment issued in 1972, the Dallas oil millionaires were accused of illegally tapping the telephones of several of their father's employes.

A conviction would have have carried a maximum penalty of 30 years in prison and a $60,000 fine.

"The defense was the truth," declared a smiling Hunt attorney after the aquittal was announced. "We never did deny ordering the wiretap."

House passes oil bill; Ford next

WASHINGTON (AP) — A compromise 50-day extension of oil price controls was overwhelmingly approved by Congress on Friday and sent to President Ford, who termed it "the last extension."

The measure restores the controls which ended Sept. 1, applying them retroactively to that time. It will remain in effect through Nov. 15.

Ford's signature on the measure is assured. It passed the Senate 75 to 5 and the House then approved it by a 342-16 vote.

Presidential Press Secretary Ron Nessen said that under the compromise, Ford will feel free to act administratively anytime after Nov. 1 to produce his own decontrol plan, subject to congressional veto, if no agreement has been worked out.

Spotlight on crime

Officer hurt, but nabs youth

An Ontario police officer was slightly injured in a foot pursuit from the scene of a burglary at the Bon View Recreation Center, 1010 S. Bon View Ave., Thursday but caught a suspect — a 15-year-old Ontario youth.

Police Officer Lou Holloman said he was called to the recreation center about 7:15 p.m. Thursday when an employe discovered a shed door had been pried open by burglars. Holloman found that the stolen items, including four sewing machines valued at $400 and three cases of empty pop bottles had been placed on the roof.

Holloman waited for the burglars to return to pick up their loot. He said three youths appeared and started to climb up on the roof and he went in foot pursuit.

Holloman caught up with the 15-year-old youth just as a skylight hatch fell from the ceiling, striking him on head. The officer managed to hang onto the youth, but the other two escaped.

Holloman was later treated at Ontario Community Hospital for a head laceration and released. The youth was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Tom Kahley thinks crime has gone too far when people start stealing American flags.

Kahley, who flies his flag every day from the trailer he lives in at 934 W. Holt Ave. in Pomona, put it up Thursday at 6:15 a.m. and by 9 a.m. someone had stolen it.

"It's not the value of the flag that bothers me," Kahley said, "it's only worth about $4. It's the principle of the thing. When people start stealing American flags, we're in trouble."

Kahley is an orthopedic technician at Pomona Valley Community Hospital.

Anti-busing bill passed by Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $36.2 million money bill carrying two provisions designed to block school busing ordered by the Health, Education and Welfare Department won Senate approval Friday on a 60-18 vote.

The anti-busing provisions would not affect busing ordered by the federal courts to end racial segregation. Most of the big busing programs now under way are court-ordered.

The final vote, after more than a week of bitter debate, centered largely on busing. The measure now goes to conference with the House.

The fate of the busing riders will be decided in conference, since the House version does not contain comparable provisions.

As it passed the Senate, the bill carrying funds for HEW and the Labor Department exceeds the House total by $300 million and President Ford's budget by $1.1 billion. Some Senators said this made it a likely veto target.

In the long series of votes on the busing issue, anti-busing forces showed greater strength than at any time in the Senate since the 1954 Supreme Court decision outlawing racial segregation in public schools.

Spokesmen for civil rights groups said that they did not consider the adoption of the two riders to be of great practical significance.

Quiet in Hearst search

9 months in jail, Garvey released

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Cynthia Garvey, who spent nine months in jail for refusing to answers questions of a grand jury investigating the Patricia Hearst case, was freed Friday.

She was ordered released because the grand jury was dismissed Thursday.

As she emerged from the San Francisco County jail, Miss Garvey, 24, of Oakland, refused to answer questions about Miss Hearst, who was apprehended last week by the FBI in San Francisco.

"I'm happy I'm out," she told reporters. "I've been in jail nine months. I've done my time. It wasn't easy but I'm glad I did it. I havn't seen fresh air or sun or nothing."

Miss Garvey was reported to have known several members of the Symbionese Liberation Army before they became active in the terrorist group. She had told newsmen that she knew nothing about the kidnaping of Miss Hearst or the SLA.

A self-service station —but not completely

When you pull into a service station soon to be constructed at 110 E. Foothill Blvd, Pomona, it had better be for gasoline.

The self-service fuel center will break from tradition by omitting public restrooms from its structure. In case of an emergency, however, patrons will be offered the use of the employes restroom.

The question of public restrooms came up Wednesday night when the Pomona Planning Commission was asked to approve a conditional use permit and also a variance to reduce the minimum floor area of the main building.

In defense of the omission, John J. Moller representing the USA Petroleum Corp., said most motorists using the self-service stations are in and out so quickly and don't stay long enough to use the facilities.

He also reported that restrooms at many service stations are not always in the best of condition. "We have a good inspection system and yet find it impossible to keep up with the damage the public can inflict."

In other stations where public restrooms have been deleted, there has been no demand for such facilities, he added. "We do not have it and they don't expect it."

But Planner John Nabarrete argued that public restrooms are a convenience to the traveling public. "This is a courtesy and is needed."

In support of the application, Planner Priscilla Hurd said she would be more concerned over the lack of public restrooms if this station was located close to a freeway.

But at this location it will be used by residents who live nearby. "I feel it would not be that difficult," she added.

The planners were unanimous in granting the use permit and variance.

HERE'S PIE IN YOUR EYE

Mrs. Jill Roberts, 419 Castle Hill Drive, Walnut, shows off her lemon pie which won her a blue ribbon and trophy as the best tasting pie in the senior division of "My Favorite Lemon Pie" at the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona. At right is Mrs. Nadine Lowrey, coordinator of the Home Arts Department at the fair. Cynthia Potter, 2461 N. San Jacinto, Claremont, placed second in the junior contest for best-tasting pies.

L.V. to greet Bicentennial wagon at community dinner

A community chuckwagon dinner is planned in La Verne to greet the Bicentennial Wagon Train which will go through the valley Oct. 8 on its way to Philadelphia.

The dinner will be held at Kuns Park in La Verne from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. under the auspices of the city's Bicentennial Committee.

Proceeds will go toward defraying the cost of a $20,000 copy of the Liberty Bell, the purchase of which was underwritten by the City Council. The bell was flown here from London three weeks ago and is now on display at the Los Angeles County Fair.

Entertainment for the evening will include performances by a barber shop quartet, a dance ensemble, and the Bonita Concert Band and a 40-minute presentation by the Bicentennial pilgrimage.

Mrs. Mary Buehler will have charge of the dinner which will include home cooked ham, home-baked bread, trimmings, cake and soft drinks. The cost will be $2.50 for adults and $1 for children under 12.

Tickets are available through the Chamber of Commerce, merchants of the city, PTAs, mobile home parks, and the Hillcrest Homes, according to R. G. Harris, chairman of the commiteee.

Birthday fete slated today for Rep. Lloyd

Some 300 friends of Rep. Jim Lloyd, D-35th Dist., are expected to attend a birthday salute today at the Western Hills Country Club in Carbon Canyon.

Co-chairman of the party are Sen. Ayala, Assemblyman Bill McVittie, D-65th Dist., and San Bernardino County Supervisor Robert Townsend.

Television personality Tom Frandsen will serve as the master-of-ceremonies. The program starts at 7 p.m. with a reception, followed at 8 p.m. with dinner.

Lloyd was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1974 and serves as secretary-treasurer of the California Democratic Delegation. He also serves on the Armed Services and Science and Technology committees.

Diabetes drive; it's eat, drink...pedal

The American Diabetes Association anticipates having between 16,000 and 20,000 participants in its second annual All Southern California Bike Ride Against Diabetes, on Oct. 5, according to Mrs. Ethel Corbett, chairman of the Pomona Valley Chapter.

John Woodall of Claremont, rider recruitment chairman for the area, said that 65 bike trails have been designated in Southern California, including the one in the valley.

The local route has been carefully selected with city police and street department advice, Mrs. Corbett said the route is the safest possible connection between participating McDonald's restaurants where sponsored riders will receive free food and soft drinks.

According to Woodall, sign-up sponsor sheets are available at many local schools, at bike shops and at all McDonald's restaurants. Once a rider has a sponsor sheet and signs up sponsors at any amount per mile he wishes, the rider need only show up at any one of the check points on Oct. 5. A minimum sponsorship total of 25 cents per mile is required to qualify for the free refreshments.

After the ride is completed, riders will collect pledges and present certificates to the sponsors. Pledge checks made out to the American Diabetes Association are tax deductible, Mrs. Corbett said.

All funds collected will be used to pay for research, education, service to diabetics and summer camp for diabetic children, the association announced.

Ontarian, 37, found dead

Mario Andres Vasquez, 37, of 1900 S. Campus Ave., Ontario, was found dead Thursday afternoon of what police said was an overdose of heroin.

Vasquez's body was discovered by a 12-year-old boy about 2:48 p.m. Police said on entering the apartment they found Vasquez's body in the bathroom next to a "hype kit" used to inject heroin. A fresh needle mark was found in his elbow.

Open house at Montessori

Claremont bars two banner bids

The Claremont City Council has stuck to its policy of not allowing banners to hang over Indian Hill Boulevard unless they advertise communitywide events.

Two weeks ago the council said that it would allow a banner advertising the Los Angeles County Fair to hang over the street at Memorial Park, but would deny any other requests.

Tuesday night the council twice denied banner requests, but stressed that it would wholeheartedly support both organizations.

Mrs. Pat Henry informed the council of an areawide Junior Woman's Club-sponsored Senior Citizens Information Fair at Taylor Hall and the Youth Activities Center in October, and asked permission for a banner, but the council denied her request.

A letter from the Claremont Symphony Orchestra requesting a banner be hung advertising concerts received sympathy, but the request was likewise turned down.

In other actions, the council:

—Approved the hiring of a parking enforcement officer part time for 20 hours a week to hand out traffic tickets for parking violations.

— Supported Dudley Cox in his appeal of an Architectural Commission denial of Cox's keeping an air conditioner on the side of his house at 230 W. 11th St.

— Received and filed a recommendation from the Traffic Safety Commission that a letter be sent to the county Road Department asking for funds to install joint Claremont-Pomona traffic signals at Harrison and Towne avenues.

The council at an adjourned meeting Wednesday afternoon set Nov. 4 at 7:30 p.m. for a protest hearing on Annexation 50-146 acres north of La Puerta School and west of Bonnie Brae Avenue.

Annexation 50 is designated as uninhabited territory because it contains less than 12 registered voters.

Protests by half the owners of private and public land would defeat the annexation.

The annexation contains land proposed for development by Armstrong Development Co. and Rosemount Estates.

Free lunches offered in Chino schools

A free lunch program is being offered this year in the Chino Unified School District.

Free meals, free milk and a reduced price policy for children unable to afford meals are offered under national lunch and special milk programs.

School officials have certain criteria for determining families which are eligible.

Applications may be submitted to the district any time during the school year, officials say. The forms are sent home to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school.

In certain cases, foster children are also eligible for these benefits. Further information may be obtained by calling 628-1201.

CHECKING IT OUT

Phil Kaufman, director of the New San Dimas-La Verne Open Door sifts through his referral file. Open Door, located at 575 Covina Blvd., San Dimas, will have an open house.

Open Door ready to open in S.D.

By MAE TATE
PB Staff Writer

The San Dimas-La Verne Open Door will do just that in special opening activities Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m.

The new facility in a commercial office complex at 575 Covina Blvd. in San Dimas is an extension of the service from the Open Door in La Verne. Both centers are geared toward helping young people solve problems through counseling, rap sessions and recreational activities.

Phil Kaufman, director of the San Dimas branch, reported that the new service is being offered through Senate Bill 714, state drug abuse legislation which provided $17,000; the Pomona Valley Juvenile Diversion Project which gave another $14,000; and the cities of both La Verne and San Dimas which contributed $5,000 each.

Kaufman pointed out that San Dimas youngsters previously had to travel to La Verne. The new office, located just east of San Dimas High School, is closer to them and will emphasize the "drop in" feature.

The facility will be open from 1 to 8 p.m. Mondays, 1 to 9 p.m. Tuesdays through Thursdays and 2 to 10 p.m. Fridays. Weekend hours will be scheduled later.

The drop-in will be mainly for recreational and social activities, Kaufman noted. A number of electronic games and amusement machines will be provided at minimal cost by William H. Prast, president of Digital Games Inc.

A table tennis tournament is already in the planning stage with champions from Our House in Claremont, Boys Republic Project Upstream, Kundalini Research Institute, North Side Teen Post in Pomona, South Hills Neighborhood Service Center, Open Choice, Pomona's South Side Teen Post, Pomona Boys Club, Upward Bound of the Claremont Colleges, Community Oriented Probation of La Verne, Pomona Y Outreach, Pomona Open Door, Kennedy Park Community Center, Reach Out West End — Residential, McKinely Home for Boys and Lark Ellen Home for Boys.

The center will serve as a meeting locale for a senior citizen program led by seniors. Kaufman also hopes that communication between young people and the elderly will improve because both generations will be in the same facility.

"Through new communications here, perhaps we can lessen fears and anxieties felt by older people toward the teenage generation," said Kaufman.

Alateen, counseling for teen-age alcoholics and children from families with alcoholism as a problem, and Alanon, a similar service for the entire family, are now offered at the La Verne office, and will also be implemented in San Dimas.

The San Dimas Open Door staff will work closely with school officials at Lone Hill Intermediate and Chaparral High schools with in-school counseling and counseling at the facility. San Dimas High School will also be covered.

Drug abuse counseling and alcoholism prevention will be part of the services offered.

Sgt. Mary-Ellen Kintzel of the San Dimas sheriff's substation will interact with both the young adults and Open Door staff.

Kaufman emphasized the importance of interaction between the young people and law enforcement agency. The juvenile officer must be looked upon as someone to turn to for information and help before the kid gets in trouble, he said.

The county Probation Department, parents and other interested community adults will also participate in the programs.

A 24-hour hot line — 593-8611 — will be manned seven days a week as a crises line for immediate service. The regular phone line is 599-7676.

More than 40 persons in the community have donated materials for the new center while about 12 have actually volunteered their time as carpenters, electricians and assorted handymen in getting the center in shape for its opening Sunday. Donations of additional furniture and equipment for the office, three counseling room and rap room are still being accepted.

Kaufman will be assisted by Sheila Smallberg, high school coordinator at the La Verne-San Dimas Open Door. He will also work closely with director Jim Talcott and Miss Sydney Puttnam of the La Verne center.

Applications will be taken later for three positions in San Dimas.

Kaufman, 22, has resided in the Pomona Valley for 16 years and is a psychology major at La Verne College. He hopes to graduate sometime this year.

Interested persons wishing additional information should contact Kaufman, 599-7676, or attend the opening ceremony Sunday.

Crash survivor inspiration for 'Six Million Dollar Man'

FALLON, Nev. (AP) — The "Six Million Dollar Man" is more than just another television series for Bruce Peterson.

He is the survivor of a spectacular crash of a space vehicle shown at the start of each segment of the show. Peterson narrowly escaped death in the 1967 accident, and he had to be partially reconstructed by teams of surgeons.

He inspired the show. But Peterson, 42, a former test pilot undergoing Marine Air Reserve training here, said his surgery didn't include atomic-powered limbs that makes actor Lee Majors the superhuman Steve Austin of "Six Million Dollar Man."

"I just got conventional surgery," Peterson said, laughing, in an interview.

His skull was fractured, his forehead literally scraped off, right eye partially blinded, teeth and one hand broken.

Plastic surgery to rebuild his face took more than a year and a half.

"I don't think it cost any $6 million to put me back together," he said. In fact, he doesn't know what the actual cost was. His employer now and at the time of the crash, National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), footed the bill.

Peterson was a test pilot for NASA's flight research center at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., at the time of the crash of the M2F2, a wingless, experimental space shuttle.

Now he is director of safety and quality assurance for the research center, and a reserve lieutenant colonel in the Marine Air Reserve.

He remembers little of the accident in which the shuttle went out of control, then slammed into the desert.

"About what is seen on the TV screens every week is what I remember," he said. "That partial footage was taken by the cockpit cameras. I blacked out about the same time the cameras stopped working.

"I was landing, fighting a cross wind which had sprung up when I saw a helicopter in my way. I tried to avoid it, and the landing gear caught in the dry lake bed — and right there I thought that was it.

"The next thing I vaguely remember is being trapped in the vehicle upside down."

After Peterson recovered, he continued to fly on a restricted basis for NASA until 1971, doing test work on fighter planes. He is considered in top physical shape by the Federal Aviation Agency and the Marine Corps, despite his damaged eye. He wears a patch over it.

His training here included piloting a Cobra attack helicopter.

Peterson has met the star of the television series just once when they had dinner together. While Peterson was the inspiration for "Six Million Dollar Man," he and Majors have little in common.

THE GOSPEL MELODIES

Family of singers to perform

The family singing group, "The Gospel Melodies," from Bell Gardens will sing Sunday at the 10:45 a.m. worship service of the Towne Avenue Church of the Nazarene in Pomona.

The group includes Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Cullen and their daughter, Crystal, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Cullen, accompanied by Robert Childers and Ron Grable on guitar and drums.

The Rev. Clyde W. Rather, pastor, will deliver a sermon entitled "Do You Know What Time It Is."

An evangelistic service will be held Sunday at 7 p.m. when Wayne Eaton will give a vocal solo and Mr. Rather's sermon topic will be "What Would You Say If You Only Had Five Minutes To Say It?"

15 million file as jobless

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Labor said today that 15 million persons filed job applications with public employment agencies in the year ending last June 30, but only 3.1 million found work that way.

The department reported a 13 per cent increase over the previous year in the number of persons seeking jobs through the agencies, but said 20 per cent less openings were filed during the period. Altogether, 7.9 million positions were offered.

Some 2,400 local employment services were operating in the 50 states and three territories during the period. More than 15 million persons filed new or renewed applications for jobs.

Navajo Indian women seek alimony laws

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. (AP) — Delegates to the Southwest Indian Women's Conference say it's about time the Navajo Tribal Council enacted laws requiring alimony payments to divorced wives.

"If we are going to be traded for a better model, we should at least make it worth our trouble," Gallup lawyer Alice Hull told the group.

Ms. Hull also said Navajo laws requiring child support for children of divorced parents should be enforced.

The suggestions were adopted Thursday, along with others, at the conclusion of the two-day conference, aimed at improving the quality of life for Indian women.

Officials said 500 persons attended the conference.

Navajo Tribal Councilwoman Dr. Annie Wauneka, a member of the President's Commission for International Women's Year and organizer of the conference, said, "This is the first time we Indian women have had a chance to get together and discuss our problems.

"We could have done it years ago. Now we have to get down and correct some of these problems."

Another speaker, Indian Health Service social worker Sophie Thompson, told the group that health care for elderly native Americans in New Mexico and Arizona is "grossly inadequate."

"Elderly get what's left over if anything is left over" after other projects are paid for, said Ms. Thompson.

Only one nursing home, she said, serves the 25,000-square-mile Navajo reservation, which touches New Mexico, Arizona and Utah.

When that home, in Chinle, Ariz., is filled, the "others must be sent off the reservation to we don't know where," she said.

The elderly population must be placed in a higher priority for action, she said. There are more than 10,000 Navajos who are over 65 years old, she said.

The women also adopted resolutions calling for "better and more realistic long term employment opportunities" and better facilities and programs for rehabilitation of juvenile offenders.

Pope 78, in good health

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI turned 78 on Friday and friends say he is in good health and that the sight of millions of Holy Year pilgrims has been like an "injection of new energy."

As usual, no formal birthday celebration is planned.

The pontiff proclaimed this the "year of reconciliation" for a Church troubled by internal dissent and controversy over papal authority and such issues as abortion and birth control.

The response to Paul's Holy Year call has surpassed his own expectations. Vatican officials estimated that more than 4 million persons have already made the pilgrimage with another 3 million expected by the end of the year.

Paul has always loved the sight of religious crowds. And he has done everything possible not to miss the chance to mingle with the throngs of pilgrims descending on Rome.

"The Holy Year has been a powerful injection of new energy for him," said Sergio Cardinal Pignedoli, a close friend of the Pope.

Another Vatican prelate held up a recent issue of an Italian magazine whose cover story said "the Holy year is killing the Pope" from fatigue. "All rubbish," the prelate said.

The pontiff's personal physician, Dr. Mario Fontana, always stands close to the Pope during the lengthy celebrations in St. Peter's Basilica and at other public appearances.

This Sunday, Pope Paul will declare Juan Macias, a Spanish friar who died 340 years ago, a saint. The ceremony will take place in St. Peter's Square, where two weeks ago the pontiff proclaimed Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton the first native-born saint of the United States. The canonizations are among the ceremonies Pope Paul performs most enthusiastically.

Except for recurrent pain from spinal arthrosis, Paul has stood up remarkably well during the seemingly endless Holy Year observances.

BIRTHDAY — Pope Paul VI celebrated his 78th birthday at the Vatican Friday.

Last year he suffered three attacks of flu and had to pare his Easter week schedule on the advice of doctors. But since he opened the Holy Year last Christmas Eve, he has not missed a single ceremony.

"Apart from his arthrosis he is in better than good health," one cardinal said. "His eyes are bright, especially in conversation. His conversation is lively. Strangely enough, contrary to a general impression, he is humorous. His speeches are not, but his conversation is light. He jokes easily."

Despite his apparent good health, there is still much talk about who will succeed Paul, whose reign began in 1963. The general trend seems in favor of another Italian. There has not been a non-Italian pontiff since the one-year reign of Holland's Adrian VI in 1522. The Pope is elected by cardinals meeting in a closed-door conclave.

"We talked bout it among bishops recently," said Joseph Cardinal Malula, of Kinshasa, the capital of Zaire, the former Congo. "We felt we still prefer another Italian rather than, say, a Frenchman or a German or an American. One more Italian would pose none of the political or national problems that someone from another nation might raise, especially with Africa's colonial past."

Pie-toss assassin faces a new trial

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — A 22-year-old University of Kansas senior faces a retrial on a charge of throwing a cream pie at a psychology professor.

After nearly four hours of deliberations, the jury foreman advised Judge James Paddock of the Douglas County District Court that the 12 members were "irreparably deadlocked" over the battery charge against James P. Dillard, self-confessed cofounder of the Brotherhood of Pie-Faced Assassins.

All but one of the jurors felt the 22-year-old senior from Springfield, Mo., was innocent.

A new trial date was set for Oct. 3 and Dillard remained free on a $500 bond.

On the opening day of the trial Wednesday, students carried signs protesting, "If pies were outlawed, only outlaws would have pies."

A small group of students wearing pie-tin "helmets" marched on Fraser Hall, where the attack took place. Signs read, "Walk Softly and Carry a Big Pie," "American as Apple Pie" and "You Can't Have Your Pie and Eat It, Too."

Dillard and another student advertised last spring they would cream anyone for $20 to promote fun and relieve end-of-semester tension.

One early attack was against Barkley Clark, mayor of Lawrence and associate dean of the KU law school. Clark caught a cream pie in the face while lecturing; he later expressed dismay it was not banana cream.

David Holmes, the psychology professor, saw the "hit man" before he could launch his pie during Holmes' psychology lecture.

The professor chased the pie assassin, nabbed him in a parking lot and pressed battery charges.

RENTZ GROUNDED

Hooton wins 12th on Garvey's HR

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Steve Garvey's two-run homer in the ninth—only the second hit of the game off J.R. Richard—pulled the Los Angeles Dodgers to a dramatic 3-2 victory over the Houston Astros.

Just minutes before, the Astros had taken a 2-1 lead in the top of the ninth on Cliff Johnson's two-run homer off Burt Hooton, 18-9. It was one of only five hits off Hooton as he won his 12th straight game, a Dodger record.

Garvey's single leading off the second inning was the only hit given up by Richard, 12-10, until the ninth. Willie Crawford walked before Garvey slammed his 18th homer of the season into the center field pavillion.

Hooton, working on a three-hitter going into the ninth, gave up a double to Cesar Cedeno before Johnson hit a 1-2 pitch into the left field pavilion at Dodger Stadium.

Until then, the only run in the game had been scored in the Los Angeles eighth on a sacrifice fly by Leron Lee. Ron Cey and Hector Cruz walked and were moved up on a sacrifice before Lee delivered his long fly ball.

Neither team mounted a serious scoring threat through the first seven innings.

Greg Gross led off for Houston in the first inning with a single to left and the other Astro hit came from Cliff Johnson with two out in the fourth. Milt May grounded out to end the inning.

Garvey led off the Dodger half of the second with a single but was forced at second and the threat died.

Ganesha has it rough

By JIM McCONNELL
PB Staff Writer

Opportunistic Santa Ana Valley High built up a 39-0 advantage and went on to defeat Ganesha 39-20 Friday night at Cal Poly's Kellogg Field.

A brief synopsis of the third quarter of the game will suffice to explain what happened to the Giants on a night they could do nothing right until the waning moments of the contest. Ganesha had the football for exactly four offensive plays in that third stanza, as follows:

—On the Giants first play of the second half from scrimmage, fullback Ron Rentz fumbled the pigskin on the Ganesha 30 and Valley's Mike Easley recovered. The Falcons promptly marched 30 yards for the score and a 26-0 lead at that point.

—Following the Valley kickoff, the Giants tried to get off the floor again, this time starting from their own 29. However, on the first play quarterback Joe Madrigal promptly coughed up the football and the Falcons recovered again. A brief 28-yard march to a TD gave the visitors a big 33-0 advantage.

—Again Santa Ana kicked off, and the demoralized Giants attempted to get going from the 38. Lavell Hunter ran for three yards off left tackle, but on the next play a Madrigal pass was picked off by Falcon Jim Hopper and returned back to the Ganesha 29. Valley, once again given great field position, ran it in for six points as time ran out in the third quarter, winding up that period with an overwhelming 39-0 lead.

The Giants finally came to life in the final quarter against the Valley second stringers. Madrigal, who wound up the night with 177 yards passing, began to move the Giants as they put up three TDs to make the final score respectable.

Rentz, atoning for his earlier fumble, scored the initial Giant TD on a five-yard run with eight minutes left in the game. His score had been set up by a fumble recovery by Ganesha's Gary Jordan.

The Giants clicked on an ensuing on-sides kick, taking possession again on the Valley 44. Madrigal passed to George Terry for 17 yards, Juan Moreno for 16 yards and Lewis Peters carried it in the final 11 for a six-pointer.

The final TD of the night came as Madrigal hit Moreno with a 38-yard scoring strike with a little over two mintues left in the game. That play was set up by a fumble recovery by Giant Mike Johnson.

Santa Ana took over and was finally able to run the clock out, although Falcon coach Dick Hill did not exactly win any fans on the Ganesha side of the field as he brought in his first-string offense to wind up the game.

The Giants would just as soon forget the first three quarters. Besides the third quarter nightmare, Valley had also dominated the first half in assuming a 20-0 lead.

Shawn Cole scored twice on short bursts and Tony Lynch ran one in from 21 yards to account for the three earlier Santa Ana Valley TDs.

On the game a fleet of no less than eight Valley rushers accounted for 263 yards on the ground in contrast to only 50 for the hosts. Lynch led those eight with 78 yards, followed closely by Cole with 71.

Madrigal did a fine job with his strong passing arm for the locals, but their vaunted rushing attack never seemed to get rolling. Rentz led the Giant ground gainers with 38 yards, but that was on only four carries. Peters gained 27 yards in 11 tries.

Moreno and Lloyd Jones both hauled in four passes for the Giants.

Ganesha, now 0-2 on the season, will be opening San Antonio League play next Friday vs. Garey at MSAC.

Damien romps in 42-12 victory

By CRAIG TRAVIS
PB Correspondent

A charged up Damien High ball club scored three third period touchdowns sparked by the running of halfback Ruben Lopez and a revamped but emotionally-high defense, in a 42-14 romp of Duarte Friday night.

The Spartans were somewhat stunned just before the half when the visiting Falcons tallied a pair of quick scores to pull to within a TD of the No. 17 ranked 3-A La Verne school.

Both starting linebackers, Gregg Elias (hip) and Mike Fraschetti (leg), and cornerback Bobby Alexander (ankle) were out because of injuries by intermission. Elias, who was last week's prep defensive player of the week, had five tackles before his departure.

With Coach Dick Larson shouting things like, "If you'll hold them off (to the defense), the offense will put it to them," at the outset of the second half, Damien regained the momentum.

In just 11 minutes, the Spartans had scored three touchdowns and had the starters give way to the second team for the remainder of the game.

Lopez sparked the 12 minute stanza with 73 of his 113 yards on just five carries. Damien tallied on its first possession of the second half as fullback Leo Burke bulled his way into the end zone from a yard out. His second TD of the night. The other was a three yarder in the second period. Rick Davis followed with fourth of five extra points.

Lopez was the major stock holder of the 71 yard drive with 55 yards in four totes, including bursts of 26 and 16 yards.

"If the line opens the holes for us we'll do it," said the big 5-8, 160-pound running back who netted 104 yards last week. "Our line really deserves the credit. Tom Callison (center), Bob Goodrich and Dave Rodricks (guards) and Dave Flores and John Martin (tackles) did a great job."

Linebacker Mike O'Neill, who replaced Elias, picked off an errant Keith Gibson aerial and returned it 24 yards for a score just 50 seconds after Burke's tally.

The Spartans hit paydirt the next time they had the ball, marching 58 yards on five plays with running back Dennis Gainey blasting his way into the end zone from eight yards out. Brian Sullivan added the PAT to give the hosts their final 28 point margin, 42-14.

The defense played stalwart ball in holding Duarte to just 7 yards rushing in the second half and eight yards passing. The defensive line of Brian Faust, Felix Delgadillo, Hugo Cargnelutti and Chris Barela brought down Falcon runners four times behind the line of scrimmage in the third period while defensive backs Mike Hunter, Davis, Jason Wight, Terry Allen, Lorenzo Hearns, and Mark Schlesinger checked Gibson to one completion in eight attempts, including thefts by O'Neill and Schlesinger.

O'Neill and Faust paced the line with eight tackles while Cargnelutti and Hunter had six stops each.

Damien broke on top 7-0 the first time it had the ball as Steve Gaston hauled in a seven-yard aerial from quarterback Joe Carroll for the score.

The Spartans scored again at the outset of the second period on Burke's three-yard romp. The key play in the drive was Davis' diving catch of a 20 yard completion.

Faust recovered a fumble midway through the stanza and the result a 24-yard scoring hookup from Carroll to Gaston on the next play.

Duarte went to the Wishbone and opened things up the final five minutes. Their wish came true as the Falcons scored on Beno Lee's 17-yard TD catch and Keith Jackson's 20-yard scoring catch.

Damien begins San Antonio League action by visiting Upland in a 7:30 p.m. game next Friday.

Fontana rally tops Pomona

By MARK GRIP
PB Correspondent

FONTANA — Fontana High running back Mike Fox connected with wide receiver Andy Snead for an eight-yard scoring pass in the third quarter for a 9-6 come-from-behind victory over visiting Pomona High Friday night.

The touchdown came with the Steelers down 6-3 at 4:53 of the third period.

Fontana took possession on the Devil 34 following a punt.

On the first play from scrimage, quarterback Les Waleszonia rushed for 25 yards to the Devil nine.

The score came, following a loss of two, two plays later. The run for two points, on a fake kick, was no good giving Fohi the victory, 9-6.

A tough Steeler defense held off two last-minute Devil drives. Fontana forced Hank Zibell to miss on a 22 yard field goal attempt with 4:27 left in the contest.

After Fontana had the ball four plays, it was forced to punt, with Pomona getting possession on the Steeler 42 with 2:14 remaining.

The Devils moved to the 33, but on first and 10 QB Mark Soto's pass was intercepted by defensive back Mark Dattillo, who returned the ball 39 yards to the Devil 36 with 21 seconds left.

The Steelers did not get off another play, letting the clock run out.

Fontana opened scoring in the first quarter on Mike Dragoon's 22 yard field goal at 6:55.

Pomona took a temporary lead with 10:34 left in the first half on fullback Zibell's one yard plunge. Zibell's conversion kick was wide right.

The Devils took a slight advantage in total offense, 253-230. Pomona also out-rushed Fontana, 208-162.

Zibell was the big Devil rusher with 130 yards on 30 carries. Charles Cole added 50 yards on eight carries and Harold Walker pitched in 29 first-half yards.

Waleszonia lead the Steeler rushers with 67 yards on seven totes.

Kevin Johnson passed for 45 yards, hitting on four-of-five passes.

Last year when the two teams met it was Fontana prevailing 14-6.

Pomona will open San Antonio League action with an 0-2 record and will visit Chino (2-0) next week.

Glendora holds 'Pack

By BRENT SHYER
PB Correspondent

An interception by Jim Jones late in the fourth quarter enabled the Glendora Tartans to hold on and beat the Claremont Wolfpack, 13-10, Friday night at Citrus College.

The Wolfpack had a second down and one yard to go from the 27-yard line when it elected to pass. Mike Davis' toss was picked off by Jones with 6:10 left on the clock.

The Tartans then used up valuable time before they had to punt the ball back to the 'Pack. Glendora's defensive unit then arose to the occasion and stopped the Claremonters once again.

A highly spirited Claremont squad gained a 3-0 lead, when Jim Van Zee booted a 48-yard field goal. Van Zee also averaged better than 43 yards per punt to help get the 'Pack out of trouble.

Glendora racked up 316 total yards, with their big ground-gainer being Steve Hunt who amassed 158 yards on 22 carries. The Tartans backfield was also led by Bob Corwin who pounded out 110 yards on 18 totes.

Glendora started their scoring drive from their own 34-yard line. A 29-yard scamper by Hunt got the drive going. The five-play drive culminated with a 26-yard touchdown hook-up between senior signal-caller Tom Reck and split end Frank O'Connell.

Jones added the extra-point to give Glendora a 7-3 margin. However, Claremont refused to fold to the heavily favored 4-A school, last week ranked seventh in the CIF 4-A poll.

Late in the second quarter, Claremont's defense forced a Tartan miscue, as Hunt coughed up the ball and the 'Pack recovered. Immediately, Claremont capitalized on the error, as Mike Davis lobbed a rainbow into the awaiting hands of receiver Brad Kirkendall. Although Kirkendall caught the TD pass he was shaken up on the play, due to a face-masking penalty.

The halftime score stood at 10-7, in favor of the hopeful 'Pack. Claremont, a 3-A team, had outplayed the 20-point favorites in the first half, yet to pull the upset they would need to continue their domination for the remainder of the game.

Glendora's stingy defense repeatedly denied Esper Kaiser's crew, as they shutout the squad for the half, allowing but 54 yards. Meanwhile, the Tartans offensive unit rallied for the winning tally.

Starting with excellent field position (from the Claremont 27) the Tartan used six rushes, the final one coming on Hunt's one-yard plunge for the score. The PAT failed due to a poor snap, giving Claremont hopes for a tie pending field goal position for Jim Van Zee.

However, with Claremont within field goal range on the Tartans' 27-yard line, the errant pass that went into Jones' arms spelled victory for Glendora, and a tough loss for the 'Pack.

Next week, Claremont will travel to Montclair to play the Cavaliers, in a contest starting at 7:30 p.m.

Four Cal Poly players injured in altercation

Four Cal Poly football players — three of them starters — were injured Thursday night in an altercation at their Pomona residence.

However, Coach Andy Vinci believes they will be able to play in tonight's home game against Northern Arizona but it won't be determined until the 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

Injured in the fracas were linebackers Rich Kluck and Terry Young plus offensive guards Randy Taylor and Mike Walsh. Walsh is the only non-starter.

According to Pomona police, the players were attacked by 10 to 12 men with tire irons, metal bars and wooden clubs at their 1365 Ballerina Ave. apartment.

Police said the incident was apparently an outgrowth of previous trouble with one of the suspects, an employee of a nearby market.

Three suspects were taken into custody.

Kluck and Walsh were treated at Pomona Valley Community Hospital and released while Taylor and Young were treated at the Cal Poly medical center.

Cowboys record second victory

By SANDRA WICKSTED
PB Correspondent

The Chino Cowboys won their second pre-season football game of the year, defeating Sierra Vista 27-7 Friday night at Chino High.

The Cowboys proved they had a good offense after sustaining a drive from the opening kickoff from their own 27-yard line to the Dons' 20 yard line. With a touchdown in sight the Cowboys failed to move against the tough defense of the Dons and lost the ball on downs to Sierra Vista.

Sierra Vista, having the ball on their 20, lost possession on the first pass attempt when Cowboy John Labrucherie intercepted it on their 20 yard line. The Cowboys pushed the ball down to the Dons' 1 and Hobbs carried it in for a touchdown. Edwin Marquez kicked the PAT with 3:38 remaining in the first quarter.

Sierra Vista scored their only touchdown in the second quarter after working the ball 80 yards down the field. Keith Smith ran the ball for an eight yard touchdown. Art Hernandez kicked the extra point to tie the score 7-7.

The Cowboys then took possession of the ball and proceeded to rack up another score as Rick Riedel carried the ball for 26 yards. The PAT was good by Marquez, making the score 14-7.

The Dons managed to hold the Cowboys in the third quarter only to watch them break away in the fourth.

With 11 minutes left in the game, Larry Trujillo put Chino on the score board for six more points with a 1 yard run. The kick by Marquez failed.

The Cowboys, apparently not satisfied with their 20-7 lead, carried the ball to Sierra Vista's 30 yd. line where Riedel took it in for the touchdown of the night.

The extra point was good for Marquez, leaving the final score Chino 27, Sierra Vista 7.

Bosox near East crown

BOSTON (AP) — Reggie Cleveland followed Luis Tiant's four-hit shutout with a five-hitter of his own Friday night as the Boston Red Sox swept a doubleheader from the Cleveland Indians by two 4-0 scores and moved within two games of the American League East Division championship.

The 35-year-old Tiant fired his second shutout of the season and the 37th of his major league career in the opener. With Baltimore rained out of a doubleheader with the New York Yankees, the Red Sox pulled 4½ games ahead of the Orioles while lowering to two their magic number.

Boston can nail down the division title and a berth in the AL playoffs against Oakland with a victory over Cleveland today coupled with a single Baltimore loss in a scheduled doubleheader with the Yankees.

Tiant, who has been plagued by back trouble, posted his 18th victory against 14 defeats in baffling the Indians in the first game. He struck out four and walked just one.

Cleveland, a right-hander acquired from the St. Louis Cardinals, hiked his record to 13-9, including a 10-3 mark since July 6.

Boston's Carlton Fisk, who had two doubles and a triple in the first game, extended his hitting streak to 15 games and scored the only run Cleveland needed in the windup.

In the first game, Fred Lynn's sacrifice fly and Fisk's line double sent Boston to a 2-0 first-inning lead. Cecil Cooper made it 3-0 with his 14th homer in the fourth before Boston added an insurance run in the eighth.

Oklahoma holds on

MIAMI (AP) — Mighty Oklahoma turned to its defense to set up touchdown runs by Joe Washington and Elvis Peacock and had to hold off the University of Miami in the fourth quarter Friday night to salvage a 20-17 football victory.

The top-ranked Sooners, unbeaten in their last 32 games, fell behind 7-0 in the first quarter, but struck for all 20 of their points in the second period. Then Oklahoma barely survived Miami's inspired fourth-quarter rally, which included a 72-yard pass play.

The Hurricanes, rated underdogs by as much as 33 points, saw their last hope die with three minutes to play when quarterback Kary Baker fumbled on his own 45, surrendering the ball to the Sooners.

Oklahoma was stunned 7-0 in the first period when Miami marched seemingly without effort 74 yards for a touchdown on its first possession.

Baker ran 22 yards and passed 19 yards to tight end Charlie Claud to set up Larry Cain's 19-yard scoring scamper around right end.

Rams say no to contract

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)— The Los Angeles Rams voted by a unanimous 45-0 count to reject the latest contract offer of the National Football League.

Defensive end Jack Youngblood, the Rams' player representative, announced the vote Friday but said there was no discussion of a strike.

"Not yet," he said of any strike vote. "Right now we are just looking ahead to our game at San Francisco on Sunday.

"On the contract, we are waiting to see how things develop."

Rams say no to contract

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)— The Los Angeles Rams voted by a unanimous 45-0 count to reject the latest contract offer of the National Football League.

Defensive end Jack Youngblood, the Rams' player representative, announced the vote Friday but said there was no discussion of a strike.

"Not yet," he said of any strike vote. "Right now we are just looking ahead to our game at San Francisco on Sunday.

"On the contract, we are waiting to see how things develop."

Webster leads Garey

By DOUG SPOON
PB Correspondent

RIVERSIDE — The Garey High Vikings jumped out to a 22-0 halftime lead on three long touchdown runs by halfback Stanley Webster en route to a 22-8 victory over La Sierra here Friday night.

Webster, a senior and captain of the Garey squad, scored on scrambling runs of 63, 73, and 83 yards to put the Vikings out in front for good. By the end of the contest Webster had gained 281 yards on 17 carries.

The Vikings had possession of the football for only 12 plays during the first period but they managed to score twice, once on their third play of the game and again with 55 seconds remaining in the quarter. Webster scored his third touchdown of the game with 2:10 left in the half, going all the way from his own 17-yard line into the endzone.

La Sierra's offense was continually forced to turn the ball over to the opposition, as a result of many incomplete passes and unsuccessful runs. Eagle quarterback John Swierczek connected on only two of 12 passes, for 33 yards. Punter Manuel Parra had a busy evening for the Eagles, booting the ball a total of ten times after his team failed to convert on third-down situations.

Quarterback Milton Banks of the Vikings attempted only five passes in the game, completing one for seven yards. Banks threw two interceptions but was not hurt by them and he was content to give the ball to Webster whenever crucial yardage was needed.

Swierczek played three-quarters of the game for La Sierra before he was relieved by Mark Flowers. However, Flowers tried the same number of passes in one quarter that Swierczek attempted in three — but with no more success. Flowers hit on two passes in 12 tries for one yard.

Four La Sierra runners contributed to a well-balanced but subdues rushing attack. Junior fullback Paul Gonzales gained 29 yards on seven carries, senior Dan Mason earned 36 yards on nine carries, and Robert Schwandt and Skip Garton chipped in with 26 and 25 yards, respectively.

Garey earned four first downs, all via the run, on the way to its first victory of the young season. Eagles are still in search of their first win, having lost to Notre Dame High last week, 13-7.
week, 13-7.

Except for the outstanding performance of Webster, neither team showed much of a sustained offense at any time in the game. La Sierra did manage to move the ball down to the Garey 7-yard line in the final minute of the game, but Flowers failed to connect on four pass attempts and time ran out on the Eagles.

Scots roll past Braves

By GRAHAM CROW
PB Correspondent

The third time was indeed a charm — at least for Upland High School football coach Bob Holycross.

Holycross was able to watch his Highlanders roll to a convincing 27-6 victory over visiting Alta Loma Friday night, making it the first time he has defeated rival Tom Cook in three years of trying.

Upland, which must be rated a solid contender in the always close San Antonio League, dominated the game in every way, scoring the first three times it touched the ball.

After stifling the punchless Brave offense, Upland received the ball on the Alta Loma 20-yard line when Brave center Wayne Box snapped the ball way over the head of punter Mike Coryell on a fourth down punt.

Attempting to scramble away, Coryell threw the ball up for grabs with Mike Rees claiming it for the Scots. On first down, speedster Mark Chapman, breaking two tackles at the line of scrimmage, danced into the end zone with Dave Stephenson adding the extra point.

The next two series for Upland were more of the same with the strong Highlander ground game continually chewing up the Alta Loma defense.

Rees got the next two scores on plunges of one and two yards, culminating drives which covered 47 and 73 yards. Stephenson was one for two on these extra points.

A Highlander mistake led to the only Alta Loma points as Paul Lindsey's fumble was gathered up on the Upland 13 with Steve Robinson getting the score after three successive carries.

Probably the most pleasing aspect of the victory for Holycross, following losses the past two years of 8-7 and 40-7, was the play of quarterback Bob Dalquest.

The senior signal caller, not expected to be a starter at the beginning of the season, did an excellent job of directing the team and completed five of eight passes in the first half for 93 yards.

Scott Haugann was the main target throughout as he collected three passes for 77 yards. For the game, Dalquest ended up seven for 12 with Rees also catching three.

Chapman, the leading ball carrier in the game with 130 yards on 15 carries, scored the final touchdown of the game with a 28 yard dash around left end in the third quarter.

Alta Loma, which netted only 80 yards total offense last week in scoring but one touchdown against Montclair, did slightly better with 122 total yards but only 11 through the air as the Brave aerial attack completed one of nine with three interceptions, two by Rees.

Upland netted 327 yards in all with 198 on the ground and 129 through the air. Almost outgaining both sides were the officials who walked off 137 yards on 20 different infractions.

Both schools enter league play next Friday with Alta Loma meeting Ontario at Chaffey High School in Hacienda action while Upland faces rugged Damien on the Highlander home field. The Scots edged the Spartans last year in a wild one, 34-28.

Cutbirth leads Jags over Cavs

Ontario High's quarterback Larry Cutbirth passed for two touchdowns in pacing his squad to an upset 19-0 win over Montclair Friday night in a game played at Chaffey High.

Cutbirth threw only four passes on the night, but two of them went the distance in the first quarter as the Jaguars struck quickly.

The Ontario QB hit tight end Carl Hemby with a 28-yard scoring aerial to complete a 43-yard scoring drive by the Jags the first time they had the ball.

The second score came later in the initial quarter as Cutbirth came back to click with Freddy Vigil on a 32-yard pass for a TD.

The Ontario defense, staked to that quick 13-0 lead, held off Montclair the rest of the way to register the shutout. The win evened the Jag record on the young season at 1-1, while that is also Montclair's mark after Friday's loss.

The final Ontario score came in the third quarter, as halfback Gus Lopez raced 19 yards to paydirt. That drive was set up by defensive back Bill Haselrig's interception.

For the Cavaliers, the closest they came to a score was inside the Ontario 10-yard line, which happened on two occasions. Both times the Ontario defense rose to the challenge to stop the Cavs and preserve the shutout.

For the game, Cutbirth wound up as the leading rusher for both sides with 83 yards to go with his 60 yards passing.

Montclair's Jim Donaldson was held to 65 yards rushing.

The Knights rolled up 275 total yards while holding the Gauls to 142.

Ken te Velde, Mike Siegersma and Pete Verhoeven scored the Ontario Christian touchdowns.

In a key play, quarterback John Vander Schaas recovered his own fumble and ran 43 yards.

Angels fall in Oakland

OAKLAND (AP) — Billy Williams singled home a first-inning run and doubled to open a two-run fourth, helping the Oakland A's to a 4-2 victory over the California Angels Friday night.

Dick Bosman, 11-6, pitched the first five innings before Oakland Manager Alvin Dark went to his bullpen.

Rowland stymied by Walnut defense

By REED SIMON
PB Correspondent

Rowland High was hard pressed for points in Friday night's game against Walnut at Nogales High.

Coach Ken Gunn of Walnut has been talking a lot about his defensive team lately, and he will have more to talk about now that his team has held Rowland to seven points in a hard-fought 13-7 defensive struggle.

In the opening kickoff, Walnut kicked to Rowland's Ken Wilson who ran for a 80-yard touchdown. Penalty was called against Rowland (clipping) and the ball was brought back.

Before Rowland could get anywhere, it fumbled the ball and Walnut recovered. At times it seemed like the only way the ball changed hands was through fumbles. There were a lot of them. Walnut fumbled three times to the Raiders, whereas Rowland fumbled once to Walnut.

In the first quarter, quarterback Kevin Loggins of Walnut completed one pass for five yards while Keith McDermott and Kevin Morgan were eating up yards.

Rowland, led by senior John Cain, was being relatively held back. Rowland was playing near their optimum, making few if any mistakes but the Walnut defense was too much for them.

Dan Reed the 5-foot-10 198-pound Walnut senior was carried off the field on a stretcher. Things were looking bad for the Mustangs until Loggins hit Steve Walsh for a 13-yard touchdown with eight minutes and two seconds left in the half.

Rowland went to the air. Ray Baiza completed three out of four passes to Ron Goldman for 43 yards. Goldman then caught a six yard touchdown pass. Rowland kicked off to the Mustangs but retained possession of the ball. Baiza Goldman pass combination was good for another 13 yards. With the score tied at 7-7 the Raiders attempted a 28 yard field goal. It was short.

In third down play, the Mustangs sharpened their passing skills. Loggins passing with Creg Fenwicks running was enough to get the Mustangs to the one-yard line. Morgan had the distinction of running the ball in.

The kick failed. It looked as if this would hurt Walnut. Rowland was a long way from being out of the game. Rich Fisher proved it by gobbling up yards. Rowland looked good on the field; but again it was the Walnut defense that stopped the Raiders from doing any real harm.

Alex Solorzano was the key defensive player for Walnut. Solorzano, 6-1 212 pounds, made sure that anyone intending to get by him would have to resort to some kind of fancy footwork. Baiza especially took some losses at the hands of the junior linebacker.

Terry Waska was instrumental for the Raider defense. He had help from Rich Fisher. Fisher ran over Walnut's Steve Headley, and sent him out of the game limping in the fourth quarter. In general, the overall size of the Raider squad was bigger than the average size of the Mustang team.

Three teams favor contract

By The Associated Press

The Dallas Cowboys and Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh Steelers became the second and third teams Friday to vote in favor of the National Football League owners' latest contract offer—but six more clubs joined in the already overwhelming rejection of the proposal.

The Cowboys voted 20-14 in favor of the four-year offer produced by the owners last Monday in Chicago. And the Steelers voted 27-4 for it. They joined the Cincinnati Bengals, who voted 27-16 Thursday in favor of the pact.

"Our primary concern is to get this thing settled and get back to playing football," said Pittsburgh player representative Rocky Bleier. "We realize the economic situation in our country and in professional football and we feel the offer presented by management is one we can both live with."

The six teams joining the 16 which had voted Wednesday or Thursday to reject were: the Baltimore Colts, 42-1; the Denver Broncos, 45-0; the Los Angeles Rams, 45-0; the Minnesota Vikings, 43-0; the New York Jets, 22-5, and the San Diego Chargers.

Minutemen enjoy win

American Christian Academy enjoyed its first football victory of its existence Friday night by defeating Calvary Baptist, 46-12, at John Galvin Park.

Quarterback Dave Williams and fullback Bill Mayberry scored two touchdowns apiece to lead the Minutemen to their victory. Other American Christian TDs were scored by Jimmy Keith, Rick Sherman and Greg Hammond. Williams threw two touchdowns.

Lineman Blaine Hammond had 11 tackles to lead the Minutemen on defense.

Bonita mistakes lead to 46-2 loss

By MIKE BROSSART
PB Correspondent

Mistake-plagued Bonita High was walloped, 46-2, by the Azusa Aztecs in the Bearcats' home opener Friday night.

Azusa, which fell victim to Harold Drake, Brad Frick and company, 23-9, in last year's game between the same two clubs, was unstoppable on both offense and defense Friday, as the Aztecs rolled up 496 total yards to the Bearcats' 132.

Bonita began the game on a high note when Dave Pearson pounced on an Aztec fumble to end Azusa's first possession.

But after tailback Bob Vidaure and fullback Scott Johnson churned out a first down to put the ball at midfield, Bonita quarterback Sanford Coggins turned to make a hand off and found no one there. He fumbled the ball back to the Bearcats' 38-yard line, where Aztec linebacker Bill Wile scooped it up and ran to the end zone unmolested. Jeff Calhoun's extra point attempt was blocked, leaving the score at 6-0.

On Bonita's second play from scrimmage after the ensuing kickoff, Coggins threw a pass into the arms of Aztec cornerback Anthony Ochoa. Azusa then drove 34 yards in seven plays, culminated by quarterback Rich Nyden's 13-yard end run for six points. Calhoun's kick was blocked again.

The visitors scored three TDs through the air in the second quarter for a 32-0 halftime lead. Nyden hit Wile with a 73-yard score and, on his very next toss, combined with split end David Murrillo for a 91-yard touchdown.

With four seconds left in the half, reserve Aztec quarterback Leonard Pedroza tossed a 20-yard score to George Gomez.

A third-quarter safety was the only thing that kept the Bearcats from being shut out for the second straight week.

Two plays after Bonita punter David Drury booted the ball out of bounds at the Azusa eight-yard line, Pedroza pitched back to Wile at the tailback position. Wile couldn't handle the throw and had to chase it into the end zone, where Keith Knight pounced on him for two points.

Azusa scored twice after that, on a short pass from Nyden and a run short run by Pedroza.

The Aztecs earned 20 first downs to just five by Bonita, and ran 70 offensive plays to the Bearcats' 47. Coggins completed two of 14 passes for 37 yards, while Johnson led Bonita's runners with 66 yards on 11 carries.

Nyden passed for 215 yards for the winners.

Bonita will still be looking for its first touchdown of the season in next Saturday's afternoon game against San Dimas at Mt. San Antonio College. It will be the opening Hacienda League game for both teams.

Just before the end of the game police reported a fight broke out in the school parking lot involving a number of youths.

Police from Glendora and Claremont had to be called in to assist La Verne police in quelling the melee.

It was not immediately known if anyone was seriously injured or what caused the disturbance. No arrests were made.

N.A.U. will provide Poly stiffest test

By BILL LANGLEY
PB Sports Editor

Cal Poly football fans will get a better idea just how good the Broncos really are here tonight when Northern Arizona visits Kellogg Field in a 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

There is no question Northern Arizona should provide the Broncos their stiffest test of the young season. NAU should also provide a clue about Poly's title hopes in the California Collegiate Athletic Association.

The visitors from the Big Sky Conference opened their season by defeating UC Riverside, the defending CCAA champions, 34-30.

Poly Coach Andy Vinci knows his team should have a much tougher time tonight than in the first two games which turned out to be easy victories.

"This will be our most difficult test so far this season," Vinci says. "Northern Arizona is the biggest team up front and the tastest we have met."

The Lumberjacks are bringing an 1-1 season record after losing to Idaho, 22-12, last week.

Poly (2-0) is trying to overcome a pair of jinxes dating back to 1962.

The Broncs haven't won their first three games in a season since 1962 and their last victory over Northern Arizona was recorded that year.

Tonight's contest renews an 11-game series which was discontinued in 1969 after NAU recorded a 38-7 win to take a 7-3-1 edge in the rivalry. Poly will return the favor by travelling to Flagstaff next year.

Vinci's team will get its first look at a Wishbone offense in his two seasons at Poly.

"Northern Arizona has a good conception of offensive football and has two excellent runners in its Wishbone formation," Vinci said. "Contrary to most Wishbone teams, NAU likes to run outside."

Coach Joe Salem, who built a top-notch program in nine years at the University of South Dakota, is rebuilding the Lumberjacks' football program in his first season in Flagstaff. He had a good recruiting year and has done a masterful job in public relations with last week's game against Idaho attracting a record crowd of 10,000.

Salem has almost a new team to work with. Only three offensive starters and five on defense return from last year's 3-6 club.

Robbie Schmitz, a transfer from El Camino College, will open at quarterback. The top runners are Chris Mangold from Rice University and Al DeGrate from Phoenix College. Fullback Jerry Wallace is the only returnee in the backfield.

In its first two games, NAU is averaging 281 yards on offense while allowing 355. Mangold is the top threat with 181 yards on 33 carries with DeGrate close behind with 156 on 30.

The Lumberjacks haven't shown much in the passing department. Schmitz has completed only 13 of 33 attempts for 163 yards.

Thanks to back-to-back 38-3 and 41-17 victories, Poly's statistics are overwhelming.

The Broncs are averaging 494.5 offensive yards per game while allowing only 208. NAU will provide a strong threat to the rushing defense average of only 63 yards a game.

Vinci said he will start the same lineup tonight with the exception of safety Ron Stewart, who has been handicapped by an injury, moving back into his normal spot.

Poly's backfield will consist of quarterback Leo Costa, tailbacks Mark Sanders and Aundre Holmes, fullback Brent Partridge and wide receiver Teddy Myles.

Costa has completed 64.3 per cent of his passes in connecting on 18 of 28 for 313 yards three touchdowns. Myles has been the chief target with 12 receptions for 199 yards.

Mark Sanders tops the rushers with 180 yards and four TDs in 31 carries. He is averaging 5.9 yards a try.

MSAC makes home debut with Rustlers

By MIKE RAWLINSON
P-B Staff Writer

Mt. San Antonio College may have a few surprises tonight when it hosts Golden West in its 1975 home football debut at Memorial Stadium in Walnut at 7:30 p.m.

Coach Mal Eaton's Mounties are gunning for their first victory of the year after two losses to top ranked teams — Citrus and Pasadena. Golden West, highly touted in pre season polls, has lost twice also.

"Don't be fooled by that," said Eaton. "Golden West is a good, solid, hard nosed football team. Don't forget, they've lost to last year's state champion (East (L.A., 17-13) and to the team favored to win the South Coast Conference title (Orange Coast, 31-14)."

The Mounties have been in against two tough opponents also and Eaton is confident they have learned by their mistakes.

With that in mind Eaton plans to add a few wrinkles to his offense which he isn't divulging until game time.

Chaffey College is in much the same situation as MSAC tonight when it opens it its home schedule at 7:30 against Imperial Valley. Coach Willie Richardson's Panthers were thumped hard by Santa Barbara last weekend, 51-8.

Unbeaten Citrus College (2-0) has a bye this week in preparation for next Saturday's battle with highly regarded Rio Hondo.

In MSAC's favor tonight is its proven ability to throw the ball in two games and Golden West's vulnerability through the air.

Freshman quarterback Flavio Garcia, who has been the most effective passer in two games by completing 18 of 25 for 204 yards, has earned the starting role.

Garcia's receivers will be flanker John Ochoa and split end Tom Peterssen who have each caught seven passes this season. At tight end will be Don Warren, who has started in both games. His backup is converted quarterback Kurt Porter who caught three passes last week for 53 yards.

Steve Benton, younger brother of running back Binky, will also see plenty of action at wide receiver. He has caught five passes in two games.

Behind Garcia, Eaton may run Binky Benton with his high school running mate Mike Hill in a prototype offense which allows the Mounties more versatility than the I-formation they have used frequently.

Undeterred, Coach Willie Richardson still thinks his Panthers will develop into a sound football team.

Golden West's main weapon will be the running of Mark Davis, who has gained 100 yards in each of the Rustlers' losses.

The Mounties may have difficulty with Golden West's defensive line which is anchored by a pair of 225-pound tackles, Mark Nichols and Mike Madden.

Stimac eyes golf crown

CARMEL, Calif. (AP) — Steve Stimac, whose last chance to win a big golf tournament was ruined by current professional star Forrest Fezler, faced fellow northern Californian Bill Colm today in the finals of the U.S. Seniors Championship.

"I lost to Fezler in the finals of the 1969 California Amateur," the 60-year-old Stimac from Walnut Creek recalled Friday, "and I also lost to Gene Littler and Johnny Miller in that tournament some years earlier."

Stimac edged another John Miller, from Edina, Minn., 2-up in Friday's semifinals over the par-71 Carmel Valley course.

Colm, also 60, won the 1973 World Seniors title. He pulled out Friday's victory by winning the last three holes, while Stimac had to win the last two holes of play to beat Miller.

Purdue, USC in rematch

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Purdue's Boilermakers return to the Los Angeles area today amid an aura of a gamble that won for them and lost for the University of Southern California.

They also invade the province of an alumnus who can't be at all happy with the Purdue image.

In the Rose Bowl game of 1967, the only time the two clubs have previously met, the Trojans of USC gambled on a two-point conversion and missed to lose 14-13.

And when he came out of the service after World War II, John McKay went to Purdue to play basketball and football. He quit after a year and switched to Oregon where he became an assistant before joining the USC staff.

McKay gambles on those conversion tries and last Jan. 1 he was successful as Pat Haden passed to Shelton Diggs for the two points that beat Ohio State 18-17.

Now, as the teams prepare for the 1:30 p.m. PDT kickoff in Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Trojans are favored by 21 points. USC has beaten Duke and Oregon State. Purdue has lost to Northwestern and Notre Dame.

Still McKay worries.

"Two of the very best teams we'll play defensively are Purdue and Notre Dame," the former Purdue athlete explains. "Their Ken Novak could be the first pick in the professional draft.

"Purdue has excellent talent physically. The secondary has extreme speed, the running backs are fast. It's a strong Big Ten team."

McKay has one problem in his offensive backfield. A broken leg last week put senior fullback Dave Farmer out for the season.

Sophomore Mosi Tatupu from Hawaii, a 225-pounder, takes over in the I formation. But his replacement could be Ricky Bell.

Which cause some concern in the running. Bell, operating at tailback this season, has gained 471 yards in his first two games—the fastest start ever for a Pac-8 running back.

Ricky was a fullback last season and McKay figures he might have to do double duty against Purdue should Tatupu not be able to go all the way. Kurt Hollmer, the current No. 2 fullback, weighs just 182 which would be very light for the blocking required in the USC "I" formation.

Purdue coach Alex Agase plans to start senior Craig Nagel at quarterback against the Trojans. A 6-foot-3, 191-pounder from Fairfield, Ohio.

He came in as a substitute and hasn't been a starter before, but Agase feels the lanky signal caller can come up with the big plays necessary against the stout USC defense.

Sagehens unveil QB; Leopards, Stags travel

By DON BRADLEY
PB Staff Writter

Lyle Lansdell makes his debut tonight as Larry Cenotto's successor at Pomona-Pitzer.

The Sagehens, along with Claremont-Mudd and Occidental, will be playing their opening game as all SCOAC teams are in action for the first time in the 1975 football season.

Pomona-Pitzer hosts USIU, 0-1, (7:30 p.m., Alumni Field); Claremont-Mudd is up at Morago to play St. Mary's, 0-3, (1:30 p.m.) and Oxy visits Azusa Pacific's Hillside Campus (also 1:30 p.m.).

Meanwhile, La Verne, and Whittier each play their second games of the season. Redlands plays its third.

The Leos (1-0) are at University of San Diego (USD) tonight (7:30 p.m.). Redlands (2-0) visits tough Cal Lutheran (1-0) at Thousand Oaks (1:30 p.m.). Whittier (0-1) takes on UC Riverside tonight (7:30 p.m.).

At Pomona's Alumni Field, Lansdell has a big pair of shoes to fill Cenotto holds all the school passing records and nation in a couple of categories last year. He was a first-team selection on the Kodak Coaches' All-American team.

Lansdell, a 6-1, 185-pound sophomore, is the same size as Cenotto. But there the similarity ends. He's a lefthander.

"Cenotto did a great job for us," said coach Walt Ambord. But Lansdell actually throws a little harder than Larry and he is probably the best fundamentally trained quarterback I've ever had.

"The thing is, he's untested. I think he has comparable ability to Cenotto in calling signals, leading the team and as a passer. But he has to do it under pressure in a game."

The receivers are new too. Biff Sherman graduated and Joe Budenholzer is in an eastern college as part of an exchange program.

Todd Wyatt, a 6-0, 170-pound senior, Elliot Peters, a 5-7, 140-pound sophomore and another sophomore, 5-10, 165-pound Dick Richardson, are the wide receivers.

John Buzzard, 6-1, 190, is at tight end.

Tim Short, 6-0, 180-pounds, is the only returnee starting in the backfield. Levi Henry, a 6-0, 180-pound transfer from USC, is the newcomer.

"We may have our best running backfield in a few years," said Ambord. "Short was one of the best in the conference by the end of last season. In the short time I've seen Henry, he looks like he'll be outstanding."

As usual, it'll be an uphill battle for the 'Hens. USIU, despite only a 33-man roster, gave Redlands all it could handle before losing, 17-13, at Redlands. And that one-game experience is a big edge.

The same is true up at St. Mary's where John Zinda sends his untested Stags against a Gaels' team that will be playing its fourth game.

USD opened two weeks ago and lost to Redlands, 31-12. But the Toros have had two weeks to prepare for La Verne and scouted the Leopards last week.

Bruins better not look ahead to OSU

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) — Air Force Coach Ben Martin isn't particular. If the element of surprise will help, he's willing to count on it when his slumping Falcons host 10th-rated UCLA today.

"Psychologically, this is probably the best time to catch UCLA," says Martin, whose team is mired in a seven-game losing streak. "They're between two big opponents and we may not be on their minds much."

Last week the Bruins were ranked 12th and upset then No. 10 Tennessee 34-28. Next week the UCLA opponent is No. 2 Ohio State.

However, UCLA Coach Dick Vermeil insists that isn't the case. "We're not looking to Ohio State," he says. "I haven't even looked at film on Ohio State yet. We're concerned with Air Force only. They're a good solid team, and they always play with a high degree of intensity, no matter what the score."

Saturday's game is the home opener for the Falcons, who've lost to Arkansas 35-0 and Iowa State 17-12.

Martin blames "missed scoring opportunities" for the Falcons' troubles this season. "We've only taken advantage of about 50 per cent of our chances," he says. "You have to be almost 100 per cent if you want to upset anybody."

AFA has had difficulty defensing the option the past two games, and that's not good news.

UCLA quarterback John Sciarra "is among the best two or three quarterbacks in the nation, especially at running the option," says Martin. "He's their triggerman, the key to their attack. And he's tough to get ahold of as a scrambler."

Sciarra has run and passed for 430 yards and scored four touchdowns in the two games this season, ranking him eighth in the nation in total offense.

Vermeil says his signal-caller has become a marked man. "Defenses play harder against him," Vermeil says. "He took some shots against Tennessee that made me surprised he was able to get up. There's no question he's a marked man."

Junior running back Wendell Tyler came off the bench last week to rush for 129 yards on just 10 carries. Vermeil says he'll be in the starting lineup Saturday, "although I'm not so sure he doesn't play better coming in off the bench."

Mike Worden, although completing only 33 per cent of his passes, remains the Falcon quarterback, with Ken Wood the leading runner. Wood has 128 yards on 28 carries.

Dave Lawson is one of Air Force's main scoring threats. His 62-yard field goal last week set a major college record.

Ali's wife denies rift

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Muhammad Ali's wife, Belinda, said Friday night that a report of a serious rift with her heavyweight champion husband was "just propaganda."

"I don't know what triggered it off," she added as she arrived in San Francisco on a flight from Manila.

She had stayed less than 12 hours in the Philippines where her husband will defend his title next week against Joe Frazier and where reports have circulated that Ali has been keeping almost constant company with another woman, Veronica Porsche of Los Angeles.

Belinda said flatly, "My husband doesn't have any girlfriends. I'm his wife."

She said she was "friendly" with Miss Porsche and explained her quick return to the United States as business-related.

"We are building and decorating our home (in Chicago)," she said. "I had to get some things from him and the only person who could do itwas me."

Saints host Sierra

Two local high schools look for their first football win of 1975 while one other will be opening its season in prep grid action on tap for today.

In two evening games, both San Dimas and Chaffey highs will be looking for victory number one on the young season. In the lone afternoon contest, La Verne Lutheran opens its second football season in the young school's history against Bell-Jeff High of Burbank.

San Dimas will be playing host to Sierra of Whittier tonight at 8 p.m. at Bonita High. The Saints lost to Damien 16-0 last week so are thirsting for a victory.

San Dimas will probably be going more to its running attack for tonight's game, as Sierra looked very weak against the run in its 23-0 loss to La Habra last week.

The Saints have the talent in the rushing department, in fleet Fred Carter and fullback Bob Pleasant. The Spartans were burned for 258 yards on the ground by La Habra and figure to have trouble stopping Carter and Pleasant all evening.

The visitors from Whittier are a member of the Whitmont League, a CIF 3-A entry. Leading their attack tonight will be senior quarterback Dan Moen. Last week the Spartans were limited to only 52 yards offense in the shutout loss.

Of course, that's 48 more yards than the Saints made vs. Damien in their opener. S.D. coach Bob Baiz' squad figures to be better than that showing however, and has drawn the favorites' role in tonight's game.

Chaffey, coming off a heartbreaking 13-7 loss to Pasadena, will try to regroup against Magnolia. The Anaheim-based Sentinels beat Orange 20-18 in their opener.

The game, set for an 8 p.m. kick-off at Leonard Handel Stadium in Anaheim, figures to be another tough one for the Tigers. The Ontario school got a fine defensive job in its narrow loss to Pasadena but its clear that the Tiger offense has to perk up tonight for Chaffey to come away with a win.

La Verne Lutheran will kickoff its season at 3 p.m. today at Damien High. Bell-Jeff, the Trojan opponent, already has a game under its belt this fall. The Guards dropped a 12-6 decision to Coast Union a week ago.

Lutheran, under the direction of new coach John Rode, should be exciting to watch this season. The Trojans have some top returnees, including quarterback Steve Yager, running backs Ted Trahms and Don Liles, and wide receiver Dale Pomo. Biggest question-mark for L.V. will be how adversely its lack of depth will affect its effort today, and during the course of the season.

College football roundup

OSU hosts Tarheels

By The Associated Press

The last time North Carolina's football team journeyed to Ohio State, the Tar Heels were in for a surprise. They led 7-0 when Ohio State inserted a young running back named Archie Griffin.

"We did not know that Archie Griffin existed," North Carolina Coach Bill Dooley said after Griffin, then a freshman, rambled for a school record 239 yards, scored once and set up the other three touchdowns in Ohio State's 29-14 triumph, the only blemish on Carolina's 11-1 mark that season.

"Mark my words," Dooley predicted, "he's going to be one great football player."

Three years, one Heisman Trophy and 4,375 yards later, Griffin is ready to do battle with North Carolina again today when the Tar Heels invade Columbus to face second-ranked Ohio State. Carolina counters with a pair of topflight tailbacks in Mike Voight and James "Boom Boom" Betterson, both of whom topped 1,000 yards a year ago.

An unusual scheduling quirk finds most of the Associated Press top 10 teams at home — all except 10th-ranked UCLA, which visits Air Force, and No. 1-ranked Oklahoma, which played Miami of Florida Friday night.

The rest of the Top Ten slate finds Purdue at third-ranked Southern California, Texas Christian at No. 4 Nebraska, Wisconsin at No. 5 Missouri, Texas Tech at No. 6 Texas for a night game, Northwestern at No. 7 Notre Dame, Illinois at No. 8 Texas A&M and Baylor at No. 9 Michigan.

In the Second Ten, it's No. 11 Alabama at Vanderbilt, No. 12 Penn State at Iowa, Brigham Young at No. 13 Arizona State at night, Boston College at No. 14 West Virginia, No. 15 Arizona at Wyoming, Auburn at No. 16 Tennessee, North Texas State at No. 17 Oklahoma State, San Jose State at No. 18 Stanford, No. 19 Florida at Mississippi State under the lights and No. 20 Maryland at Kentucky.

Ohio State came through last week's 17-9 victory over Penn State with a minimum of injuries, the most serious to Coach Woody Hayes' feelings.

"We made too many mistakes and our execution lacked consistency," he griped. "We've got to improve, and we will. This team has great character and they never quit working."

Nebraska, 2-0, is an overwhelming favorite to destroy TCU, 0-2, while Wisconsin visits a Missouri team which is seeking revenge for a 59-20 thumping last season.

"I've played organized football for 12 years and that's the only ballgame I've ever played in that I wanted out at halftime," says Missouri defensive back Kenny Downing, recalling last year's thrashing. "It got to the point where it was sickening. It was a combination of a lot of things. We were on the road and we got psyched out by the fans. Then they broke that first play from scrimmage (Billy Marek's 81-yard touchdown run) and before we got settled down they got another."

Another revenge-bent team is Texas, which lost to Texas Tech 26-3 last year as Tommy Duniven completed all seven passes, three for touchdowns. Although Steve Sloan, Tech's new coach, was born in Austin, Tex., he never has seen Memorial Stadium except on TV.

"Do they play Taps or the Eyes of Texas before the game?" he inquired during the week, noting that the Longhorns have won their last 35 home games.

Dan Devine, Notre Dame's new coach, makes his debut under the Golden Dome at South Bend when the Fighting Irish oppose Northwestern. While Notre Dame was yielding only three points in downing Boston College and Purdue (17-0), Northwestern struggled to defeat Purdue (31-25) and Northern Illinois.

"You don't know how happy I am to be going home so we can have a normal week," Devine said after the Purdue game. "Between the Monday night game in Boston and our trip to Purdue, it seems like we've been on a bus for four days.

"We're still making little errors that have frustrated some good drives and these are the things we'll have to work on. We need more offensive discipline, and that starts with concentration. You just can't sustain long marches unless you become assignment-conscious. I'll be disappointed if we aren't better in these departments this week after getting back to a normal schedule and routine."

Texas A&M displayed its defense in blanking Mississippi 70 and its offense in pulverizing Louisiana State 39-8. Illinois' Bob Blackman says the Aggies "have the best personnel in the school's history. They have one of the best defensive units in the country and also run a very powerful Wishbone offense."

Michigan, held to a 19-19 tie by Stanford, will be trying to work its way back toward the top of the rankings in a game Baylor Coach Grant Teaff calls "possibly the biggest challenge in recent Baylor football history."

Michigan has had problems on offense, particularly in the short-yardage situations the Wolverines have been so adept at converting in the past. "In two games, we have had a first down inside our opponents' 40-yard line on 18 occasions and only scored twice," says Coach Bo Schembechler. "This is not the type of football we expect."

Giants headed for Canada?

NEW YORK (AP) — Canada's largest brewery has offered $15 million for baseball's finacially-troubled San Francisco Giants and the team's owner, Horace Stoneham, is said to be seriously considering the proposal, The Associated Press learned Friday.

Stoneham, whose Giants have lost money the last four years, has been offered the $15 million by Labatts Brewery in Toronto, a knowledgeable baseball source said. Stoneham has received similar financial offers from another group in Toronto and one in Seattle.

Stoneham was not immediately available for comment.

Stoneham's acceptance of any offer, however, must be approved by unanimous vote by the other National League owners.

One obstacle to such a move is that both the Congress and baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn want a team back in Washington D.C.

Six golfers share second round lead

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Longshot Wally Armstrong, who was just trying to make the cut, birdied five of his last six holes for a 65 that lifted him into a six-way tie for the lead Friday after two rounds of the $135,000 Sahara Invitational Golf Tournament.

"Mac McLendon, who was playing with me, kept telling me, 'You're a pro now, forget about making the cut and go for the whole thing,'" Armstrong said. "Maybe it worked.

"I know that when I birdied the 13th, it took the pressure off and then I could relax a little."

His 36-hole total of 134 was eight under par for two trips over the sun-splashed, 6,800-yard Sahara-Nevada Country Club course and was matched by first-round leader Miller Barber, Dave Hill, Bob Wynn, Bobby Mitchell and Rik Massengale in the tightest scramble on the tour this season.

The veteran Hill had a 66, Massengale and Mitchell had 64s, Wynn a 70 despite "6's" on his first and last holes, and the 44-year-old Barber managed to match par 71 in the hot sunny, windless weather that helped contribute to some of the lowest scoring of the year.

There was some absolutely spectacular scoring. Ken Still shot a 66 with a whiff on the first hole. Bruce Lietzke improved from an opening 80 to a 66. And Australian Bruce Crampton played the back nine in 28, just one shot off the alltime tour low for nine holes, on his way to a 65.

"The weather's perfect. The golf course is in great condition. The fairways are hard enough to give you a roll and make it play short. They just combine to make for some very low scoring," explained Massengale, who scored his first tour victory earlier in the season.

One shot off the lead halfway through the chase for a $27,000 first prize were chunky George Cadle and Bob Dickson. Cadle had a 66, Dickson 68.

Still's 66, despite missing the ball entirely when he got under a tree, tied him at 136—two shots back of the leading sixsome—with Don January and Chuck Courtney. January had a 66, Courtney 68.

Mountie runners fall

SANTA ANA — Mt. San Antonio College dropped its first South Coast Conference cross country meet to Santa Ana here Friday at Irvine Park, 23-32.

MSAC's Kevin Kellogg won the four-mile race in 20 minutes, 20 seconds for a new course record, but the Mounties lost the next four places to Santa Ana runners.

MSAC's Frank Diaz, Mike Garcia and Gary Smith finished sixth, seventh and eighth.

The Mounties return to action next Friday, hosting defending state champion Gross mont in a South Coast meet.

Ernst leads sinking Sun

By The Associated Press

Pat Haden has gone to England for his Rhodes Scholarship studies and Daryle Lamonica has gone into retirement, leaving rarely used and lightly regarded Mike Ernst as the starting quarterback for the Southern California Sun when they meet the Charlotte Hornets in a World Football League game tonight.

With Haden, a rookie, leading the league in passing and engineering the WFL's No. 1 offense before departing for Oxford University this week and Lamonica in reserve, Ernst saw little action with the Sun. This week, however, he will get his big chance.

He will have help from rookie Anthony Davis, the WFL's top rusher with 792 yards, including five games of over 100 yards, and nine touchdowns, and Terry Lindsey, first in the league in pass receiving with 484 yards on 30 catches.

Despite those outstanding individual performances and a team effort that has produced a league high average of 29 points per game, the Sun has lost its last three games, dropping Southern Cal's overall record to 4-4. Defense has been the Sun's downfall. The team has allowed an average of 31.3 points per game, the most by any team.

Charlotte is 4-3, including a 30-22 victory over the Sun two weeks ago. The Hornets are playing winning football despite being last in total offense and eighth in scoring.

In other weekend WFL games, Birmingham, 6-2, will be at Jacksonville, 4-3, on Saturday night, and the Hawaiians, 3-4, will play at Shreveport, 3-5, and Memphis, 6-1, will be at San Antonio, 6-3 on Sunday.

Philadelphia and Portland, each 2-6, are idle.

Birmingham, a 22-11 loser to Jacksonville earlier this season, will ty to reverse the score with the league's best running attack, led by Johnny Musso and Art Cantrelle, each of whom has gained over 400 yards.

Jacksonville is hoping for the return of quarterback George Mira, who suffered a sprained knee and an injured index finger two weeks ago.

The Memphis-San Antonio game matches the Eastern Division leader against the Western Division pacesetter. The Southmen feature a balanced offense, with John Huarte and Danny White passing to Paul Warfield and Ed Marshall, plus the power running of Larry Csonka, Jim Kiick and Willie Spencer.

Memphis' top-ranked defense, which has permitted an average of 15.6 points per game, will have to stop the passing of San Antonio's rapidly developing quarterback, Johnnie Walton.

Two other improving signal-callers, Sonny Sixkiller of the Hawaiians and Edd Hargett of Shreveport, will be matched against each other. Sixkiller's favorite target is Tim Delaney, third in the league in receiving. Hargett was named the WFL's Player of the Week last week after completing 20 fo 30 passes for 369 yards and three touchdowns in a 38-29 victory over Southern California.

Andretti turns in fastest time

LONG BEACH (AP)— Former Indianapolis 500 champion Mario Andretti turned in the fastest lap Friday as practice opened for the Long Beach Grand Prix.

Andretti, driving a Lola Chevy, averaged 86.403 miles per hour over the twisting two mile course as an international field of drivers began warming up for the inaugural running of the race over Long Beach streets Sunday.

Qualifying begins today, with Andretti, Al Unser, Brian Redman, Jackie Oliver and Jody Scheckter expected to be top contenders for the pole position.

Tony Brise was just behind Andretti's time as the drivers got their first look at the course.

Brise, of London, covered the 12-turn course at 86.287 m.p.h.

Redman, the 1973-74 Grand Prix Circuit points champion from Yorkshire, England rand the third fastest lap, 86.127.

Al Unser, who blew the engine in his Lola Chevy and switched to a backup car, turned in an 85.937 lap, and Scheckter and Oliver also were among the 10 fastest around the course. Others considered to be top contenders for the $100,000 purse are Gordon Johncock, George Follmer and Warwick Brown.

There will be two 24-mile heat races today to determine the final starting positions Sunday.

Sports briefs

MARTINSVILLE, Va. (AP) — Cale Yarborough of Timmonsville, S. C., broke a 3-year-old record Friday at Martinsville Speedway and won the pole position for Sunday's $75,000 20th annual Old Dominion 500 Grand National stock car race.

Yarborough, driving a Chevrolet, turned the .525-mile track in a speed of 86.199 miles per hour and earned $1,000 and the top starting position for the 500-lap, 262.5-mile event, richest short-track race in National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing history.

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Moses Malone, sophomore standout of the Utah Stars, suffered a broken right foot in a scrimmage Thursday night and will be out of action three to five weeks, a team spokesman said Friday.

The foot was placed in a walking cast, said the team physician, Dr. Ralph McDonald.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers signed Ernie McMillan, once a star offensive tackle with St. Louis, Friday and waived running back Larry Krause and offenive tackle Bill Hayhoe, veterans who had been on the injured reserve list.

McMillan, 37, had been waived by St. Louis Sept. 16. The 6-foot-5, 265 pounder, a 13-year National Football League veteran, is expected to back up Bill Bain and Dick Himes, the only offensive tackles on the Packer roster. Keith Wortman, a starting guard, had been providing relief time for both.

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's Jan Kodes captured his match and Jiri Hrebec led in his before darkness forced a halt to the Davis Cup tennis semifinals against Australia Friday.

Kodes whipped John Alexander 6-4, 2-6, 7-5, 6-4 and Hrebec came from behind to lead Tony Roche, 3-6, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3 and 1-0 before play was suspended.

Sometimes a piece of the sun seems to disappear. And then more and more of it disappears until finally the bright sunlight is blotted out, and the day is plunged into darkness. The stars flash out and chickens go to rest.

Long ago, people believed that a huge dragon in the sky had swallowed the sun.

Today, we know that solar eclipses occur when the moon in its journey around the earth passes directly between the earth and the sun and casts its shadow on the earth's surface.

The moon's shadow is small, so only a small part of the earth sees it.

Eclipses of the sun do not last very long. They are over in a few minutes.

There are eclipses of the moon, too! A lunar eclipse is caused by the shadow which the earth casts on the moon when the earth is between the moon and the sun.

Because the earth's shadow is so big, an eclipse of the moon lasts several hours.

A pocket radio, camera, World Almanac, globe or other fine prize will be awarded to the first youngster sending in a question used here. Send your question and your age to Johnny Wonder, (c/o this newspaper), Box 1335 (DA), Santa Cruz, CA 95061.

Ex-POW says

Patty brainwashed

SANTA BARBARA (AP) — Retired Navy Cmdr. Lloyd Bucher says his "gut feeling" was that brainwashing could have converted Patty Hearst into a revolutionary.

Bucher, who spent 10 months as a North Korean captive following the takeover of his ship the Pueblo, said Thursday that changes in personality are possible under such circumstances.

He pointed out, however, that he was not subjected to brainwashing by North Koreans.

"I got a lot of rough treatment," Bucher said. "But there was no attempt to change basic beliefs."

Bucher said, "I've read where people kidnapped have oftentimes later identified with their kidnappers."

Bucher was in Santa Barbara to speak at a city college.

Astrographs

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL
For Sunday, Sept. 28, 1975

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You're not overly patient with the family today. If everyone's walking around the house with a long face, you may be to blame.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Giving orders comes easy to you today. However, if you want others to follow your edicts, you'd better try to set a good example.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) If you've committed yourself to picking up the tab today, first check the prices or you'll make a king-size dent in your wallet.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Others will make such heavy demands on your time you won't have much to yourself. Put your dreams away for another day.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You will be hypersentitive today. Weigh what others say or you'll mistake a sincere comment for a put-down.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Have fun with friends today, but don't mix in money or things of material nature. If you do, hard feelings will result.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Normally, you're very considerate of others' feelings. Today, you'll be so intent on having your way you'll get someone's hackles up.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Be content to let sleeping dogs lie. You're likely to unwittingly dredge up some old, unpleasnat issue that could be very disturbing to a friend.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) It's a losing proposition to give business advice to a friend today. If the situation doesn't pan out, he'll blame you for his failure.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) You're not a good team player today. Avoid getting into a situation where you must rely on a partner. Neither will be happy.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Where usually you're willing to lend a hand, today you will resent it deeply if anyone asks for a favor.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Take no risks today where someone else is calling the shots. If you can't be captain of your own ship, pass the action.

Your Birthday, Sept. 28, 1975

Events and conditions will force you to be extremely ambitious this coming year. Just be sure to repay favors to anyone who's helped on the way up.

Granny's problems get karate chop

SAN BERNARDINO (AP) — Granny wears a black belt.

"I can be feeling down or having a problem, go to a class and let them throw me around a bit and I get rid of it," says Connie Glembot, 60.

"With me, it's not one of those women's lib things. I'm completely satisfied with my marital status. I just go to relax."

Her instructor, Kazuko Swauger, says the grandmother of six and the mother of two is the oldest woman ever to achieve a first-degree black belt, awarded to advanced participants in judo.

It took Mrs. Glembot five years and eight months to earn her black belt, about average, says her teacher.

"Oh, it was nothing," the staunch grandmother chuckles, "...of course there was quite a bit of work involved, but I enjoyed it so much and had so much fun, I hesitate to call it work."

"The discipline of the sport," Mrs. Glembot said in a recent interview, "teaches you to get your body and mind coordinated and work as one. When you are there to practice judo, your mind is on it physically and mentally."

Mrs. Glembot became interest in the old Samurai sport 22 years ago when she and her husband—now a retired Air Force sergeant—were stationed in Puerto Rico.

"I remember there were a number of G.I.s there working out on mats," she said. "At that time there were no instructions for women, but I recall my sons, Raymond and Lee, were very interested in it. I guess they are actually responsible for my interest in the sport, because they would watch the G.I.s practice and then would come home and practice with mother."

Her travels with her husband to other bases and lack of judo classes for women shifted her interest away from the sport for 16 years.

When her husband retired, the Glembots moved here and her interest in judo was revived when she met Mrs. Swauger in a local gymnasium.

Mrs. Swauger, a champion in women's kata judo, and a member of a Samurai family, started a women's class in 1969 and Mrs. Glembot's interest was finally transformed into action.

Not tired of being flung around in the judo ring, she recommended the sport to anyone, because, "if a 60-year-old grandmother can do it, just about anyone can," she says.

Club privacy opened by court

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A federal appeals court agreed Friday that a Florida yacht club cannot exclude Jews or blacks. A dissenting judge called it an unprecedented invasion of private rights.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals decision upheld by a vote of 2 to 1 a ruling by U.S. District Court Judge Norman C. Roettger Jr. ordering Biscayne Bay Yacht Club not to deny membership solely on the basis of race or religion.

It came in a suit filed by Harold S. Golden and David Fincher.

Roettger's order was based on the fact that the yacht club leases bay bottom area from Miami for docks and thus is subject to laws forbidding discrimination.

"So far as I know, or can find out, this is the first time in the history of American jurisprudence that a federal court has assumed jurisdiction over the membership policies of a genuinely private club," protested Judge James P. Coleman.

His dissent said it means that "no private club, private individual or collection of private individuals may lease public property for private use and be able thereafter to remain private."

Coleman said the lease is the only link between club and city.

The club bought its bayside clubhouse in 1932 and then had to lease adjacent bay bottom for its docks after the city asserted ownership of all bay bottoms in 1962. The lease is for $1 a year.

That lease, the court held, put club membership policies under the 14th Amendment which forbids "state action of every kind that operates to deny citizen the equal protection of the laws."

There are many yacht or hunting clubs all over the nation with similar lease arrangements.

"As if we did not already have more to do than we can possibly perform, judges now become ex-officio managers of the membership policies of all such private clubs," said Coleman.

The 5th said the club has no restrictive bylaws as to race or religion but has never had a black or a Jew among its members.

The court said Miami "fostered the club's continued existence and prosperity by providing a lease essential to the club's operation and charging a token fee for the privilege of excluding members of the public from the beneficial use of public property."

Ambassador's cultural venture

Doc Peirsol

It happened in Pomona

A woodworking shop in Pomona once played an important part in the creation and development of a new and modern concept in the art of men's wear merchandising. This interesting fact is documented in an article in the August 10, 1904, Pomona Daily Review, which described at some length that Pomona firm's contribution to the fine art of storing and displaying men's clothing.

"Some of the finest oak store furniture ever turned out in this locality is now in the course of construction at the Fosdick wood working shop on South Main Street," the story stated. "At an expense of some $1,500 two great cases of oak and plate glass are being put together for the Midgley Bros. store. There is nothing like them in any store in Southern California outside of Los Angeles. They are new ideas for keeping stocks of clothing — doing away with the old manner of piling articles of clothing in heaps upon tables. The new oak and glass cases are each five feet deep, seven feet high and forty feet long. Within them clothing on wire frames will be hung."

And then for final proof to substantiate its contention that Fosdick's wood working shop had indeed made a dramatic forward step in the art of merchandise display and storage, the Pomona Daily Review report closed with the statement: "There are huge drawers at the bottom for trousers."

Bicentennial envelopes offered

By Gustav Detjen, Jr.

The U.S. Postal Service is going to produce a series of embossed envelopes for the Bicentennial. The new format envelopes will carry a silhouette in the lower left hand corner which compliments the subject of the indicia. Depicting the occupations of the common man, the subjects will include seafaring, farming, homemaking, craftmanship and medicine.

The first in the series will be a 10-cent envelope which will be issued Oct. 13 in Minneapolis, Minn. It honors the Seafaring Tradition, with a compass rose forming the indica. A silhouetted sailing ship, labeled "Bicentennial Era The Seafaring Tradition" appears in the opposite corner, well below the area reserved for the return address. The sailing ship depicted is the Norwegian sloop RESTAURATIONEN. Collectors desiring the first day cancellations may send orders to "Seafaring Tradition, Postmaster, Minneapolis, MN 55401." with remittance of 12 cents per envelope. The 6¾ size will be supplied unless the large number 10 size is requested. Collectors are requested to send self-addressed envelopes of an appropriate size with their orders so that envelopes may be returned to them under cover. Orders must be postmarked no later than Oct. 13.

SAFETY FIRST FROM RHODESIA

On Oct. 15, Rhodesia will issue a set of four commemoratives to draw attention to Occupational Safety. The stamps pointedly indicated what can happen if safety measures are not taken on the job. Details from Posts and Telecommunications Corp., Philatelic Bureau, Private Bag 199H, Salisbury, Rhodesia.

NOVELIST JANE AUSTEN HONORED

Jane Austen, one of the most respected and admired of British novelists, is to be commemorated by a special issue of stamps to be released on Oct. 22 to mark the bicentenary of her birth. The set of four depicts characters from some of Jane Austen's novels. Check with your dealer for availability or contact the Philatelic Bureau, Lothian House, 124 Lothian Road, Edinburgh EH3 9BB, Great Britain.

The spacious foyer of the Ambassador Auditorium makes extensive use of stone, wood and carpeting.

ON THE COVER

The $10 million Ambassador Auditorium in Pasadena opened Wednesday with a recital by tenor Luciano Pavarotti, launching a series of concerts that will bring some of the world's leading musical artists and groups to the new hall. The building is surrounded by 25 concrete and quartz pillars 72 feet tall. In the half-acre lake around the auditorium stands a 30-foot fountain sculpture by British artist David Wynne.

The 1,260-seat auditorium has an orchestra shell of movable teak panels.

Ambassador opens series of concerts

Story by Joseph H. Firman
PB staff writer

When lyric tenor Luciano Pavarotti walked out on the stage of the glittering $10 million Ambassador Auditorium in Pasadena Wednesday, he launched a unique venture — a series of concerts by the world's most prestigious artists staged solely for the benefit of charitable, humanitarian, educational and cultural organizations.

The series, sponsored by the Ambassador International Cultural Foundation, is actually 16 different concert series featuring such performers and groups as Vladimir Horowitz, Joan Sutherland, Yehudi Menuhin, Valery and Galina Panov, Grace Bumbry, Ruggiero Ricci, the Vienna Chamber Orchestra and the San Francisco Symphony.

The Foundation, initially funded by the Worldwide Church of God, will underwrite costs of the concerts, thereby enabling all proceeds to go to local and worldwide institutions and projects such as the United Way, March of Dimes, the Crippled Children's Society, UNICEF, Archeological Excavations in Jerusalem, the Arthur Rubinstein Piano Master Competition, Eilat-Los Angeles Sisters City Committee, Tel Avivi University, the King Leopold III Foundation, the International Cultural Center for Youth in Jerusalem, Pasadena Symphony and Big Brothers of Los Angeles.

AICF is a non-profit organization established by Herbert W. Armstrong, pastor general of the Worldwide Church of God, which has its headquarters at Ambassador College, with which the foundation is affiliated. The college, founded in 1946, is a private, coeducational liberal arts institution, located at 300 W. Green St.

At first glance, the college's Ambassador Auditorium is reminiscent of the Pavilion of the Los Angeles Music Center. The Ambassador has a flat top, 72-foot high colonnade, facade of reflecting bronze glass, an oversize chandelier and underground parking. The 3,250-seat Pavilion was designed by Welton Becket and Associates; the 1,260-seat Ambassador by Daniel, Mann, Johnson & Mendenhall.

The new Pasadena pleasure dome is surrounded by a half-acre lake in the middle of which stands a 30-foot fountain sculpture of soaring egrets by English sculptor David Wynne.

The Ambassador drew on all countries of the world for its structure and furnishings. There is Italian glass mosaic tile, Norwegian granite, fiber carpeting from Hong Kong, onyx wall facing from Turkey and Persia, African bartiki wood handrails, candelabra from France. The huge, 3-tiered chandelier of bronze and crystal was made in West Germany.

The entrance foyer and downstairs lounge are covered with a flamboyant custom-loomed carpet with a starburst pattern. The carpeting of the main level of the auditorium is royal purple, the seats of gold color. In the balcony the carpeting is gold, the seats of crimson. The interior of the auditorium is done in rosewood with teak trim and adorned with glass crystal lighting fixtures.

The auditorium has an orchestra shell of teak panels which can be removed, and a hydraulically operated stage. The hall boasts 236 microphone inputs and a 48-channel sound console capable of balancing voices and music in quadraphonic sound. For television there are built-in cables for eight color camera locations. The lighting system is controlled by a sophisticated mini - computer with a cassette - programmed memory capable of performing four simultaneous fades at differing speeds.

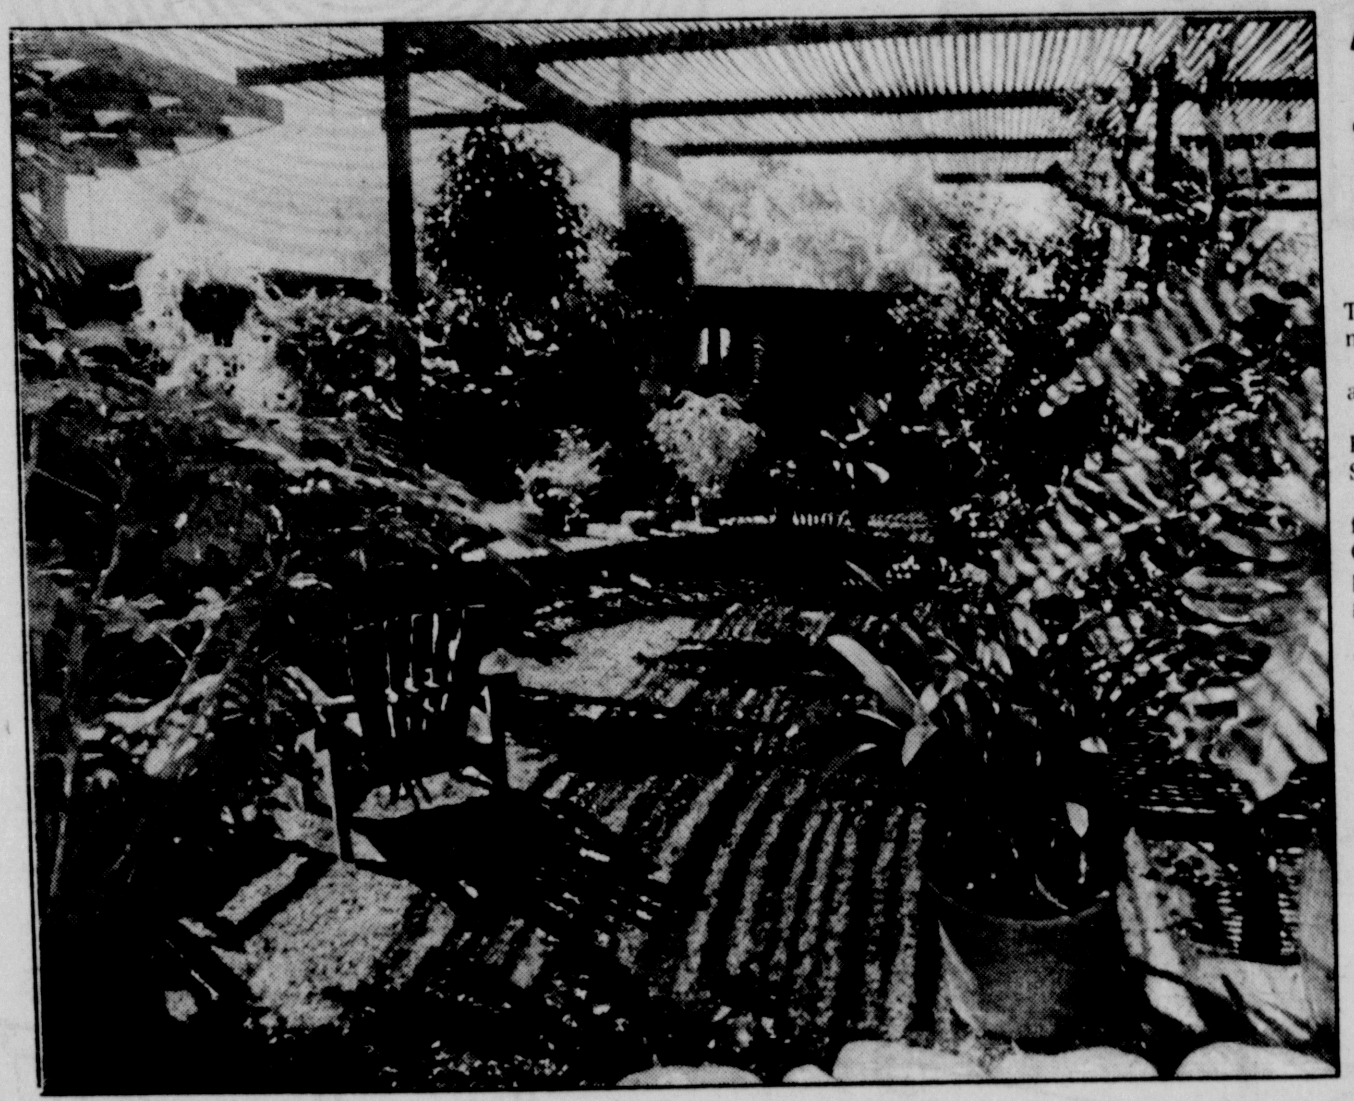

In the basement of the Ambassador, besides the spacious lounge and foyer, are two completely equipped recording studios which can record all the programs on stage in a central console. There are also dressing rooms, music rehearsal rooms, and extensive storage areas for properties and equipment.

Tickets are on sale for each of the 16 different concert series. A 64-page color brochure on the series, the auditorium and the institutions sharing the proceeds can be obtained by writing to Ambassador International Cultural Foundation, 300 W. Green St., Pasadena 91129 or by calling (213) 577-5360.

Bartiki wood handrails, marble pediments and rich carpeting give the auditorium a luxurious air.

GARDEN SIDELIGHT — A hanging garden is part of The Woodworks home furnishings complex. A wide range of plants is sold at this section of the shop.

Hanging garden showpiece at new Woodworks

A hanging garden provides a beautiful "showpiece" at The Woodworks, newly opened furniture shop in Claremont.

Formerly Dynamite Furniture Co., the outlet is located at 743 E. Foothill Blvd.

The Woodworks' factory still is located at 932 Price St., Pomona, but the "showroom" moved to Claremont last Saturday.

Co-owner Jim Bassett, whose firm designs all its own furniture, calls the new shop a home furnishings complex. Customers can find couches and chairs, but also pottery, plants, stained glass windows, rugs, metal work, leather goods and wood works.

Local artists sell their work through the new shop, which emphasizes the fact that all items are designed by the company. "We don't buy anything from anybody except artists who work for us," said Bassett. "We've totally eliminated the middleman, a guy who takes a profit and doesn't do anything."

Bassett emphasizes he now has 4,000 square feet of showroom space, compared to only 800 in the Pomona factory.

There are thousands of fabrics available in the new shop, which formerly was a backpacker store, and at one time was the office for architect Fred McDowell.

Bassett's partner in the business is David Sheets, son of Millard Sheets, local artist.

A highlight of the store is the hanging garden, designed by "ForeverGreen", a business owned by two Cal Poly students, Dave Ellis and Bob Rubel.

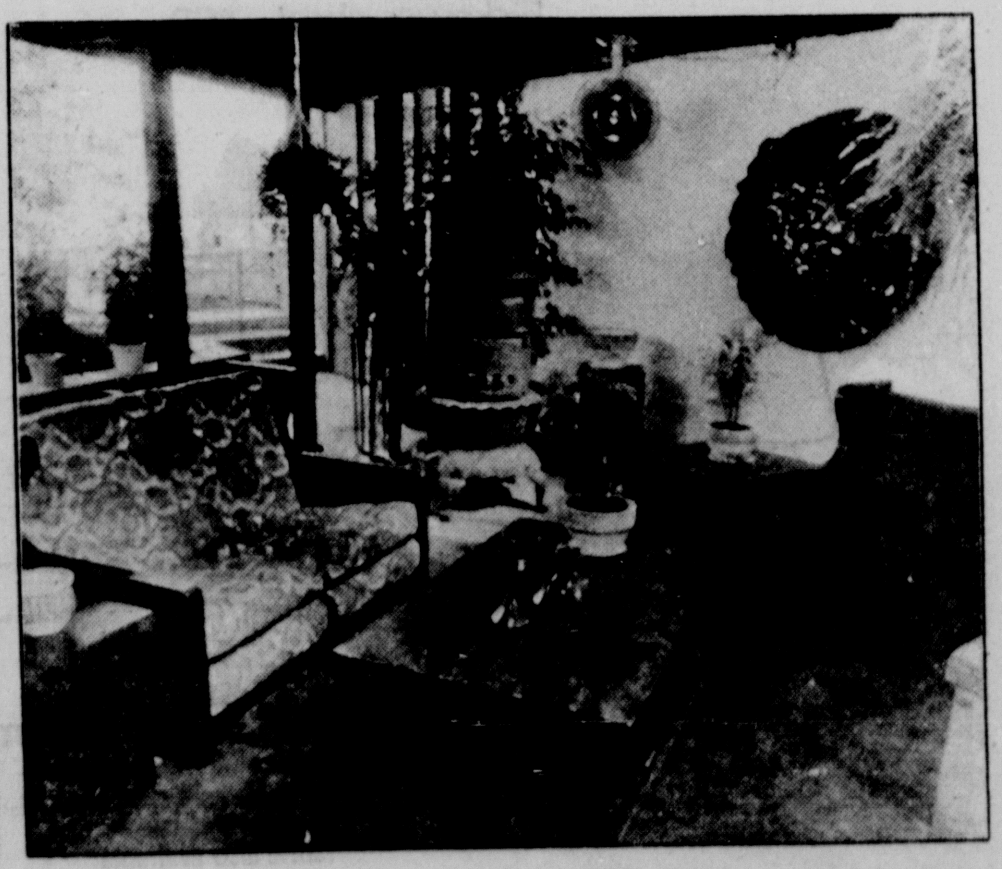

Ellis, 21, and his partner are in charge of making and selling all the plants offered at The Woodwork.

Everything from a plant called "Creeping Charlie" to bonsai and mingaralia are available at the shop. "We can advise people on the right plants for the right location in their homes," Ellis said.

Ellis, a landscape architect major at Cal Poly, eventually hopes to expand his firm to do landscaping in local residences.

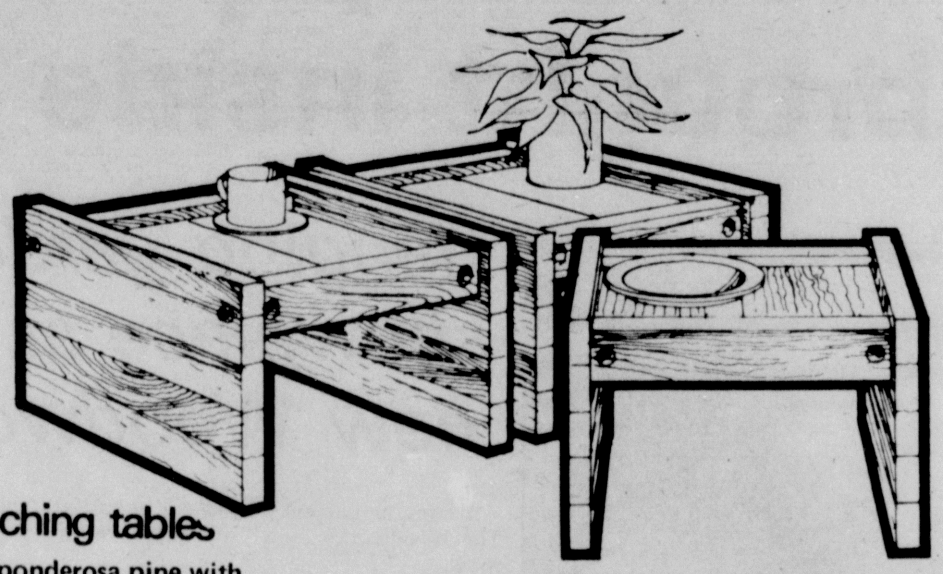

LOCAL DESIGNERS — Owners of the Woodworks say that all items sold there are designed by their own artists.

ASSORTED FURNISHINGS — Various displays greet customers at the Woodworks shop at 743 E. Foothill Blvd., Claremont.

Tune In

TUSH

Z Z Top is another group that's turning the ears of the country toward Texas. The trio plays hard-driving rock and roll rooted in the tradition of Southwestern blues and R & B. Dusty Gill (l) is on bass, Billy Gibbons (m) on lead guitar, and Frank Beard (r) on drums, with Dusty and Billy taking turns on the vocals. Dusty provides rhythm lines on the bass, which allows Frank more improvisation on the drums. "And tell the young drummers of the world I only know three beats," Frank says. "The shuffle, the cut shuffle, and the monkey beat." This week's tune is from Z Z Top's fourth LP, "Fandango," which means a big bash. Back in cattle drive days, the cowboys always had a Fandango at the end of the trail when their pockets were filled with money.

Claremont High named leader

By DEBBIE ANSELL
Claremont High
Correspondent

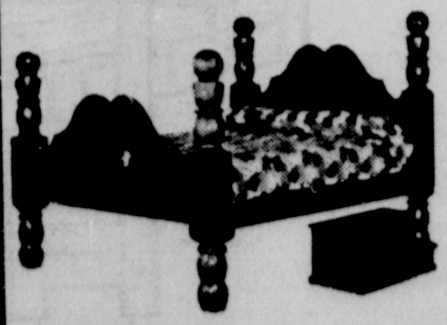

Claremont High School has been elected "chairschool" of the San Antonio League Student Council.

CHS was chosen at a recent meeting of the council, which is made up of representatives from Chino, Damien, Ganesha, Upland, Garey, Montclair, and Claremont high schools.

The council under the supervision of the SAL school principals will coordinate and carry out many projects during the school year.

Currently in the planning stages are a league student leadership workshop, a new council constitution, and different types of intraschool activities. The council will give an award to the school demonstrating the most spirit and sportsmanship throughout the year.

Student government is playing an active role on the Claremont High School campus as well. A Principal's Advisory Board is currently being formed in an effort to strengthen communications between students and the administration.

Biography gives unbiased look at Samuel Johnson

By SAMUEL BELLMAN

SAMUEL JOHNSON. By John Wain. Viking. $12.50.

Take one of the most fascinating of all 18-Century English writers — Samuel Johnson — run him through the mind of a famous novelist, university fellow and Oxford Professor of Poetry . . . born in Johnson's home territory, the Staffordshire 'Potteries' — and you have an eminently readable biography for all seasons.

(Samuel Bellman is exchange Professor of English in the department of historical and literary studies at Portsmouth Polytechnic, Portsmouth, England.)

John Wain (author of books of poetry, criticism, and autobiography as well as of fiction) explains his reasons for presenting the life of an eminence already so familiar.

Johnson is still not regarded in the proper light: he is taken as too conservative or even reactionary, indifferent to the suffering of the disadvantaged. And Wain is in a position to see his life from the inside. He is from Johnson's part of the country and had pretty much the same social background to start off with.

Wain and Johnson shared the same university (Oxford) and "the same life of Grub Street, chance employment, and the unremitting struggle to write enduring books against the background of an unstable existence."

But what manner of biography is this, of that coarse, slovenly pontificator; mentor of the lascivious and sprightly Scot, James Boswell; compiler of a preposterous dictionary of unreadable terms; author of a distinguished series, "Lives of the English Poets" as well as of innumerable periodical essays and other miscellaneous works; editor of Shakespeare's plays; and colorful character par excellence?

Wain explains unhesitatingly that "there is no research in this book": his material is taken from earlier sources, a few of them modern but most of them 18th-Century works. But there is the novelist's touch, the verbal sensitivity of a man of letters, in Wain's details.

And so Wain unrolls his rich enthralling tapestry, embellishing Johnson's antics and nervous, sometimes inspired fits, with lavish and colorful background commentary. Johnson enters Oxford, after an unhappy and sickly childhood with uncongenial parents.

Says Wain: "The day on which a young man enters college is traditionally said to be that on which death seems furthest away." Johnson's childhood, in other words, had now ended. But he had built-in kinks at least as troublesome as the scrofula or "King's evil" which his parents took him to Queen Anne to be cured of, hopefully, by the royal "touch."

Here is Johnson, the moody and somewhat unstable journalist-literateur, married to a widow much older than himself, living (like Shakespeare) apart from his wife: "He was living in a pattern of Bohemianism so extreme that it bordered on vagrancy, treading the streets of night-town with thieves and prostitutes" . . . and beside him, that wild, dissolute outcast and martyr-poseur, that "bastard" poet whom Johnson celebrated in one of his best essays, Richard Savage.

Here is the aging Johnson, a pre-eminent man of letters and center of attraction among the London literati, but shabby and ludicrous in appearance, yet recipient of a royal pension from George III: "he still dreaded the judgment of God, his sexual needs were still unslaked, he still had to use the powers of his mind to win respect as a hopelessly inelegant person in an age that valued elegance."

Here is Johnson in a state of nervous collapse from his literary labors on the edition of Shakespeare that added so greatly to his stresses and strains.

Carefully consulting the best sources, rounding out the picture of a tormented man mismatched with his parents, his wife, even his great and good friends the Thrales (whom he parasitized for so long) . . . but brilliant and forcefully persuasive even when bordering on the ludicrous, John Wain has drawn for us a moving and memorable portrait of a man for one season: the English 18th Century, with its Georgian timelessness, its offstage rumblings and revolutions, and its moral certainty and peremptoriness in the face of accelerating change.

Profile not worth time and effort

THE PRESIDENT. By John Hersey. Knopf. $6.95.

John Hersey's eavesdropping covers the week of March 10, 1975, from a rainy Monday in the White House to a sunny Saturday on the Burning Tree golf course. As you close the book after reading of a presidential clout to the seventh green, you wonder whether the whole exercise was worth the effort.

While Hersey has presented a picture of a solidly conservative President with a Middle American conscience and a deep belief in the rightness of the American system, the amount of trivia he covers tends to transform the work into a monumental bore.

The President has been compared with Calvin Coolidge. Indeed, the image of Silent Cal performing for the cameras such rites as donning an Indian war bonnet or pretending to be a fisherman is evoked by Hersey's pages.

In addition, a lot of space is taken up by faithful reportage of such presidential chores as beaming upon the babes of Congressmen or exchanging platitudes with the winner of one or another beauty pageant.

Hersey had no opportunity to sit in on the President's daily meetings with the secretary of state, since the peripatetic Henry Kissinger was in the Middle East at the time.

Armour makes house into home

By STAN ROBERTS

THE SPOUSE IN THE HOUSE by Richard Armour. McGraw Hill. $6.95.

With a suggestion that the plural for "spouse" be accepted as "Spice" the former dean of faculty at Scripps College launches the 52nd book of his career.

The book is a collection of some 130 examples of Armour's light verse, comments about his family, his home and himself, most of them published earlier in national magazines.

Illustrations are by Henry Syverson, best known for his drawings of "Post Scripts" in the Saturday Evening Post.

The Claremont professor, who still accepts occasional teaching assignments despite his retirement, has an easy way with rhymes and rhythms as he wryly weighs his marital relationship (he has been "blissed" 4½ decades), delves into habits that conflict with those of his wife (squeezing the tooth paste), and notes the little things that annoy him (pictures hanging crooked).

He also pokes fun at the eye shadow, short bath tubs, supermarket aisles, and scores of other daily items that help shape the life of the modern sapien anthropoid.

He winds it all up neatly with a note of satisfaction that upon returning home he finds not a welcome mat but a welcome mate.

It's all fun reading. And if you happen to need a quick verse to illustrate a point, this little book will enhance your chance.

Governor's son gets role

BOSTON (AP) — John Dickson looked like any other teenager trying out for the starring role in a local musical, but when the auditions were over the winner turned out to be John Dukakis, the Massachusetts governor's son.

John, a senior at Brookline High School, said he used a fake name so he would be judged on merit not on his connection with Gov. Michael S. Dukakis.

The young Dukakis, 17, claimed the leading part of Paul Revere in the bicentennial musical "Young Country." According to director Kippy Dewey, John was selected for the part because he was the best candidate.
